In justice to Mr. Wm. Vance we desire to say that the comments in these columns Sunday morning concerning the approaching city election had no reference whatever to his alteration with one of the city officials. In fact the article was written before that little unpleasantness occurred, and simply embraced some general comments touching upon matters of interest to the city.

Cleveland's Minstrels.

A New York gentleman who happened to be in Buffalo at the opening of W. S. Cleveland's Consolidated Minstrels, pronounced it the best minstrel entertainment he ever saw in his life. The performers were all new; the costumes were all new; the scenery was all new; the songs, specialties, and, in fact, everything in the whole show was new and bright. He pronounced the vocalists the best he ever heard outside of Grand Opera; the comedians are witty and have a brand new stock of laugh producers; the costumes simply gorgeous; the jeweled first part alone is worth the price of admission, as the old time circus poster said; everything is silk and satin, richly blended together with a thousand tiny incandescent lights sparkling everywhere, and the performers clad in rich garments representing different jewels, the diamond, sapphire, ruby, etc., on the whole, makes one of most magnificent stage settings imaginable.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

How it Was Observed in This City Yesterday.

Thanksgiving day was duly observed in this city yesterday. Union religious services were held at the Baptist church. After the singing of the doxology, prayer was offered by Rev. S. E. Meininger. The Thanksgiving proclamation of President Harrison and Governor Penoyer were read by Rev. S. G. Irvine. The choir then sang a selection from the scriptures as read by Rev. E. R. Prichard. Prayer was offered by Rev. L. S. Fisher and an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. Geo. M. Hill. A collection was taken up for the benefit of the orphan's home, and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. S. G. Irvine.

At 3:30 the Kindergarten school of Mrs. J. W. Tatham gave a very pleasant Thanksgiving party at the opera house. The programme as already published was carried out, except the speeches which were omitted for want of time. This part of the programme will be given in the near future. The little folks acquitted themselves with credit to their parents and teacher.

The Y. M. C. A. held an afternoon prayer meeting, which was well attended.

In the evening there was a pumpkin pie sociable and pronouncing bee at the United Presbyterian church which was a most enjoyable affair and was largely attended.

A prohibition lecture was also delivered at the W. C. T. U. hall by John Lloyd Thomas, of New York. This gentleman, who is a talented speaker, is here for the purpose of trying to reorganize the prohibition party in Oregon. The meeting was not largely attended, and although initiatory steps were taken to reorganize the prohibition party, on a basis that is no longer "fisc" with any of the prohibition leaders.

The members of F. Company O. N. G. gave a grand uniform ball at their armory, which was a successful affair.

A one-horse show of an inferior nature was given at the opera house, which was slowly attended.

The day was generally observed, the banks and many business houses being closed.

A Card of Thanks.

To all the kind friends who honored us with their presence and gifts on last Wednesday evening, we wish to return our sincere thanks. It is highly complimentary to the people of this republic, that they meet the pecuniary demands for supporting the ministry by voluntary contributions. Such persons realize that "it is better to give than to receive." The glory of our Christianity is in its capacity to give something to make the world better. In mutually giving and receiving preachers and people are inseparably united together in the great move of bringing all men to know our glorious Redeemer. We once assure the dear people of this party that we look at home in your midst, and again thank you for such practical demonstrations of your appreciation of our work for Christ. Respectfully yours, MR. AND MRS. L. S. FISHER.

E. V. G. R. Barker, R. S. E. A. Parker, P. S. J. Gradwohl, treasurer; W. C. Tweedale, C. W. Sears and T. J. Stites, trustees.

Wheat Pool.

Judge Scott, A. Vitus and Jas. Stevens pooled their wheat crop, making about 10,000 bushels in all. Last week the wheat was sold for 53 cents on board. They obtained a little better price than they would have obtained by selling separately.—Eugene Register.

THE WORLD ENRICHED.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only remedy known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effective to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time any time it is known the more popular it becomes.

NEWS OF THE COAST.

Interesting Items from Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

A pretty Heppner widow named Wilson, who had a millinery shop in that town, has eloped with a hotel keeper named Bayse, who had a wife and several children. At Wilbur excellent skating has been enjoyed the past week, every one in town taking part in the fun. There is talk of forming a club for the better enjoyment of this sport this winter.

A worthless fellow named Samuel Sills, who married a foolish girl only 15 years old, in the state of Washington about three years ago, and has since lived in Eugene, being supported by his mother-in-law, has skipped out because it has been discovered that he had another wife living in Minnesota, who is now suing him for a divorce.

A teacher near Calfax has been arrested for cruelly whipping a little girl and bound over in the sum of $50 to appear for trial. While there may be occasional cases of cruelty practiced by school-teachers, yet they are very rare, and the sooner parents discourage tale-bearing in their children and teach them to obey the regulations of the school, the better will it be for the children themselves and the schools generally.

Yakima papers state that their section this year produced fruit far superior to that shown in the California car which recently passed through that city, a fact which the manager of the car acknowledged by taking a quantity of it East with him. Yakima has long been known as one of the best fruit growing sections in the West, but it is too bad that the choicest products of that locality should not be used to induce immigration to California.

Ben Young, of Astoria, who has lately been taking in the Sound country, says that at 8 o'clock "dead" is no name for the condition of the town. Business there is none, and money—why the showing of $20 piece is enough to create a riot. R. at estate is clearer than—what do you call it? The banks own the town. The only way to borrow $20 is to give $21 cash security. The hotels are individuals every now and then, trying to size a fellow up. It isn't safe to go out alone in daylight or dark. The "hold-up" is always on the alert day and night, and the only way to travel is to take a hack or Gurney and go about in disguise.

A cabin on a place farmed by J. M. Egan north of Pendleton was entered and robbed by some vagabond Monday morning while the boys at the place were absent. The robbery was in no way discovered, and J. W. Robertson and another young man gave chase, easily following a trail left by the thief, who traveled rapidly down a canyon toward the river. When they neared the river they caught sight of the culprit, and entering near the machine shops and de-camped into the brush. They then lost trace of him, came up town and notified the officers. The supposed tracks of the man were afterward found and he was run down and captured if possible.

The Southern Oregon district fair will be held in Roseburg in September next year.

Over 60,000 pounds of winter supplies have been shipped into the greenhorn mining district this fall and there is yet more freight to be taken in. The mines will be worked all winter.

Fine Suitings.

W. R. Graham, the tailor has received one of the largest lines of fine suitings and trousers to be seen in Oregon, outside of Portland, embracing all the desirable patterns for winter wear. His prices will be found so low that any one can afford to wear one of his neat fitting tailor made suits and overcoats. He warrants his goods to be first-class, and guarantees a fit. Call and see his new patterns.

HOW THEY GOT A PREACHER.

The Business-Like Methods of a Congregation in Illinois.

In one of the flourishing Illinois towns between Chicago and Chicago there is a congregation that, a year or two back, lost its pastor, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Of course the people wanted another as soon as they could get one but they were a little particular about the man, and no end of discussion ensued as to what kind of preacher really was wanted. After they had talked about the matter till they were tired of the subject, they turned the whole business over to deacon or elder, or whatever they called him, and told him to look round and get a preacher.

He was a good business man, and went about the job in a thoroughly characteristic fashion. He wrote to Chicago to the editor of a church paper there to send him the names and addresses of clergymen who would probably suit, and soon received half a dozen. Then he sat down and wrote a prominent commercial agency, forwarding the list of names, telling what he wanted, and directed that the record of the men be looked up and sent to him. In course of time he received an answer, giving personal descriptions of each one, telling where each served last, and how the people liked him, what salaries he had received, what sort of par-ties he was in, what line of church work he excelled in. From the data thus furnished he picked out a likely man, corresponded with him, and finally secured his services. I do not suppose the preacher ever found out how he came to be selected, but he is giving satisfaction, and what more could be expected?

HOLIDAY SHOPPERS.

Should See the Wonderful Array at Julius Gradwohl's Bazaar.

Mr. Julius Gradwohl, the enterprising proprietor of the Bazaar store in this city, which contains the largest and best selected stock of crockery, glass and other wares for domestic use, in the valley, as well as fancy wares, toys and beautiful holiday goods, has replenished and enlarged his entire stock and now has a store that is a credit to himself and an ornament to the city. His shelves, counters and every available space are filled with the choicest and most varied stock of goods ever seen in this valley, including a mammoth display of holiday goods. He has added a new line which consists of a beautiful assortment of rolled gold jewelry warranted to wear as good as gold at a costing one-tenth as much money, diamond cut pins, rings, fine umbrellas for holiday presents and novelties. His stock is now in and holiday shoppers should lose no time in seeing his wonderful array which is not surpassed by any on the coast either in elegance or prices.

He also carries a gigantic stock of beautiful hanging lamps, stand lamps, bicycles, tricycles, safes and velocipedes, which he guarantees to sell as low as any place in Oregon.

His assortment of fine teas and coffee is always complete, as well as a general stock of family groceries. He buys his goods direct from the cash and sells them the same way.

Richard Nel, of Portland, is in the city.

D. B. Monteith came up last evening from Portland.

GROWTH OF A PARTY.

A Few Facts From Political History That Have Some Significance.

The republican party dates back a number of years in point of fact, though its name is of more recent names until 1852. It was formed as a protest against slavery. At the time of the Mexican war it was felt that that struggle was precipitated for the purpose of accepting slavery and various other set slavery could be extended. This set people to thinking very deeply and gave an impetus to the liberty party, the name of which was in 1848 changed to the free soil party.

In its efforts to create a sentiment against slavery, the free soil party had no sympathy or assistance from the two old parties, and this was what led them to attempt to build up a new one.

In 1852, when the party took the name Republican, it seemed as if its promoters were as far in its objects and as far from success as a party could be.

A great many things, however, conspired to a great extent in their progress. The slave holding states had used their power to the utmost in many ways, passing the cruel slave laws and entangling it, and trying to extend slavery wherever they could do so. The result was that in 1856 Fremont was nominated and polled an immense vote, though he was not elected. This gave a great impetus to the party, and in 1860 it was successful in electing Abraham Lincoln as president, though by a minority of all the votes cast.

The party though the republican party found having an issue which moved men's souls, was slow. It took years to build it up and make it a power in the land.

A great many people doubt whether the party is built up and made powerful on purely economic issues, but this history is quoted by some of the friends of the new party showing its possibilities.

454 A QUARTER OF A CENTURY. A gentleman had seen the resources and development of that country. This was no other than Mr. John Steward, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the country. In a recent letter he said: "I had been suffering from pain in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pain in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not do so well as the rest of my family. Hearing from a friend of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found most relief, and before a line had been sent me the pain in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and am consequently recommending it to my friends. I would not be without it for any thing."

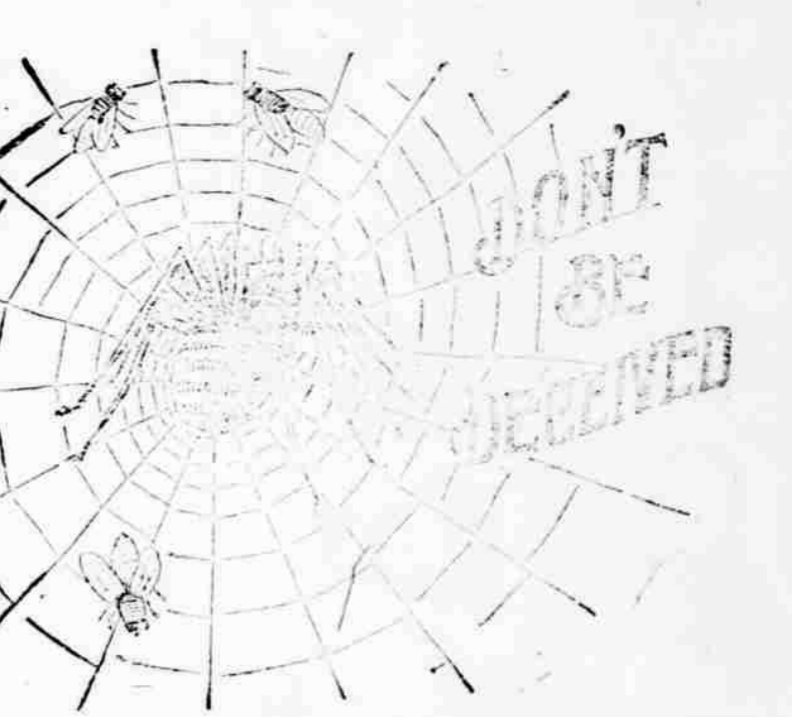

Oregon Kidney Tea cures headache, lumbago, neuralgia, back-ache, sciatica, lumbago or painful secretion while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.
