WRECKED SCHOONER.

Brought into Yaquina by the Willamette Valley.

YAQUINA, Dec. 11.—Yesterday as the Willamette Valley was coming north she sighted the steam schooner Maggie Ross about 23 miles north and 10 west of Yaquina apparently in distress, she lowered one of her boats and made fast to the schooner and towed her into Yaquina Bay where search was instituted no one was found aboard but one dead man. The cabin and boats were gone and the smoke stack was laying on deck. The schooner was of about 13 tons registered and loaded with lumber. The hull was supposed to be all right.

The Maggie Ross was loaded with lumber and sailed from Coos bay last Monday. All her deck-load of lumber was gone when she was found together with her smokestack and part of her cabin. She was a most dilapidated-looking vessel when she was towed in this morning, and shows evidence of having received a severe hard knock by the storm. It is not known whether the Ross carried any passengers or not, or what was the number of her crew. There were no marks of violence on the body of the sailor found, and nothing to indicate how he had come to his death. A hurried examination of the schooner this morning seemed to show her hull was all right, and all the damage she sustained was confined to her upper works.

SODAVILLE.

Matters and Events at Linn County's Pleasure Resort.

The recent heavy winds have sadly demoralized considerable fencing in this part of the country. The new church was blown down, after it was half way up, and then the carpenters rebuilt it partly, and it was blown down again last Sunday night.

The streams are badly swollen, and Oak creek is like a young river. The Sodaville literary society held its third regular meeting last Friday night, and elected the following officers: Ben Bashor, president; W. L. Jackson, vice president; Miss Eva Shankland, secretary; Miss Minnie Peery, assistant secretary; Alda Parrish, treasurer; J. R. Pound, marshal.

The annual election of city officers on Monday resulted as follows: Trustees: Wm. Smith, H. A. McCarty, H. W. Peery, H. M. Perry and Al. Parrish. Recorder, Chas. Eichler. Marshal, J. R. Pound. Treasurer, Geo. Werts.

The general health of the community is good. There will be a literary entertainment and basket social held here on Dec. 30th, under the auspices of the literary society, for the purpose of raising funds to purchase an organ for the new church.

Several new buildings are on the tapis for the coming spring. Sodaville will be one of the finest little towns on the coast.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. A. M'BRIDE.

Minnie Belle Bayne, was born at Baynetown, Pa., May 2, 1866, her family removed to Oregon April 1876. After living in Oregon a few years she united with the United Presbyterian church near Muddy Creek, where she leaves a good record. December 20, 1884, she was united in marriage to J. A. McBride, died Nov. 11, 1891, at Albany, Oregon.

SHE WILL SLEEP TO-NIGHT.

Smooth the curls of her silken hair, On her quiescent brow, with tender care; Gather the robe in a final fold, Around the form that will not grow old. Lay on her bosom, pure as snow, The fairest, sweetest flowers that grow. Come, children, look, she was your hearts delight; In dreamless peace she will sleep to-night. A shadowy gleam of light lies left Around the lids of her slumberous eyes. And her lips are closed, as in fond dream; Of the loving word she had to say, But her gentle hand is still raised, And from tender head to tender feet, Husband, she is quite cold and white; The throbbing is gone she will sleep to-night.

Put by her work and her empty fold up the garments she used to wear; Let down the curtains and close the door; She will need the garish light no more; For the task assigned her under the sun, Is finished now, and the guerdon won; Brothers and sisters, your hearts delight, Leave her alone she will sleep to-night.

O blessed sleep that will not break For tears nor prayers nor parents' sake, O perfect rest that knows no pain, No throbs no thrill of heart or brain, O life sublime beyond all speech, That only the pure through dying grace, God understands and his ways are right, Bid his beloved a long good night. Weep for the days that will come no more, For the snubbed down from hearth and door, For a missing step, for nameless grace, Of a tender voice and a loving face; But not for the soul whose goal is won. Whose faithful joy has just begun, Not for the spirit-counsel in light And crowned, where the angels are to-night. A Friend.

From Oregon to Ohio.

Salem Statesman: Soon after Hon. Wm. McKinley was elected governor of Ohio the republicans of Salem took it into their heads to show to him their appreciation of his statesmanship, and through the committee consisting of Jap Minto, Geo. Williams and C. B. Moore money was raised to send him the finest pair of blankets that could be manufactured in Oregon. The order was placed with the Salem woolen mill and yesterday the blankets were completed and will be exhibited a few days, before being sent East at the Woolen Mills store. These blankets are perhaps the finest ever manufactured in Oregon, being of choice Oregon wool. They are 96x80 inches and cost $50, and are as soft and fleecy as down itself. They are of pure white, the border being of red and blue, tessellated. On one side is woven the dedication: "From the Wool Growers of Oregon to Gov. McKinley, of Ohio," and on the reverse side is the announcement that the blankets were manufactured by the Thos. Kay Woolen Mills, of Salem, Oregon. This is certainly a grand present, which eloquently declares the esteem in which the gallant major is held by the republicans of far Oregon.

HOLIDAY SHOPPERS.

Should See the Wonderful Array at Julius Gradwohl's Bazaar.

Mr. Julius Gradwohl, the enterprising proprietor of the Bazaar store in this city, which contains the largest and best selected stock of crockery, glass and other wares for domestic use, in the valley, as well as fancy wares, toys and beautiful holiday goods, has replenished and enlarged his entire stock and now has a store that is a credit to himself and an ornament to the city.

His shelves, counters and every available space are filled with the choicest and most varied stock of goods ever seen in this valley, including a mammoth display of holiday goods. He has added a new line which consists of a beautiful assortment of rolled gold jewelry warranted to wear as good as gold and costing one-tenth as much money, diamond cut pins, rings, fine umbrellas for holiday presents and novelties. His stock is now in and holiday shoppers should lose no time in seeing his wonderful array which is not surpassed by any on the coast either in elegance or prices.

He also carries a gigantic stock of beautiful hanging lamps, stand lamps, bicycles, tricycles, safeties and velocipedes, which he guarantees to sell as low as any place in Oregon.

His assortment of fine teas and coffees is always complete, as well as a general stock of family groceries. He buys his goods direct for net cash and sells them the same way.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Atty., Washington, D. C.

For eight years I have suffered from catarrh, which effected my eyes and hearing; have employed many physicians without relief. I am now on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and feel confident of a complete cure.—Mary C. Thompson, Cerro Gordo, Ill.

SPECULATION DANGEROUS.

Scarcely a day passes without the news of some large failure in trading over the wires—the usual result of speculation in stocks or some equally dangerous venture. Buckwheat Cakes.

The old way of setting to raise over night by the use of yeast, while the cakes were light yet there was always a well founded suspicion that buckwheat cakes made in that manner were indigestible and unwholesome, because of the chemical action that takes place, so alters the flour from its original character, that the souring or decomposing process continues in the stomach, followed by dyspepsia and kindred troubles. The new way does away with all fermentation, souring etc., and places upon the table smoking hot buckwheat cakes in 12 minutes or less. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the element that superseded the old methods. Buckwheat and all griddle cakes made with Dr. Price's Powder are not only exceedingly light and delicious, but can be enjoyed by dyspeptics and invalids with impunity. Dr. Price's Cream is the only baking powder containing the whites of eggs.
