Dr. Bushnell has tendered his resignation as health officer at Yaquina Bay, and will remove to San Francisco. Gov. Pennoyer will appoint a successor to the office.

A pistol shot fired in the alley in the rear of the postoffice about 8 o'clock last evening created a small commotion last evening. It was at first feared that some one had been shot, but it was learned it was only some reckless individual violating the ordinance "just for fun." His identity was not discovered.

Salem's thoroughfares must be in a terrible condition. A delivery wagon became so badly mired down in the 'pavement" last Saturday that it was impossible to get out and the horses were unhitched and the goods distributed by a boy chartered for the occasion. Albany's streets are bad enough, but this goes us one better.

Messrs. Conn & Underwood have purchases the photograph gallery of Geo. L. Wilcox in this city and have taken charge of the same. Mr. Underwood will remain in Corvallis, operating their gallery there and Mr. Conn will conduct the gallery here. They are prepared to make fine pictures, and guarantee satisfaction.

Magers, W. M. Phillips, F. E. Dorris.

A man who puts up a claim for mind reading and fortune telling, and prefixes a Prof. before his name, calling the rest Allen, was about the city yesterday, pre-empting the sidewalk by describing a worm fence and finally laying down—quickly—upon them. It would not require much erudite knowledge to tell his fortune, and a portion of it may be narrated by the recorder before he leaves the city. He is accustomed to that kind of thing, it is said, however.

A Beautiful Sight.

Mr. J. M. Garrison, of Forest Grove, arrived with his fine fowls yesterday and placed them upon exhibition in the Vance building, opposite the Revere House. Mr. Garrison invites every man, woman and child in the city to call to day and to-morrow and see the fowls. The exhibition is free to all. Those creamy white Brahmas, Wyandottes, Leghorns, Plymouth Rocks and Cochins are the admiration of all. Go and see these feathered beauties.

Birds Troubled by Mosquitoes.

Canary birds are a good deal troubled by mosquitoes. The toes of the bird are amply provided with small veins, and as the membrane between the toes is extremely thin an observant mosquito may see its favorite fluid circulating in plain sight. A bird with a swollen hind toe was brought to a bird lancier recently and he pronounced the trouble poisoning from a mosquito bite. He said the thing was not uncommon.

THE CITY ELECTION

Mayor Cowan Re-Elected by a Majority of 119.

N. J. HENTON ALSO RE-ELECTED

E. A. Parker Elected Treasurer, and J. S. Hoffman, Marshal The Aldermen are Stewart, Pfeiffer and Graham.

The city election yesterday was held in a steady downpour of rain and a blustering storm such as is seldom witnessed in Oregon. Men stood under dripping umbrellas, and tried to extract comfort in smoking candidate cigars, which were freely "set up" at all the cigar stores. The wind blew furiously, rattling signs and chasing merrily through the whiskers of the wire pullers who dared to face the storm.

The vote was not as large as it would have been had the day been pleasant. The total vote of the city was 682; there was 184 in the First ward, 201 in the Second ward, and 297 in the Third ward. The result of the election, complete, is as follows:

Parkers election officers will stand evenly divided politically. There will be three republicans and three democratic councilmen; the mayor and marshal will be democratic and the recorder and treasurer republican.

Peculiar Method.

The Oregonian notes and comment says that the blind baggage passenger who was hurt in the recent accident on the Southern Pacific near tunnel 9, was not a "hobo," as at first reported, but a man with $6000 or $7000. The Roseburg Plaindealer says he is a brother-in-law of Mr. Johnson, proprietor of the Minnesota house at Eugene, and was going up for a visit, partly of a social and partly of a business nature. Instead of paying his fare, he noticed the cellar of the caboose open and crowded among the tools, with the result of being rather badly smashed up. When wealthy men take a notion to ride under a car instead of in it, they should always take the precaution of taking out an accident policy.

BELSHAZZAR.

Cast of Characters of This Great Cantata to Be Presented Dec mber 17 and 18.

The greatest Cantata in American print will be presented to the Albany public in magnificent costume on the 17th and 18th of December, 1891. To give a proper description of this superb production it would take much more space than we feel at liberty to ask of our already generous newspaper publishers. However, the people of Albany will have the opportunity of witnessing a performance on the above dates long to be remembered, and such a one as has not been attempted for ten years. Most every school boy has heard, at least a part of the story of Belshazzar, the downfall of the wonderful city of Babylon, the long oppression of the Jews and their final restoration by Cyrus, king of Persia. Attempts have been made by artists to paint the gorgeous feast of Belshazzar on canvas, and to picture this tryant king in his tragical death. Biblical history gives us one of the most striking events to be found in the whole range of bible history in this story of Belshazzar. Who has not read of the mysterious hand-writing on the wall, the attempt of the Magi to read it, their failure, and the correct interpretation of the prophet Daniel. Who has not in their imagination saw the beautiful and white winged angel appear to Cyrus in his camp, and listened to the sweet strains of music as the angel sings to him.

This Cantata so faintly hinted at in the above lines will be placed on the stage in a manner which is pleasing and interesting.

TEN POINTERS.

1. Albany has dramatic ability.
2. Albany has some of the best musical talent in the Northwest.
3. Prof. W. H. Lee is musical director, and no better can be found in the state.
4. Prof. E. G. Lorrillard is pianist; his supremacy at the piano is unquestioned.
5. Mr. Henry Hopkins is stage manager; his reputation is one of high degree.
6. Over fifty people are bending their energies to make Belshazzar a success.
7. Buy your tickets early, at Will & Link's music store.
8. Present indications are that the opera house will be packed.
9. Cost of presenting Belshazzar to the public, over $200.00.
10. Costumes complete, from San Francisco, over 50 in number.

Miss Dr. A. F. Jeffrey, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is spending a few days in the city on a visit with her cousin, Hon. Jeff. Myers, of Linn county, is the only lady graduate from the Adelbert college, of Western Reserve University, at Cleveland, Ohio, an institution of recognized standing by the entire medical profession. She graduated with high honors in a class of fifty in 1883. Prior to the time she entered this college its doors were closed to the gentler sex and three years ago a separate department was established for female medical students, as a part of the institution. During the time Adelbert college was open to women Miss Jeffrey was the only lady student as well as the only lady graduate. She expects to locate either in Albany or Salem.

Notice has been received by the employes of the Oregon Pacific Railroad company that the paymaster, C. C. Hogue, will pay off to-day for the months of June, July, August and September. This will be most welcome news both to the employes and the citizens along the line, evidencing that Col. Hogg is still on top and the money vaults are not closed against him.

The Recent Scio Fire.

The Scio Press has the following to say of the burning of the flouring mills, water works and electric light plant at that place last week: "That Scio has received a blow, in a financial sense, the effects of which will be felt for months to come, goes without question: The direct damages are variously estimated at from $25,000 to $35,000. The consequential damages are difficult to estimate but undoubtedly will be as much more. The business interests of Scio are to be a great extent paralyzed. One merchant who had made calculation to go to Portland last Monday to purchase a large stock of holiday goods, will not go at all now, or at least will not lay in any holiday goods to speak of, and what is true with this one is true with all. Goins & Gamber will have flour and feed on hand from other sources to supply their customers, but that will not replace the wheat lost. Many farmers keep their wheat for flouring purposes at home (fortunate in this instance,) this of course will be taken elsewhere, and as a matter of course a part of their produce, etc., and the buying of family supplies will in a measure go to other towns. Unquestionably there will be a falling off of trade in all branches of business. People will be compelled to buy less than they otherwise would had the fire not occurred. The loss of twenty thousand dollars from the circulating medium of the Folks of the Santiam will necessarily affect every one more or less. Should a larger and better mill be erected, as is promised within the year, we will in a short time forget our loss in the push and bustle of building. Messrs. Goins & Gamber will feel the loss though for years. They have the sympathy of everyone, and we are informed they have had tenders of financial aid that speaks very flattering of their business capacity and integrity. A number of our citizens also have expressed themselves as willing to give them financial aid in rebuilding the mill. While the blow is a heavy one at the prosperity of Scio and vicinity, it will in all probability result in better improvements, better mill, etc., in the future."
