Missing Posts. Any observing person who has been in Albany any length of time cannot but have observed the lack of hitching posts for horses. Farmers who come in to do business are often deterred therefrom, because they cannot find any places to tie their teams for a few minutes, and therefore go to other places to do their trading. Our business men should look into the matter and see that suitable places are provided. Such a course would richly repay for the time and trouble spent, in the increased amount of business gathered in thereby. A word to the wise is sufficient. Look into the matter and act accordingly.

THE JURY DISAGREED.

The Ingram Murder Case Continued Until the Next Term of Court.

After being out all night the jury in the Ingram murder case yesterday morning reported that they were unable to agree. Four stood for murder in the first degree, four for murder in the second degree, and four for acquittal.

Judge Boise ordered the jury discharged and the case continued until the next term of court. No application was made for bail and the prisoner remained to jail. Considerable feeling has been expressed in the neighborhood where the killing was done, where the prevailing sentiment is that the defendant is guilty.

It is likely that some new and stronger evidence will be obtained by the state at the new trial, which will come up at the term of court to be held in March next.

It is said that the defense will endeavor to secure a change of venue to another county.

It is likely that the hired man, Lowden, will be held under bonds to secure his attendance as a witness.

The jurymen who voted for a verdict of murder in the first degree were: Peter Bisher, W. S. Elliot, Albert Umphrey and A. J. Shelton, J. S. Guilford, S. S. Myers and W. E. Patter; those who voted for acquittal were Frank Peterson, G. C. Moon, John Wright and J. B. Murdock.

LINN COUNTY BUSINESS COURSE. The meeting of the Linn county patrons, with Grand Prairie Grange No. 10, yesterday was well attended, and a goodly number being represented. In spite of sloppy roads that made it a matter of considerable trouble to reach the place of meeting, the general interest in the welfare of the order brought a goodly number to look after the business.

President Bryant and Secretary Powell were promptly in their places, and the work of the meeting was taken up.

Agent Matt S. Miller reported, showing matters of business interest to the members.

On motion a committee of five on general arrangements for the next meeting of the State Grange in Albany, consisting of the following: Tuesday in May, 1892, was appointed as follows: J. H. Scott, M. Payne, S. S. Train, S. Froman, K. A. Irvine.

It was further moved and carried that a committee on invitation and reception of two from each grange be appointed at the next meeting of the council from each grange represented in the council, and that each grange be requested to present the names of a brother and sister of their grange for such committee.

On motion it was unanimously voted that the president of the council, Hon. John Bryant, be added to the committee of general arrangements.

A committee on finance for the same occasion was appointed as follows: S. S. Train, M. H. Wilde, S. A. Dawson.

At the close of the council, the next meeting of the council on the first Saturday in December, was fixed at Meville with Oak Plain Grange No. 6.

After a song by the choir of Grand Prairie Grange a recess was taken, and a bountiful dinner prepared by the ladies of Grand Prairie, was abundantly dispensed.

On resuming work, under good of the order, Judge R. P. Boise made extended remarks, which were listened to with interest and profit.

William M. Hill, secretary of the State Grange, gave interesting information relative to the standing of the order in the State, showing a prosperous condition, and many other interesting matters.

J. B. Probst made suggestions looking for the good of the order. On motion M. H. Wilde a vote of thanks was extended to Grand Prairie Grange for its entertainment of the council.

A vote of thanks was also tendered to Judge Boise and Secretary Hill for their attendance and appropriate words for the good of the order.

The Southern Pacific Extension. An effort is being made by influential parties in Corvallis and vicinity to urge the Southern Pacific Company to extend their line from Corvallis to Junction City at once, or early in the spring. The Corvallis Gazette says that farmers along the proposed line are willing to donate a certain amount of labor toward grading the road-bed, providing the company will build at an early day; but those parties who granted this company the right of way years ago, are getting tired of the company's dilatory methods and delays, and if some move toward building the extension is not made in the near future, the parties interested will organize for the purpose of cancelling their agreement with the S. P. Co. for the right of way granted for their line. If the S. P. Co. does not see fit to push the matter, it is understood that other capitalists are willing to take hold and build an independent line and have it in operation before another summer passes.

NEWS OF THE COAST.

Interesting Items from Exchange Throughout the Northwest.

Geese and swan are plentiful on the Columbia at The Dalles. Benton county shows an increase in net valuation of $150,000 in the past year.

There was a public meeting at Dallas Thursday night and $7000 subsidy was subscribed on the spot for a woolen mill plant, $9000 is asked by an eastern capitalist who is ready to put up a $20,000 mill to employ fifty hands.

Baker City held the first election in the state under the Australian ballot law. The papers there say of it that its workings gave entire satisfaction, however much the strikers were at sea in their endeavor to intimidate voters. The change from the old style of voting promises much towards the purity of the ballot in future.

Wednesday was a big day among the hop-growers and the growers at Aurora, and, by the way, Aurora is keeping up its reputation this year as the hop center of Marion county. The highest price paid was 15 1/2 cents. This perhaps the highest price that has been paid in this section of the state this year.

Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, the new circuit judge in Eastern Oregon, started the sleepy attorneys of Crook county by opening court every morning at 8 o'clock, and also holding a session every evening. Judge Bradshaw is from Yamhill county, and that explains it. Those who are so fortunate as to have gotten their start in old Yamhill are all rustlers.

Corvallis Times: The fall rains have been earlier than usual this year, but it is undoubtedly for the best. The ground has been thoroughly saturated and farmers are enabled to plow at least a month earlier than a year ago. The result will be a large acreage of fall-sown grain, with prospects of another abundant harvest. We predict nice weather from now to Christmas.

A nugget was found the other day in Grant county that was as large as a child's hand and weighed $55. The East-Oregonian describing it says: The big nugget was discovered underneath a rock, by which it appears to have been flattened. It averages about four inches in length, two and a half inches in width, and one quarter of an inch in thickness and is about as pretty a piece of gold as a man ever feasted his eyes upon.

Important If True. The Newport Times is authority for the statement that there has been a little quiet conciliation between Col. T. E. Hogg and Mr. Blair, and arrangements are on foot to push the Oregon Pacific road in the near future to its eastern terminus with all factious working in harmony. The present outlook for the Oregon Pacific is better than ever before, and more confidence is felt and shown all along the line than has been seen in the past. It is said Col. Hogg is to be president and Mr. Blair is to name the manager. Our citizens are more confident that prosperity is at our very door now more than ever and all expect work to begin early in the spring.

Shot for a Bear. Samuel Kennedy and family formerly lived on the farm near Park Place. About two years ago the family moved to Nestucca where they have since lived. The two boys, Jeremiah and Jesse, were well known here. Last Saturday the boys were in the woods hunting a bear. Jesse heard a great commotion in the brush in which their dogs were participating, and, supposing it to be caused by the bear, he shot. It was his brother Jeremiah and the shot was fatal almost instantaneously.—Oregon City Enterprise.

MURDER WILL OUT. The following is from the Baker City Blade: The old saying that "murder will out" has probably come true at last in the case of the mysterious disappearance of Willis Skiff, a prominent citizen of Union about six years ago. The sudden disappearance of Skiff and the mystery which surrounded the affair is still fresh in the mind and does not need reiterating. At the time of the disappearance of Skiff three parties living at North Powder were arrested and tried for his murder, namely, Dr. Tibbitts, Bobier and Dave Wiggins. On account of lack of evidence the parties were released. In Montana last week a party was hung for murder by the name of Dr. Tibbitts; before he died Tibbitts confessed to the murder of Willis Skiff and afterwards disposing of the body in Powder River. Tibbitts exonerated Bobier and Wiggins from any knowledge of or hand in the murder of Skiff, saying he alone did the deed. At the time of the trial public sentiment and circumstances were against Tibbitts, but enough evidence could not be gathered to convict him.

Death of George Keeney. A dispatch was received yesterday by Mr. C. G. Burkhardt from J. M. Keeney, at Salt Lake City, stating that his brother, George H. Keeney, had died soon after arriving there, where he had gone in hopes of benefiting his health. The remains will be brought to his home at Halsey for burial.

Another Job for the Grand Jury. Chas. E. Stone was arranged in Justice Goslow's court yesterday on a charge of trying to pass a bogus check on the Bank of Oregon on James Murray. His bonds were fixed at $500, and failing to furnish them he now languishes in the county jail.

Oregon at the World's Fair. It must be admitted that the canvass being made to raise a world's fair, and in Oregon is not meeting with much success. It looks now as if Oregon would be unrepresented at the great exposition. This is deplorable, but there seems to be no help for it. It is possible that later reports from the canvassers will put a brighter outlook on the subject, but the indications for such a result are not now encouraging.—Portland Telegram.
