Cleveland's Minstrels

In the consolidated minstrel, the "big city show," Mr. Cleveland has gathered together from the minstrel world his most clever comedians. The most popular members of the company are Messrs. Bob Slavin, Harry Weston, Sheffield and Baker. These favorites in burnt-cork comedy always keep the audience in a continual roar of laughter whenever they make their appearance.

The vocal part of the programme is very strong. The duet, "Kock us Snip," by the Conway brothers; the base solo, "The Bell Boy," by L. M. Scott; comic solo by Bob Slavin, "Oh! Black Joe," by Harry Weston; "Comrades," by Edward Rogers; the alto solo by Harry Weston, "Always Think of Your Mother," and the selections by the Neapolitan quartette are finely rendered and received merited applause.

A beautiful "terp-scherandor" by the Conway brothers; the musical waltz, "Western and Lull," and the great comic sketch, "Nig and the Bee," by Sheffield and Baker, are attractive. Mr. Slavin gives one of his very funny monologues with his usual success. Karel, the wonderful dell artist, and Hilton, the wonder, go to make one of the greatest fun-stories companies on the road. They will be in Albany on Tuesday next, Dec. 1.

What They Found.

It has leaked out that the physicians who made an examination of the body of Henry Ingram, when it was examined a few days ago, found an ugly wound on the head, the skull having been fractured by a blow as of some dull instrument before he was shot. More convincing evidence of guilt will no doubt be brought out at the next trial than has been heretofore adduced.

Injunction Suits.

D. B. Monteth, Ina Monteth, and Margaret A. Monteth have each commenced injunction suits against the city of Albany, to restrain the selling of property in the city. C. E. Wolvont and J. K. Weatherford are attorneys in the cases.

Finger Cut Off.

The two little daughters of D. S. Smith were playing with an axe yesterday when the elder accidentally cut off the fore finger of one of her sister's hands. The severed member was put in place and will probably grow on again.

THE CITY'S AFFAIRS

CORRESPONDENTS WHO WANT AN EXPLANATION.

They Think That There Has Been Mismanagement on the Part of the City Council.

They think that there has been mismanagement on the part of the city council. They think that the city council has been mismanaged. They think that the city council has been mismanaged.

The approaching city election should remind every citizen that it is a part of their duty to elect men who will guard the city's interests faithfully. Has the present council done this to the best of their ability? Perhaps they have, but there are some things that should be explained at least, if they are explainable. First, the repair of the bridge business and perhaps better to be done. The bridge is now under way, and for one man not willing to say or do anything that would in the least tend to retard it, and all will hope that it will be the substantial permanent structure that is needed by the city and country. It seems to your correspondent that there has been some expenditure, which the public ought to know about. Why one of the councilmen was paid $500 for negotiating the sale of the bonds, there is no record to appear in clear reason on the surface. If it was explained perhaps it could be understood. At present the people are in doubt about it. Why an expensive sewer was built on Ferry street, when another main sewer is only a block away, and other portions of the city without any, also needs explanation. There is a strong feeling of enmity among the people at seeing the city expending $25,000 or $30,000 for sewers, while grossly violating the wishes of the people in refusing to repair property owners' and tenants' sewers. The old sewers already laid, which is a thing the health of the city now loudly demands.

I am in favor of public improvements, but believe that these things being matters affecting the whole city should be thoroughly understood and discussed in order that they may be done with economy and fairness to the whole city. Would it not be well to hear from the city councilmen on these questions?

CITIZEN.

VIEW OF ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

In your last Sunday's issue you invite discussion and an interchange of views as to the management of city affairs, and I propose to avail myself of your offer. Not that I wish to be unnecessarily critical, but because I think the welfare and honor of the city for years to come hang in the balance. One thing almost a fait, we cannot hope to prosper without careful and economical expenditure of the public money. Every cent of money that is paid out by a city council must be raised by taxation. It is not now or hereafter, and therefore every taxpayer is deeply interested in every item of disbursement. The city government is above all things of its departments is above all things. It is not now or hereafter, and therefore every taxpayer is deeply interested in every item of disbursement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Lodge, and a copy furnished to each of the city papers for publication.

Resolved, That the charter of this Lodge be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

FIRE AT SCIO

GOINS & GAMBER'S FLOURING MILL'S BURNED DOWN.

The Loss Will Reach $25,000. With About $10,000 Insurance—How it Occurred.

Scio, Nov. 28.—The splendid flouring mills of Goins & Gamber, in which were also situated the electric light and water works plants, is this morning a mass of charred ruins, having been destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning.

The mills have been running day and night. About 1 o'clock this morning, an hour after Mr. Goins had left the mills and gone home, fire was started from a hot box in the bottom of an elevator shaft. The fire was soon upon after it started by the workmen in the mill, but the flames ignited the flour dust almost like powder and spread with such rapidity that all efforts to extinguish them were of no avail, and the mills and contents burned down.

The mills had recently been rebuilt, and provided with new improved machinery, together with the addition of the plants which furnish the town with electric lights and the water works. The mills contained between 12,000 and 15,000 bushels of flour, a part of which was owned by the mill, the rest having been purchased by the mill firm.

The loss on the wheat and flour is about $10,000, with a very little insurance on the flour, and none on the grain. The loss on the building and machinery is about $15,000, but as near as can be learned this insured in the Guaranty Assurance Co., of London for $500 and $1500 in the Farmers' & Merchants Insurance Co., of Albany.

The loss is fully $25,000, and the insurance about $8,000. Destroying as it does also the electric light system and water works, the fire is a hard blow to the town. It will also stop the saw and flour factory, which derived power from the mills. Mr. Goins says the mills will be rebuilt with as little delay as possible.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Scio, Nov. 28.—At 1 o'clock, this morning fire broke out in the roller mills of Goins & Gamber, and in a few moments that magnificent structure was a mass of flames. All efforts to subside the fire were useless, and the mill was a total loss. Almost 15,000 bushels of wheat and 300 barrel of flour were burned. The electric light plant and water-works were lost in the mill, and, of course, were destroyed, leaving the town in darkness and without the staff of life. The total loss is estimated at $25,000, with an insurance of $8,000.

QUARTER OF A CENTURY

45 years ago, in the year 1846, a man who has since become a prominent citizen of this city, in a recent letter he says "I had been suffering from pain in my back and general kidney complaint some time, and had used many remedies without any temporary relief. The pain in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not even walk on the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend of the wonderful cures of Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and found that very first dose I found instant relief, and before a few days the contents of the box the pain in my back entirely disappeared. I have ever since been a confirmed believer in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for any thing."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures headache, lumbago, rheumatism, backache, neuralgia, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of both sexes.
