TO GOOD TEMPLER.

Do you know that Moore's Royal Baking Powder is the only patent medicine in the world that does not contain a drop of alcohol; that the mode of preparing it is known only to its discoverer; that it is an advance in the science of medicine without a parallel in the nineteenth century; that its proprietors offer to forfeit $1,000 for any case of dyspepsia it will not cure?

Cram's Unrivaled Atlas. The new edition of this unrivaled work is now being delivered by the agent, Mrs. A. M. Tait. The work is a most excellent one, and this edition is a great improvement upon former ones, giving all the latest data and much new matter that was not in the previous editions. It should be in every family, and on every business man's desk. Those who are not supplied can procure the atlas by addressing P. O. Box No. 60 Albany Oregon.

We are the only people who carry the celebrated E. & W. collar and cuffs. Always have the latest styles in stock. T. L. Wallace & Co.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which effected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

The men of this vicinity need not be jealous because their wives talk so constantly about Matthews and Washburn. It is not their good looks the ladies are talking about, it is the good qualities of the cook and heating stoves they sell. Every one seems to be delighted when they buy from M. and W.

SCHOOL TAX NOTICE. The school tax in school district No. 5, is now due and payable. Call at my office and pay the same before it becomes delinquent.

C. G. BURKHAUT, District Clerk.

DEATH OF F. J. BARCOCK. Capt. Fred J. Barcock, a pioneer citizen, died this morning. He was serving his second term as county clerk of Marion county. He was a prominent mason, having been Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of Oregon. Captain Barcock was 48 years old and served through the war with Co. I, Third Vermont Infantry. He was the first commander of Sedgwick Post, G. A. R. here and was department commander in 1884. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at Salem. He was a 32nd degree mason.

THEIR HORSES DROWNED. Sunday afternoon Jim Penland and H. S. Howard, drove into the mill pond near the water works to wash off the team. One horse began kicking as soon as it was in the water and the whole outfit was soon in the swift water. Becoming entangled both horses were drowned and Penland had a narrow escape in trying to save the team.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL. The assessment roll of Marion county has been added up, and is now ready to go to the secretary of state. The total taxable property is $7,938,950, and the total valuation is $11,670,320. There is 2213 acres of land in the county, an increase over the assessment of last year when the total taxable property was $7,654,930.

The funeral of R. S. Wallace this afternoon was the largest ever seen in Albany. The remains were brought to the city at 2 o'clock and proceeded to the M. E. Church, where the services were held. The bridge was draped in mourning, as was also nearly all the business houses.

The Salem street railway line, under a chattel mortgage of $16,000 to the State Insurance Company, who are largely interested in the stock of the railway company, got out an injunction to stop the sale and this evening that company attached on some difference growing out of the street railway difficulty.

Reeve Mendellhall of Newbery, was brought to the asylum today. He has been acting strangely for six months, he thinks he is a detective. He is a quaker.

State Treasurer Metcalf arrived home today from California. Secretary of State McBride, though not dangerously ill, is still confined to his bed. He is able to give general direction of business at his office although he is not able personally to attend to details.

A TRAIN WRECKED. The Fireman Killed Under the Boiler and Flashed by Steam.

NEEDLES, Cal., Nov. 2.—An east-bound freight train struck a misplaced switch at the end of Fraconia yard yesterday, and the engine and one car were overturned and derailed. The engine was hurled to one side and fell, burying her smokestack and dome in the street. Fireman Charles Johnson fell under the boilerhead and was pinned there by heavy timbers and machinery, while the escaping steam cooked his limbs and part of his body, for nearly three hours. Engineer George Cook was thrown through a cab window, but landed miraculously without a scratch. It is believed Johnson cannot recover.

AN ITALIAN FIEND. He Attacks a Young Girl on Her Way Home from Church.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 2.—Lizzie Drom, aged 14 years, was attacked by an Italian at Turlock last night, as she was leaving a church on Green street, in the most populous part of the city. The Italian sprang from behind a tree as she was passing, and seizing her by the throat, shoved her viciously against a fence. The girl fought the villain bravely, but among the clutches at her throat presented her at first from making an outcry. By a desperate effort, however, she wrenched the Italian's hand away and screamed loudly for help. Her cries of "Murder!" caused a commotion, but among the congregation who were just coming from church, P. E. Boyle, president of the council, who witnessed the assault, and a number of others ran so the girl's rescue. When the fiend saw them approaching, he let go of his victim and ran down the street. A number of the congregation followed, he dodged through several streets,

TO-DAY'S ELECTION

Forecasts on the Eve of the Battle of Ballots.

IMPORTANT STATES IN DOUBT. The Republicans Believed to Have the Advantage—McKinley's Election Is Conceded.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—There is great activity tonight among the political managers, who are on the quiver for the election tomorrow. A careful canvass and close estimates have been made of the probable results in the five important states—New York, Ohio, Iowa, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania—by both parties. A conservative sitting of the best information obtained regarding the situation indicates that the republicans have a slight advance.

In Ohio the election of McKinley is conceded by a larger majority than the most sanguine democrats expect for Fowler in New York. It is believed tonight that McKinley's majority will not be less than 20,000, and many close calculators think the figure will exceed the usual republican majority. In New York the election is going to be close. The superficial indications now would point to a republican victory, especially when viewed in the light of the democratic disaffection which is known to exist to no small degree; but the powerful influence of Tammany cannot be disguised, neither can it be calculated upon with any degree of certainty. If Flower detests Fessett for governor it is not likely to be any more than a mere majority. In Iowa the prohibition vote will cut a considerable figure and will probably elect Boies. There is no governor to be elected in Pennsylvania, and the campaign has been waged mainly on local issues. Charles H. Allen will doubtless defeat young Russell in Massachusetts. The best informed democrats do not now hope to elect Russell.

The contest in several of the states will be so close that some apparently trivial incident may materially change the aspect of affairs before the day is over. It is cold and cloudy tonight, with prospects of not a very high election day tomorrow.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES. At Berlin during a fire in a hotel, three negro minstrels and two fire men were burned to death.

Yesterday, in Panama, a cable man and a horse were burned to death by a live electric wire which had fallen on the street.

Captain Alcester Horner, formerly in the British army, committed suicide in a New York hotel by shooting himself.

The residence of the Prince of Wales in London was today damaged by fire Sunday morning. The loss will be about $75,000.

At the San Rafael (Cal.) jail a murder rather than a case of insanity was being tried in his cell, which he says is haunted.

Captain Charles Fitzallen was murdered by W. S. Root at San Diego, Cal., in a dispute over a fence between their property.

The new telegraph line being built to Tillamook has reached that city and the builders were tendered a reception by the city officials.

Dennis Sullivan, a miner at Butte, Mont., was blown to pieces by the explosion of twenty-five pounds of giant powder, at which he was working.

At Caliente, Cal., trouble is imminent because of the discharge of white section hands by the railroad company, their places being filled by Chinamen.

It is confidently thought that the iron-molders' strike in San Francisco, which has been going on for twenty months, will shortly be adjusted.

Charles Schmidt, one of the men implicated in the murder of Samuel Jacobson, of San Francisco, about a year ago, committed suicide in his cell at San Quentin.

W. L. F. Sutter and Chris Allison were killed and Chris Christianson badly injured yesterday at New Whatcom, Wash. They were moving a three-ton boiler, which broke loose and fell back upon them.

Four Boys Drowned. MIDLAND, Ont., Nov. 2.—Four boys, between 12 and 16 years old, named John Clarkson, Peter How, Leo Johnston and William Allison, were drowned yesterday by the upsetting of a sailboat in a squall.

A Murderer Lynched. CAMILLA, Ga., Nov. 2.—Clark Nix, who brutally murdered G. O. Muze, a week ago, was taken from a guard who had captured him last night and lynched.
