A GRINDING MONOPOLY .- The grangers of Ferest Grove have discovered a grinding monopoly and they propose to put their foot on it, and we say go in. A nice crequet ground was made on the grounds of the Congregational church which was to be free to all. A croquet set was bought for the use of the town without respect to persons and now the middlemen have monopolized et" from the rising of the sun to the roomed with Willis Dean. In the pecially to the aged parents; and going down of the same, and when the Grangers come in in the afternoon from the harvest field they can get no chance to play the noble game. The middlemen crowd around the game and as fast as a man quits his place another takes it, and their children from the boodlum of sixteen to the tow head of five sit on all the available seats, and when an opportunity presents take a chance at the balls. The Grangers of this burg do not propose to stand any more foolishness about this "creeket" business. Now ye store keeps, go slo w henceforth and be kind to your brother.
