CHANGE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOL PRINCIPALSHIP.

Prof. Horner Accepts a Chair in the State Agricultural College - News of the City.

Prof. J. B. Horner, principal of the public schools of this city, having been tendered a chair in the state agricultural college at Corvallis, has tendered his resignation as principal of the Albany schools to accept the other.

But Will be in Oregon. "I refused $5 a thousand for some of my stampage the other day," continued the lawyer. "There is money in it at that price. I estimate the cost of banking it at 44, and $1 will bring it down here. That makes $11, and I can get $13 for the legs. Speaking of money in legs, I can tell you of a company here that cut a 50,000-foot on a spare-section of land last winter and sold the logs right here in the river at from $12 to $18 a thousand. A good many logs were extra large. Now they entered the market this winter, and are at $12.50 cents an acre. No one is lost in that transaction, you bet. But it never can be done again."

Fruit Farm. The growth and expansion of the fruit business in this state, is a matter of congratulation and note, and the mead of praise should be accorded to every man who plants and cultivates fruit trees. We understand that C. H. Walker, superintendent of the Indian school at Warm Springs, and son-in-law of Jason Wheeler, of this city, has just completed putting out an orchard of twelve acres which he bought off of Mr. Wheeler's home farm, a mile and a half from town. He put out 500 Italian prunes, 150 Silver prunes, 250 Royal Ann cherries, 250 Bartlett pears, besides apples, raspberries, blackberries and other small fruits.

L. Eades. The papers were issued from the office of the U. S. commissioner at Portland, and were to satisfy the claims of Mrs. Johnson and Fred Slaneck for seamen's wages. Johnson claiming $61 and Slaneck $60. It is probable a settlement will be made, as the Oregon Pacific company can ill afford to have the vessel tied up at this busy season.

THANKSGIVING DAY

HOW IT WILL BE OBSERVED IN ALBANY.

Union Services by the Churches at 11 O'clock—The Kindergarten Exercises.

Thanksgiving day will be appropriately observed in Albany today. This city has much to be thankful for. Farmers have had abundant crops, prices are good and trade brisk; the march of public improvements, which will be continued all winter, affords employment and everybody can afford to partake of the Thanksgiving fowl in a cheerful and thankful mood.

The day had its origin in the protest of the Puritans against church holidays and for many years was strictly a New England institution. In the celebration of which the pumpkin usurped the place of honor previously held by the mince pie.

Gradually extending its area of observance and influence, the march of public improvements, which will be continued all winter, affords employment and everybody can afford to partake of the Thanksgiving fowl in a cheerful and thankful mood.

It is to be hoped that in Oregon Thanksgiving day for 1891 will be observed with due honor, and neither man, woman or child will retire at night without having partaken of a good savory dinner, and that the well-to-do people in this commonwealth will not confine themselves to giving thanks in holiday gatherings, but that they will so bestow the surplus abundance of their good things that those less fortunate than themselves may have something to be grateful for, and all may be moved to sincere gratitude by a proper observance of Thanksgiving Day.

This afternoon at 2:30 p. m., there will be a Thanksgiving prayer meeting of the members of the Young Men's Christian Association at their rooms in the Foster block. A cordial invitation is extended to the pastors of the various churches to unite with them in this service.

In the evening the members of F. Company, Oregon National Guard, will give a grand union ball at their armory, which promises to be a brilliant affair.
