SNOWING IN EASTERN OREGON

Captain Troup Resigns from the Union Pacific's Service--News from the Capital.

SALEM, Nov. 13.--Wheat jumped another five cents to-day, selling this afternoon at 90 cents. This is a better price than wheat has brought yet this season or for several seasons. The market is announced as being firm and promising still further advances.

The assessment roll of Wallowa county was received to-day by the secretary of state. The total taxable property is $784,372. Number of polls, 715.

The purpose is to develop the iron mines recently discovered in Yamhill county near Wheatland, and to build railway lines, etc. from the mining properties to connect with the Oregonian railway near White's station. Samples of ore from the mine show 70 per cent pure iron.

Captain Troup Resigns.

PORTLAND, Nov. 13.--Captain J. W. Troup, superintendent of the Union Pacific water lines, has resigned that position, after a continuous service of over 14 years. His resignation caused great surprise among railroad and shipping men. B. R. Pegram has been appointed to fill his place, the change taking effect to-day.

JACKSON AND SLAVIN.

The Former Says The Latter Must Fight Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.--Joe McAuliffe yesterday afternoon called on Peter Jackson, his old opponent. The meeting was very cordial, and the two big fellows talked two hours. "Peter," said McAuliffe, smiling, as they shook hands, "you can probably guess the object of my visit. I want to get your promise for a return match, providing I beat Cardiff." "I can't promise you that. Joe," replied Peter, who was not surprised at McAuliffe's proposal. "My intention is to get a match with Slavin, whom I have been after two years. Slavin and Sullivan are talking fight, and Slavin is expected here this month, but according to Sullivan's statements they will have to take a year to prepare for the fight. I intend to be considered in the question of the championship, and I propose to make Slavin fight me before he fights Sullivan. He will have plenty of time to prepare himself for Sullivan after he meets me. Before I make any promises I want a match with Paddy. If Paddy Slavin sets foot on American soil I intend to make him fight me. I will follow him all over the country. I may go to New York to meet him when he arrives."

Science in Bread Making.

At the recent annual meeting of the American Chemical Society, held in Washington, D. C., the question of the value of carbonate of amonia as a leavening agent in bread, or as used in baking powders came up for discussion, in which Prof. Barker, of the University of Pennsylvania, and president of the society; Dr. Richardson, late of the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington; Dr. Wm. Mc Murtrie, late Prof. of Chemistry in the University of Illinois; Dr. E. H. Bartley, late Chemist of the Brooklyn, N. Y., Board of Health, and Prof of Chemistry of the Long Island College, and others took part.

The consensus of opinion was overwhelming in favor of the employment of ammonia. It was stated as a fact that the ammonia rendered the gluten of the flour more soluble than the original gluten, and that the bread in which this action was produced by carbonate of ammonia must be more digestible and hence more healthful, and because of the extreme volatility of carbonate of ammonia, and its complete expulsion from the bread in the process of baking, it is one of the most useful, most healthful and most valuable leavening agents known.

These conclusions are borne out by the very elaborate and exhaustive experiments made by Prof. J. W. Mallet, of the University of Virginia, which show conclusively that bread made with a baking powder in which one per cent. of carbonate of ammonia is used, in connection with cream of tartar and soda, is not only of uniformly better color and texture, but a product more wholesome, because the ammonia serves to neutralize any organic or lactic acids present in the flour.

SWIFT AS YOU MAKE THEM.

Prince Bismarck's Old Chef Wins an Odd Wager.

Prince Bismarck's old chef, who is now head cook in a big Berlin restaurant, recently won a novel bet and gave a surprising exhibition of his mastery of the culinary art. He had wagered $25 that he could kill, clean, cook and serve a chicken all in six minutes.

The wager was decided at night in the cafe of the restaurant in the presence of a big crowd. The cook appeared at 9 o'clock on an an improvised platform, upon which stood a gas cooking stove. He held a live chicken high above his head, and the fowl cackled loudly. One blow of a keen carver severed the head from the neck, and the cook began to pick the feathers with great swiftness. It took just one minute to get rid of every feather. In less than another minute the expert had opened and cleaned the fowl and had placed it upon a broiler on the gas stove.

The cook busied himself at the broiler seasoning the fowl as it cooked. It lacked just a second of the sixth minute when he stepped from the platform and served the chicken to the nearest guest, amid great applause.--New York Sun.

Unable to Prove It.

"You are a grasping man," said Sumway to a creditor.

"I don't know how you know that," replied the latter. "You never gave me a chance to grasp the money that you owe me."--Detroit Free Press.

THE STORM'S FURY

A WHEAT SHIP FROM TACOMA LOSES PART OF HER CARGO.

Much Damage to Shipping and Loss of Life on the English Coast--The Storm Continues.

LONDON, Nov. 13.--The British ship Talisman, from Tacoma, June 12, for Havre, passed Deal to-day. She reports she was thrown upon her beam's end in the hurricane of yesterday, and her cargo shifted, so it was necessary to jettison fifty tons of wheat. Much damage was done the vessel by the storm.

AN ENGLISH BARK WRECKED.

LONDON, Nov. 13.--The bark which yesterday stranded off Kinsale, Ireland, is the Gylfe, from Quebec, October 1, for Liverpool. The life-saving crew at Kinsale finally succeeded in rescuing the captain and four of the crew, but all the other men of the bark were drowned. The number of those who lost their lives on the stranding of the Gylfe is seven. Disasters caused by the storm continue to be received. News has just reached this city of the loss at sea of the British steamer Fairfield. No lives lost.

ALONG THE FRENCH COAST.

PARIS, Nov. 13.--The recent gale caused an immense amount of damage in all parts of France, and a number of persons were killed. Several vessels were wrecked at Fecamp, on the English channel, but only one man was drowned. Several smacks, of Cherbourg, with their crews, numbering ten men, are missing.

A WEDDING GIFT.

The Recipient Discovers That It Has a String Attached to It.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.--The rather unusual spectacle of a daughter suing her father for a breach of contract was what the people assembled in the Fourth Session of the Superior Civil Court saw this morning. Carrie A. Holmes claimed that her father, Henry W. Smith, owed her $20,733 18. Her declaration stated that Henry W. Smith was vice-president and director in the Smith Organ and Piano Company, and that plaintiff had allowed him to deposit $20,000 for her in the company. The declaration alleges that the father afterward drew out the amount and put it into real estate in his own name. The testimony developed that the amount claimed by the daughter was a sort of a wedding present to her from her father.

"Perhaps so. What would you suggest?"

A EUROPEAN WAR

A German Officer Says It Is Inevitable.

LIKELY TO OCCUR NEXT SPRING

A Communication Said to Have Been Dictated by the German Emperor --Warlike Preparations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.--A letter has been received in this country within the last few days from an officer on the general staff of the German emperor, which declares in effect that war in Europe cannot be postponed beyond next spring. The importance of this letter is all the greater in view of the fact that it has been received by an official high in the United States government. The communication is said to have been dictated by the German emperor himself. It declared that there is no doubt of the massing of troops by the czar on the frontiers of Austria, Germany and Roumania. At the Berlin war office it is said that the Russian force posted on the frontier represents 90 per cent. of the effective strength of the Russian army. Only enough troops have been left in the east and in the interior to save the frontiers from savage incursions, and to preserve order among the people. Russian troops facing toward the west number 650,000 men, it is declared. The hint is also thrown out that the recent ukase of the czar forbidding the exportation of rye and wheat, was for military and not for economic reasons. Since August 1,300,000 Russian troops, mostly light troops and Cossack cavalry have been thrown into southwestern Russia, the entire force, previous to August 1, having been posted in eastern Russia. Over 600,000 men are in position between Odessa and Warsaw. Before the present mobilization was effected, the Russian war office established the line of supply stations now being used. The letter further points out the studied manner in which the czar recently evaded the German emperor, the only interference to be placed upon this being the desire of the former to be under no obligations to the latter. In the letter the opinion is expressed that the peace of Europe will never be assured until the pending war has been fought and ended, and that war is inevitable so long as the present armaments are kept up. The authenticity of the letter is unquestioned. It is known that for some time the German war office has been in communication with American firms, and made arrangements for supplying the needs of the German army, in time of war. These arrangements in order to be effected had to receive government sanction. In consequence there is reason to believe that several high officials in the United States government are interested in these speculations. Whether these officials will retain their offices under the government in the event of a European war, remains to be seen.

THE REBELS TRIUMPHANT.

Dispatches from Brazil State They are Gaining Ground.

LONDON, Nov. 13.--A Santiago correspondent of the Times, says: Advices received from Rio Grande do Sul are to the effect that the garrison at San Gabriel and Page have revolted against the dictatorship of Fonseca. A later telegram says that in Rio Grande do Sul, the opposition to Fonseca is triumphing almost wholly throughout the province without serious fighting. A dispatch from Rio Janeiro in this morning's Telegraph states the governor and provincial assembly oppose the coup de etat of President de Fonseca referred to from the governor and provincial assembly of the province of Guao Para.

THE ANARCHISTS' OUTBREAK

Intense Excitement in Chicago--Wholesale Arrests.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.--Intense excitement prevails to-day over the wholesale arrest last night of anarchists at the raid by the police upon their secret meeting. Seventeen of the 254 arrested at last night's meeting, were arraigned in the justice court this morning. Complaints were made against them, some for resisting officers, others for carrying concealed weapons and for disorderly conduct. Several police officers were examined, and their evidence was practically the same as the story of last night's arrests.

Double Murder in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.--A horrible double murder was committed last night, the victims of which are Mrs. Gretchen Lerzenhager, who kept a saloon, and her 15-year-old son, George. The woman was choked to death, and the boy beaten and choked. The murder was evidently for the purpose of robbery. No clue to the murderers.

A Candidate for the Speakership.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.--The executive committee of the democratic state committee and executive committee of the Missouri branch of the National [illegible]ic Club, the entire Missouri [illegible]gressional delegation with the exception of one member, together with a number of prominent and leading democrats of the state have informally expressed a preference for Wm. H. Hatch, of Missouri, for speaker of the national house of representatives. Hatch has formally declared himself a candidate for that position.

ANTI-LOTTERY MOVEMENT.

Ex-Mayor Hewitt Creates a Sensation by a Statement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.--A grand demonstration was held in Chickering hall this evening to show sympathy for, and help the anti-lottery movement in Louisiana. The hall was packed to the doors, and prominent men of all sects, parties and occupations occupied seats on the stage, many of whom delivered addresses. Ex-Mayor Hewitt, in speaking of the stupendous imprudence of the lottery company, said: "This question develops a weak spot in the constitution of the United States. It is that a single state can determine has determined a presidential election. The state of Louisiana has determined a presidential election. Its vote was offered to me for money, and I declined to buy it. That vote was sold for money." Mr. Hewitt's words created consternation and surprise. Letters and telegrams of regret for enforced absence were received from Vice-President Morton, Postmaster-General Wanamaker, the Rev. Lyman Abbott, Samuel Gompers, president of the American federation of labor, Archbishop Corrigan and others.

Some of the test styles of elegant bed lounges can be seen at Fortmiller & Irving's, as they have just received a large invoice.

COLLISION AT SEA.

A MEXICAN VESSEL SUNK WITH ALL ON BOARD.

Meager News of the Disaster, Which Occurred During a Heavy Fog at Night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.--A cable was received here late yesterday that the steamer Cindad Condal, of the trans-Atlantic line, had come into collision with a Mexican coasting steamer. The coaster sank with all on board and the Cindad Condal put into Progress for repairs.

Consul-General of Spain, Topete, received a cablegram from Havana in which the above facts were corroborated. Ramon V. Williams, the Mexican vice-consul, said such an accident had happened. After consulting several lists and books he concluded that the coaster reported sunk was one of these three vessels: Tabasco, Phœnix, or the Conception. The report of the accident spread in Spanish-American business circles and many persons who have friends or relatives on board the vessel, were busy telegraphing for information. The general belief is that the night was foggy. The Cindad is of English build, and carries a crew of seventy men.

WAR SHIPS READY.

U. S. Men-of-War Will Sail For The South.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.--The United States men-of-war Atlanta, Concord and Bennington, being fitted out at Brooklyn navy-yard, will be ready to sail for South American seas by Monday next. The Atlanta has been floated out of dry dock, and will take her ammunition on board tomorrow. The Bennington has her supplies on board, and the Concord has finished her coaling. The flagship of the Brazilian squadron, the Newark, is expected to arrive here from Boston Monday.

A Contractor Murdered.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 13.--Andrew Reilly's dead body was found this morning near the narrow gauge track, which winds around Mount Raub. It was a desolate spot in the woods, a mile from the city. The neck had been hacked on the right side, and on the left side there was a deep gash. The body had been divested of coat, vest and hat. The victim was a well-to-do contractor, and it is thought he may have been killed for his money. His sister, Mary Reilly, was murdered by her lover in 1878 at the same spot, and her slayer, Andrew Tracy, was hanged for the crime.
