Wit and Justice in Missouri.

It is well known that some of the Judges in Missouri are very reluctant to enforce the law against ministers of the Gospel for exercising their profession without taking the oath, and avail themselves of every pretense to discharge those who are accused. We tell the following tale as 'tis told us, vouching for nothing: Three ministers charged with reaching the "Glorious Cospel of he Son of God," were arraigned before the Judge. They were regularly indicted, and it was understood that the proof against them was very clear. "Are you a preacher?" asked the Judge of one of them. "Yes, sir," replied the culprit.
