Conductor Curtis' family who have been sojourning at Green Basin, on the Oregon Pacific, for some time, returned to the city yesterday. There is a rumor of change of time on the Oregon Pacific train to the front. If the change goes back to the old time, allowing the train to lay over night in Albany it will be acceptable. The Ladies Auxiliary will meet in the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Friday of this week at 5:30 p. m. A full attendance is desired. M. J. BARNHART, Secretary. Tomorrow is Halloween. In olden times it was supposed spirits went abroad on that night and did all kinds of mischief and boys have acted the part of spirits ever since. The product of a ten-acre apple orchard in the Rogue river valley, near Grant's Pass, was sold last week to the Earl Fruit Company, of San Francisco, $4,650. The price paid was 65 cents per box. The buyer did the packing, picking and furnishing boxes. The apples were of the red winter variety and were packed for the Australian and Japan markets. An Alleged Duel. W. S. Johns, who has recently had some trouble with David Hothens, who was arrested for trying to kidnap John's stepdaughter, says that he fought the latter a duel with revolvers on Wednesday. Mr. Johns familiarly known as "Warm Spring Johnny." It was a bloodless, but highly exciting affair according to the latter story. The combatants arranged all the details, and met alone in the graveyard, also in the rain. They fired four shots. Johnny, who is an old army scout, and a good shot, winged his man, he says just burning him on the leg, giving him all the satisfaction he wanted. The public has no information of the circumstances. Notice to the Afflicted. A staff of physicians and surgeons from the California state medical and surgical institute will be at the St. Charles Hotel for several days for free consultation with their numerous patients in this vicinity and others afflicted who desire to interview them. The remarkable success which this institute has had in the treatment of chronic and nervous diseases where all other methods had failed, should encourage those suffering from various afflictions to consult with these eminent and skillful specialists. Improving. Mrs. Della V. Pengra writes to the Eugene Guard that her husband, R. J. Pengra, is rapidly improving under the treatment of physicians at the asylum. She states that she was with him all day Saturday, and found him in a greatly improved condition, physically and mentally. Superintendent Rowland assured her that Mr. Pengra was very susceptible of treatment, was gaining rapidly, and he thought, would entirely recover possession of his faculties.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Oregon vs. J. D. Lewis, assault and battery; plea guilty and fined $50 and costs. Behind the Scenes. The jinxed manager of a jinxed company of old time battles who aspire to be actors is authority for the following, published in the Seattle Dramatic Star: "Just imagine what the Eastern actors encounter in the woolly, wild West. At Salem, Oregon, led by the manager of the little opera hall, who is always ready to assist the traveling companies, proposed to Charley Dickson of Inceog, Co., that he had an idea that would bring him in a hundred dollars more, and what do you think he said? 'No way.' He wanted to hire the tin-horn band and have a street parade on the minstrel style. Now just imagine Harry Dickson, Harry Davenport, Louis Mann, Robert Edson, Earl Brown, J. L. Orton, and Edger A. Ken and the ladies parading up the streets in a jay town with a mossback manager." Salem gave the saloon bums a good sized audience and the above thrust shows the appreciation of the company, who, women and all, after the show, on the night of the presentation of Inceog, in Salem, walked brazenly into a Commercial street saloon. Beyond this the reporters' eyes followed them not.—Salem Starman. Officers Elected. At the regular October convocation of the Oregon Knights Templar grand commandery in Portland, the following officers were elected and installed: Grand commander, David P. Mason, Albany; deputy grand commander, S. M. Moran, Eugene; grand generalissimo, J. M. Hobson, Portland; grand captain general, P. S. Malcolm, Portland; grand prelate, B. E. Lippincott, Portland; grand secretary, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Albany; grand judge, W. C. Beames, Jacksonville; grand treasurer, B. G. Whitehouse, Portland; grand recorder, James F. Robinson, Eugene; grand standard bearer, William Preston, Eugene; grand swordbearer, William Ban z. Portland; grand warden, C. B. Winn, Albany; grand chaplain, Gustaf Wilson, Portland. The convocation adjourned to meet again in Portland in one year. Teachers' Examination. Notice is hereby given that the regular public examination of teachers for Linn county, will take place in Albany, commencing on Wednesday, Nov. 13th, at 1 o'clock p. m. and continue until Friday noon, Nov. 15th. All teachers must positively be present at the time of commencement, as no one will be admitted to the examination who is not so present. G. F. RUSSELL, County School Superintendent. Improving the Road. The state railroad commissioners have returned from a tour of inspection of the Southern Pacific to the California line. Commissioner Clow says a great many improvements are noticeable along the line from Roseburg south. A great many trees are done away with by filling in the cuts, thus making the road more substantial and much safer. The Weather, To-Day. Following is the forecast of the signal service for the next twenty-four hours: Light rains, nearly stationary temperature.

The people residing on the upper McKenzie river in Lane county are having a leprosy scare on account of a man from Kal, M. J. H. Babcock, who had taken up a claim there having been found to be afflicted with the loathsome disease. Geo. Frissell of the McKenzie Bridge says the report that Miss Tuttle at the bridge has symptoms of leprosy is entirely false. Dr. Barr, of Foley Springs, made thorough examination and writes that the girl is entirely free from any symptom of the complaint. Miss Tuttle has been hysterical and afflicted with heart disease since she heard that reports were in circulation concerning her. Babcock has been isolated and is not allowed to leave his residence, food being carried to him. Mr. Frissell says there are gross exaggerations concerning the case, in circulation. Low Price for Horses. The Dalles Times-Mountaineer: A party of men arrived in thia city to-day from California, having driven a band of horses from Grant county during the past season. They started from Bayville July 1st, and in six weeks arrived in Sacramento, where they were forced to sell at a very low price. One of the men, with whom our reporter had an interview, said some very fine horses in the band he drove sold for only $15, while he knew one lot of horses to be sold for $10 a head. Fish and General Market. The undersigned have opened a fish and general produce market on Second street, between Broad and Ellsworth, where we will keep the best of fresh fish, game, poultry and general produce market, and invite a share of patronage. CLAUDE & CAUSLEY. Experts pronounce Klein Bros. piano one of the finest toned instruments.

NEWS OF THE COAST.

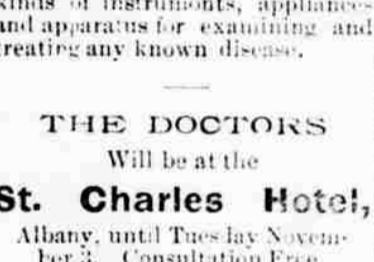

Interesting Items from Exchanges Throughout the Northwest. The firm of Junction City are already advertising a ball to be given Christmas night. About 2,000 bushels of apples will be picked from Dr. Shelton's orchard below town and a great many have already gone to waste. The yield is enormous, says the Eugene Register. Junction City is to have a new Christian church and lumber for the same is now on the ground. The net receipts of the Portland Exposition this year were about $8000 greater than last year. A number of men are employed at Florence now constructing a pile driver for use in the jetty work. Union will have a new city hall soon, at a cost of $7000. The United Brethren of Eugene have subscribed $3000 toward building a new church in that city. The banks of the Columbia near Unatilla have for many years been rich with Indians' relics and curios. One woman of that place has a collection of nearly 2000 pieces, which has an enormous value. A mountain of mica is reported to have been discovered on the Canoe River, about 200 miles north of the British Columbia boundary line, by Julius B. Flemming, Kamlook, P. C. Specimen of the mica is on exhibition at the office of the Ore. Improvement Company in Seattle, and by Mr. G. F. Kyle, said that sheets 12x25 inches, without a flaw on the surface, has been taken from the deposit. Should the find prove to be what the discovery anticipates it will be far ahead of the richest gold mine. Mica in a pure state is worth from $2 to $5 a pound, and being more easily obtainable than gold is therefore often more profitable. BUSINESS LOCALS. Cranberries at C. E. Brownell's. This man was no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the country. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pain in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, but temporary relief. The pain in my back had become so severe that I was at times unable to attend to my work and could not move without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Pills, I immediately tried a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before I had finished the contents of the box the pain had entirely disappeared. I have ever since been a victim of the Oregon Kidney Pills, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for any thing."
