JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Saner knaut at Parker Bros. Sweet cider 25 cents a gallon at Parker Bros. Rev. S. G. Irvine has returned from a trip to Salem. G. W. Simpson was in Jefferson yesterday on business.

Swiss cheese, the finest ever in Albany, at Parker Bros. C. Cohen pays the highest market price for green apples.

W. J. Guy, one of Lebanon's prominent citizens, was in Albany Tuesday. J. J. Graham sold yesterday to Wm. Faber 136 bushels of hops for 16 cents per bushel.

E. A. Parker, Jr., and Abe Hackleman came from Prineville yesterday to remain for the winter. Mr. J. A. Gross and wife are in Jacinto, San Bernardino county, California. Mr. Gross' health is much improved.

Some petty thief entered the residence of B. W. Candiff Monday night and carried away a quantity of groceries.

J. L. Scott and family leave today for Lane county, where they will visit a few days before departing for California to spend the winter.

C. C. Hovis, proprietor of the coffee house on Broadway street, left suddenly with his family Monday night for California. Several creditors mourn his departure.

W. S. Phillips has the agency for the Salem Steam Laundry, and those who do not wish to employ Chinese laundrymen can have their clothes sent every Tuesday morning and returned Saturday noon. See him at T. L. Wallace & Company's.

At the Opera House. The performance of W. S. Cleveland's Minstrels at the opera house last evening was witnessed by a large audience, and their satisfaction was shown by the continued hearty applause from the opening first part to the close.

Pleasant Reception. A large number of the first citizens of Albany, including the clergymen and college professors, gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Candiff last evening to give a welcoming reception to Rev. C. G. Harrison, the new pastor of the M. E. church, south.

Grand Ball and Supper. There will be given at the G. A. R. hall, by the G. A. R., and W. R. C. of Albany, a supper and dance, Friday evening, Dec. 4th, 1891. The dance will be in the armory, the supper in the G. A. R. hall. Good music and a fine time is anticipated. Tickets, including supper, $1.50.

THE CITY ELECTION.

Some Additional Names Mentioned for the Office. More than ordinary interest is being centered in the city election which takes place next Monday.

The names of some prospective candidates have already been published in the Herald, and some others have since been mentioned. Among them are Charles Pfeiffer by the democrats for councilman in the second ward and Jason Wheeler in the third ward.

FRINEVILLE MATTERS. Review: A match, two best in three, between Sichel's Ben Harrison and Moore's Duncan, was trotted over the Prineville race course on Thursday afternoon.

Parties who came over from Bridge creek the first of the week reported some snow in the road on the east side of Ochoco mountains. This will probably prevent any more wheat being hauled from bridge creek to the Prineville flouring mills this fall.

Billy Ross was quarantined from seeing his wife on his return from Antelope last week, or rather Mrs. Ross was quarantined and restrained from seeing her husband.

It is the first instance, we believe, where the authorities of Prineville have stepped in and separated man and wife, however the separation was only temporary, and the meeting will be that much happier.

SHEDD AND VICINITY.

J. B. Horner, principal of the Albany school, gave an interesting lecture at the M. E. church Friday night.

The teachers meeting Saturday was very well attended, a good interest was taken in the subjects discussed. The next meeting will be held in Halsey, Saturday before Christmas.

A good many farmers are busy plowing and sowing. A Possible Democratic Nominee. J. R. N. Bell, in the West Side, makes some comments about possible nominees for congress in the first congressional district, and says: "There is little doubt of Binger Hermann receiving the nomination again."

and then asks, "who is the choice of the democrats in the first congressional district upon whom to bestow the honor of a nomination?" Answering its own question, it says that a fit man is to be found in Hon. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany. "This gentleman," says the name of J. K. Weatherford, "is a voluntary contribution on our part, and entirely unknown to him, but we do it with a firm belief in his ability to demonstrate principles, and from the fact that by personal intercourse with many members of the party he stands in the front rank, as one that should receive the honor of a nomination. We therefore present the name of J. K. Weatherford to the consideration of the democracy as one worthy in all respects to receive that honor at their hands."

A Good Word. The Dales Chronicle. It is due to the state Agricultural college to say that the members of the country holding farmers institutes seem thoroughly devoted to the interests of their several departments of labor and the general success and prosperity of the college. We believe this school offers to the sons of the farmers of the state advantages not to be found in other institutions of learning, in the way of acquiring thorough knowledge of cultivating the soil, besides imbuing them with the love of farm life and the dignity of farm labor.

Wednesday Evening. The regular December meeting of the Philharmonic society will be held at their hall Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, sharp. Every member is requested to be present to complete arrangements for the Christmas ball, and other important business. By order of the President.

Grange Meeting. A combined grange and alliance meeting will be held at Charley Grange hall, midway between Brownsville and Halsey, on Friday, December 6th, 1891. R. A. Irvine and Judge R. P. Boise are expected to be present and address the meeting.

Baby cried, Mother sighed, Doctor prescribed: Castoria!

GRANGE AND ALLIANCE ITEMS.

On Saturday Nov. 28, Tangent grange held a regular monthly meeting. A class of six, was initiated into the mysteries of the third and fourth degrees. The degree work over, we all repaired to the hall below and for the next half hour, had under discussion, the qualities of the harvest feast.

The general opinion of all present, seemed to be that it was first-class, or the way the chicken and pumpkin pie disappeared, would lead a person to think that hungry grangers had an extra good appetite. Dinner over, the grange was called to order. The instruction of the class in the unwritten work of the order was taken up. They were given a thorough drilling, and required to go out and work their way in, which they did in a creditable manner. The regular routine of business was then taken up, and much important work was done. We have many good members who take an active interest in the grange work.

The grange is a school, and any one who is not benefited by belonging to it, certainly can blame no one but themselves. Those who stay at home, and expect the other members to do the work for them, deserve to be disappointed. Let us be diligent in our work and success will crown our efforts.

Tangent alliance was organized July 1st, with seventeen members. During the recent season we held no meetings, but since the rainy weather has set in, we have time to look after the business before us. Meets second Tuesday of each month at 10 o'clock. The alliance was organized for the farmers, for self protection. It is well known that the laboring class of people, are imposed upon by all kinds of scheming men, they had their own way so long, it will be hard for them to give way to the honest toilers of the land.

The banking system is run in such a manner that the farmers are benighted by it very little. They keep money to loan when it is to the interest of the bank, otherwise there is none to be had. The extortionate rate of interest demanded by all those who loan their money, is ruining the country, no man can make 10 per cent on his money, and the farmers will ruin the best of farmers, so the farmers will combine together, and see if there is not a remedy for these evils. We want a less rate of interest, and a law which will compel men who have property to pay the tax which is honestly due from them. There is but little doubt but the larger portion of the money, which is in the hands of the law is almost entirely free from taxes. This state of affairs should not exist, but it will be so, just as long as the people will allow politicians to vote for them. The chances are that a change is near at hand, and the sooner the proper steps are taken the better. Delay is useless so let us move at once. REFORMER.

NEWS OF THE COAST.

Interesting News from Exchange Throughout the Northwest. Eastern Oregon stock-raisers find that unless command better prices in Eastern markets, they are common bunch-grass horses. Some of them talk of breeding mules hereafter, instead of horses.

The farmhouse of Andrew Murchie, located a few miles southeast of Waco, was burned to the ground. The loss on the house and contents is estimated at over $2500, which is covered by an insurance of $1200.

Benjamin Bull, of Grant's Pass, is building a road into the Southern Oregon marble and lime quarry, at a cost of $1500. The quarry lies about eleven miles due southwest of Grant's Pass. Some big blais will be quarried out and sent to the world's fair.

Hon. M. McCoy, of Roseburg, has received a letter from his nephew in South Dakota, in which disheartening details of farming are given. Three hundred and twenty acres of land have not returned their owner, this year, in total value as much as many a single acre of prunes has netted in Douglas county. It would not be at all surprising if another member of the McCoy family located in Oregon before long.

William Ireland, of Milton, while hunting in the John Day country recently, was himself hunted by an elk. He shot the animal, which fell and he ran to cut its throat. The elk then arose and attacked the hunter with its horns and front feet. Mr. Ireland was soon rendered unconscious, and laid out a day and night before he recovered sufficiently to drag himself to camp, which he reached in a horribly bruised and frozen condition. He is now suffering greatly from the effects of the encounter, but it is thought he will come out all right. The body of the elk, which was dying when it attacked the hunter, was found at the scene of the battle.

Cute a Saga. There has been placed on our table, by Mr. M. B. Case, a rutabaga turnip that brings the scale to 17 1/2 pounds. It was raised on his place four miles southeast of the city, and is a fine shapely specimen of that excellent vegetable.
