This will be by far the most important company to be seen in this city this year. Everything is new and bright this season, not a vestige of the old show remaining. Mr. Cleveland's idea is to make his shows larger and better with each succeeding year; he decided to put more money and better talent in his "Big City Show" and devote his time to making this company the greatest musical enterprise ever organized. The company numbers over fifty performers, each and every member carefully selected personally by Mr. Cleveland, which is a guarantee of excellence. Congressional Candidates

The Roseburg Review says that Chas. E. Wolverton, an able Albany lawyer, is the latest republican candidate for congressman in the first district, and adds that "the politicians of the district generally concede that Hermann is out of the race since his letter to Miller has been published. The fight will be between Miller, Geer, Wolverton and probably Jennings, Lane, and there are numerous dark horses besides."

A Beautiful Sight

Julius Gradwohl wishes to renew his invitation to the ladies of Albany to call and see his beautiful array of hanging lamps. It is a sight worth looking at. He has just received a complete line of bicycles and tricycles for boys and girls. He has also received another large lot of sugar, and those who wish to purchase while sugar is cheap, should not wait. He still sells choice Arbuckle's coffee at one pound for 25 cents. It will pay you to call and inspect his goods. Those who want fine holiday presents should call early and have them laid away for them.

THE WORLD ENRICHED

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time any the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

Fine Suitings

W. R. Graham, the tailor has received one of the largest lines of fine suitings and trouserings to be seen in Oregon, outside of Portland, embracing all the desirable patterns for winter wear. His prices will be found so low that any one can afford to wear one of his neat fitting tailor made suits and overcoats. He warrants his goods to be first-class, and guarantees a fit. Call and see his new patterns.

OREGON'S EXHIBIT

The Chamber of Commerce Committee Hard at Work Raising Subscriptions.

The work of raising subscriptions for the Oregon exhibit at the world's fair is progressing rapidly says the Oregonian. The chamber of commerce has several men canvassing the state, and the prospects of raising the necessary $50,000 before the prescribed time expires are very bright. Chairman Charles H. Dood, of the fair committee, when asked regarding the progress of the work, said: "Subscriptions are coming in rapidly from all directions, but the various fields are by no means closed. W. H. Grant, who has charge of the work in the Willamette valley and Southern Oregon, has sent in a large number of subscriptions. He has visited Eugene, Roseburg and Grant's Pass, and has been very successful in his efforts to induce citizens to subscribe. The work is very difficult, as the agent has to interview the citizens personally, explain the necessity of the exhibit, and place upon the benefits to be derived from a creditable exhibit at the fair. Notwithstanding this, a second call is sometimes necessary before a contribution is received. The work in Eastern Oregon is conducted by Major W. Ingalls, who visited Dalles City, and secured several subscriptions, and then paid a visit to Baker City. The total subscriptions collected outside of Portland amount to $2500, and there is a larger sum in sight. It has not been estimated for the present, but indications it will undoubtedly be subscribed in the near future. A citizen's meeting will soon be held in this city to take up the matter, as Portland must raise her full proportion of the amount necessary to pay the expenses which will be incurred in getting up the exhibit. The committee, however, has not definitely decided upon the time, but the business men will be called on to contribute their share towards the work. The committee is working very earnestly and indefatigably in the matter, and I think that with continuous labor the people of Oregon will unquestionably have a creditable exhibit at the world's fair. There is, no doubt, about the $50,000 being raised."

Prohibition Lectures

man who has since the foundation and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the country. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pain in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any temporary relief. The pain in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pain in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends who would not be without it for anything."
