Once again the joy bells ring on the Christmas eve of 'peace on earth, good will to men.'

Governor Pennington proposes a free tug service at the mouth of the Columbia river, kept up by the state. Not a bad idea.

The vision that Governor Penneyer was to be a large stockholder in the new democratic newspaper to be started in Astoria, receives a decided denial from him.

In Jersey City a small crowd of people gathered to see the exhibition, as a result for the poor. It is to contain a gymnasium, reading room, all kinds of games, music, cooking school, etc.

The political situation of affairs in China, and the Central Asian countries, is one of unrest and uncertainty. Russia is reaching out her long, slender military finger in a manner that is disturbing to the equilibrium of the whole.

The action of the sales grange in passing resolutions upon the Nicaragua canal seems with universal approbation. They show that they grasp the situation and are alive to their own interests.

The arguments against the free college men have such peculiar twists and turns that it is difficult to follow the ups and downs of their logic. The thoroughness of their attack is not to be denied.

all agree in assigning to it a density so extremely small as to be mentally inconceivable. We cannot conceive of energy dissociated from mass, and in the case of ether, the mass being so small, it is inconceivable that there should be any large amount of energy stored or locked up in a given space.

REMARKABLE REMEDY. Mrs. Michael Curtis, Plainfield, N. J., writes the statement that she had a cold, which settled on her chest, and was treated for a month by her physician, but grew worse.

THE WORLD ENRICHED. The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited.

FEEL DEAD. These words are familiar to our readers, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen.
