A Beautiful Sight.

Julia Gradwohl wishes to renew his invitation to the ladies of Albany to call and see his beautiful array of hanging lamps. It is a sight worth looking at. He has just received a complete line of bicycles and tricycles for boys and girls. He has also received another large lot of sugar, and those who wish to purchase while sugar is cheap, should not wait. He still sells choice Arabian's coffee at one pound for 25 cents. It will pay you to call and inspect his goods. Those who want fine holiday presents should call early and have them laid away for them.

Under the New Law.

The Pendleton city election will be conducted under the new Australian ballot law enacted by the last legislature. This is not because the law in itself pertains to the conduct of city elections, but because a section of Pendleton's charter provides that the city elections shall be conducted according to the provisions regulating the elections of the state. As state elections must be held under the new law, so must those of Pendleton hereafter. There can be no objection to it. It was tried in the recent Baker City election and met with general favor.

Thanksgiving Societies.

The Christian Endeavor society of the U. P. church will give a pumpkin pie social and programing evening Thursday, November 20, in the church. The programing features takes the place of the old fashioned spelling school, and is very amusing as well as instructive, and is all the rage East. Besides the pumpkin pie part there will be other refreshments with hot coffee.

Evangelical revival.

The revival meetings at the Evangelical church still continue, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the congregations have been encouraging. Rev. L. S. Fisher will conduct three services to-day as follows: Regular service at 11 a. m. Consecration service at 3 p. m., and a revival sermon in the evening on "Memory." A special invitation is extended to all.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral obsequies for Mrs. Amos Howard will take place at the residence on the corner of Second and Calapooia streets, at 1:30 p. m. to-day. The funeral will be in the city cemetery.

Largely Attended.

Bishop Becker spoke last evening in the Methodist church to a large concourse of eager listeners

Mrs. Dunaway at Work.

The Coming Century, a journal of progress and prosperity, for which Mrs. Antoinette Scott Dunaway issued a prospectus a few weeks ago, has received such ample encouragement from the friends and admirers of her former success as a journalist as to warrant the formation of a joint stock company, which has just filed articles of incorporation as The Coming Century Publishing Company, with a paid up, non-assessable capital stock of $24,000. The board of directors has engaged Mrs. Dunaway as editor-in-chief of the new publication, which will make its first appearance as a first-class, high-toned weekly literary magazine on December 2, and Mr. James A. Carey as manager, while George P. Wheeler will have charge of the typographical department.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A pleasant farewell and surprise party was tendered Miss Mina Ebert at her home in this city Thursday evening, Nov. 12. A number of her friends assembled taking Miss Mina completely by surprise. An elegant lunch was served and a very pleasant evening spent. The following were present: Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Ebert, Misses Moller, Jessie and Maggie Hunter, M. Vandran, Mary Eiland, Kate Eiland, Anna Hunt, Kate Gherhart, Miss Ebert, Winnie Fenall, Kate Fenall, Misses Foleys, Misses Skally, Nellie Nash, Zella Parker, Meade, Brantana Vandran, Al. Boenicks, Murray Vaughn, Chas. Hogan, Bert Magers, D. McMahon, C. L. Buck.

He Lived in Albany Once.

"Carl Luderman, one of the shoe firm of Luderman, McGrath & Co., left town rather unceremoniously Tuesday morning neglecting to pay his bills. An attempt was made to attach his household goods, but he had taken the precaution to sell them to other parties." The foregoing appeared in the Revue of Baker City, a few days ago.

Pleasant Affair.

The social given on Friday night at the United Presbyterian church by the Christian Endeavor society of that church, was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair. The center seats in the church were taken out, giving ample room and the young people exerted themselves to have a good time and so concluded admirably.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Julius Sidel fell in the river near the J. E. Davis place last Wednesday and came near being drowned. The boat he was in capsized and he was washed into a drift and had his leg broken by the boat being dashed against him. He was rescued by his companions with difficulty. Dr. T. W. Harris, of Eugene, was sent for and went over and dressed the wound.

A. L. Selman and Miss Mabel Allen, of Zena, eloped Wednesday evening, because of objections to the marriage made by the girl's parents. Their reason for objecting are that Selman had nothing to support a wife, no home, no means and no trade.

J. F. Wright, who has been for several years one of Douglas county's best school teachers, was taken to the asylum this week. He has been unwell for a couple of weeks, and Wednesday fainted in his school at Peel, and since that time his reason has been dethroned except at short intervals.

A very small proportion only of the Lane county wheat crop has left the hands of the growers. The present advanced price will result in large sales, and the result will be the present stringent money markets will be relieved, says the Eugene Guard.

Truck walter near Hood River, while going his rounds, was caught on a bridge by a freight train and thrown over, resulting in breaking several ribs and injuring to the spine. A surgeon from The Dalles went down on the evening train and placed the man in the sleeper, intending to take him to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland; but when near Fairhaven he died from the result of his injuries.

At the Chemawa Indian training school, just north of Salem, the roster of students containing the names of a larger number than during any previous time since the establishment of the school. The latest arrivals are from Randon and Port Orford, and there are now 240 attending the school. At the same time last year the attendance was but 175. The total enrollment last year reached 220. The new buildings are completed, and ready for occupancy, which adds quite a little to the school's ability to accommodate the youthful Indians.

A gentleman from Athens informs the East Oregonian that people there are exercised over a case of land jumping in the neighborhood. A man named Clark, from Walla Walla, has filed upon a quarter-section of forfeited railroad land four or five miles west of Athens in possession of minor heirs of the A. J. Anderson estate. He ordered the children off, but they refused to go. Clark's son has had upon a piece of land belonging to Mr. Ashpugh, of which the latter has been in possession for twelve years.

A woodchopper named E. G. Schlaz was brought to Portland from Kalama yesterday, and taken to the St. Vincent hospital to have an eye operated. While at work splitting some timber a piece of steel flew up, striking him in the right eye, destroying his sight. Thom's McMahan, a railroad man from Yajquina, was also taken to the hospital for the treatment of an injured hand, that was crushed between the bumpers of two cars.

Around the World.

Seattle Post-Intelligencer: Philip Phillips' to the edification of a large and fashionable audience, started around the world last night in what is aptly termed a chariot of song. It is at the Seattle opera house Mr. Phillips is showing and he will complete his tour this evening. The entertainment is novel, interesting and beautiful. To describe the many and interesting things, which are illustrated with song, would fill a volume, and the entertainment must be seen to be appreciated. The pictures shown by the canvas by the photo-opticon are of the highest order, and many of them will put to blush the work of the best artists. Mr. Phillips will appear again this evening.

At the opera house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

T. L. Wallace & Co.,

ALBANY, STRAHAN BLOCK, OREGON.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY. There are few men in Oregon who have done more for the welfare and progress of the state than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the country. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pain in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pain in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pain in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything." Oregon Kidney Tea cures headache, incense of urine, brick dust sediment, burn in the throat, or painful secretion while urinating, and all other troubles of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
