

The Farmers and the Shippers.

The farmers have been unjustly criticised lately because they have not supplied the ships now lying at Portland with wheat.

We should regret it if these ships should leave Portland without cargoes, but if they should it will not be the farmers' fault.

We hope the farmers will stand by each other and not get excited because shippers threaten to leave without cargoes.

Obfuscated. East Portland, Aug. 28, 1874. H. B. LACE, Editor of P. G. INDEPENDENT.

GENTLEMEN: A connecting cotton link properly established is ninefold economical.

The report circulated through the country by parties in Cornelius that the smallpox is at the Grove is a base falsehood in every particular.

The Plymouth church Investigating Committee have made their report and exonerate Beecher of criminality.

The Nehalem Road Again—D.O. Quick Reviewed.

Mr. Quick states in last week's Bulletin that the mountain over which the State road passes does not exceed 1200 feet above the Tualatin Plains.

Mr. Quick says that the road is passable without snow-shoes. That must be when the snow is hard.

He says that the Parker road does not touch the State road for sixty miles. Whereas, they do not touch at all.

He says Commissioner Beach has built twenty-two miles of road on this end!

He says that the State road is not a fair and candid showing. As a rule wheat cannot be raised in Oregon at a profit for less than $1.00 per bushel.

He says that $1,000 of the appropriation remains to carry the road to the Nehalem Valley this fall.

The road will accommodate the valley better than any other, and it is the shortest route for a road, and has the easiest grades.

Now a few words about the route proposed by Mr. Parker. It follows the railroad survey to Astoria, which is of itself sufficient proof that this is the best possible route for the State to build its road.

We hope our Delegation to the Legislature will look to this matter at the coming session. They can depend on these statements because they are based on Prof. Collier's personal observations.

A DASTARDLY ACT.

Cornelius shakes its Smallpox Clothes at Forest Grove—Mean Lying.

August 28th, 1874. ED. INDEPENDENT:—Sir It becomes my painful duty to inform you that there are four cases of smallpox in your town.

Now this is all wrong. You ought to tell all about it. We know you have got it because the merchants and whisky men of Cornelius say so.

Now then this Company asks that the State shall pay the interest on their bonds for a period of twenty years, about $50,000 per annum.

Direct communication with the East—a week to Chicago—is a question so big with importance to Oregon that the bare statement ought to convince any fair mind.

An English paper has this to say of our State: "England indeed lost a beautiful country when she relinquished Oregon, a State nearly as large as Great Britain and Ireland combined."

The channel in the Yaquina River, near its mouth, has materially changed during the year.

The best yields of wheat we have yet heard of are given in the Salem Record. Mr. I. Durbin raised on 13 acres of land 675 bushels, or 52 bushels per acre.

Hon. George P. Holman, Agent and Secretary of the Pioneer Oil Company, states that the first shipment of green tallow for upholstery will be made this week to San Francisco.

Washington county Fair will be held at Hillsboro, Sept. 28, 29, 30, and Oct. 1, and 2. $5,000 in premiums are offered.
