LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Hillsboro council, at its meeting last Monday evening, passed two important ordinances...

The Washington county democratic committee will meet in Hillsboro, Saturday, March 24, at 10 a. m.

The county board is in session. Proceedings will be given in next issue.

George Squires has reopened his restaurant on Second street.

A hearty acquiescence—Mr. Fatherly—What beautiful teeth Miss Smith has!

If there is any one who should be "trapped in slumber," it is the man who snores.

The Pendleton East Oregonian will commence the publication of a daily paper on March 1st.

The case of Charles Burnham, praying for a decree against his wife, Sabina Burnham, at Portland, was dismissed.

Mrs. John Miller has gone to Hillsboro to visit her people, and now the head of the family is investigating the subject of man's rights in the kitchen.

Newburg, Yamhill county, will soon start a cannery. Will Hillsboro's soon ever come?

The fourth annual convention of the Woman's Relief corps, department of Oregon, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, was held in Albany during the encampment, and after a very pleasant, harmonious and profitable session...

The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by all classes of people for over forty years.

W. E. Thorn, of Hillsboro has purchased from W. Simmons that tract of land lying south of the depot, containing about 36 acres.

Mr. Thomas Paulsen has just returned from the Pacific Coast Fruit Growers' association.

Mr. Ed. H. Miller, formerly of Cedar Mill, this county, is still in the employ of Wells, Fargo & Co. in San Francisco.

Mr. Joseph Hare has bought an interest in the Hillsboro Livery Stable and in future will devote his attention to that business.

We have just received a lot of choice flower and vegetable seed from D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Paulsen, president of the North Pacific Dairy Association, says that seven creameries and three cheese factories have been started in the Northwest since January 1st.

Man Tolzer, a clerk in the clothing house of Kohn & Lippitt, at Portland, is visiting his parents in Hillsboro for a few days.

Owing to a large correspondence from all parts of the county, we are compelled to omit obituary notices of any length this week.

The advertisement in this issue of Geo. O. Sloan's high bred poultry, at Forest Grove, send in your orders to him and receive prompt attention and fair dealing.

New supply of paint brushes, clothes brushes and all kinds of toilet articles, just to hand at the Hillsboro Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Weber returned from California last Monday afternoon. Their many friends, after their long visit, gave them a sincere welcome home—Chehalis Nugget.

The new principal teacher of the Chemawa Indian training school has arrived from the East, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Miss Welch believed teachers' meetings beneficial, because they afforded teachers opportunity for an exchange of ideas.

Prof. Hawes said: Education is based on the science of the mind, and favored teachers' meetings, but condemned many so-called Educational Journals.

Prof. Hawes said his position on the mental arithmetic question was this—that it should be taught in connection with written arithmetic, without a separate book.

Miss Howard said she considered the question as involving principles of a broad nature—that she exacted courtesy of her pupils and treated them in the same manner.

The annual school meeting convened in Hillsboro last Monday at 1 o'clock p. m., Charles Humphreys of the board presiding.

After the report of Clerk W. H. Wehring had been read and referred to a finance committee, T. D. Humphreys and Dr. F. A. Bailey were placed in nomination for school director.

W. H. Wehring was re-elected school clerk by a unanimous vote.

Following is the report of the committee appointed at the last annual school meeting:

We, the undersigned, a committee appointed at the annual school meeting of District No. 7, Washington county, Oregon, held March 5th, 1888, to examine the accounts of the district school clerk, report as follows:

The annual meeting of P. of H. of Washington county to elect delegates to Oregon State Grange, will be held at Hillsboro on Tuesday, March 13, 1888, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

LOCAL TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Hillsboro, March 3, 1888. The local teachers' institute convened in the schoolhouse this morning at 9:30.

The first topic on the programme—"Are Teachers' Meetings Beneficial?"—was introduced by Mr. Vincent, who said these meetings have a tendency to awaken a desire for knowledge on the part of the teacher.

L. E. Wilkes thought teachers' meetings were beneficial if teachers would take part in the discussion; but said some would not have attended this one if they could have gotten their certificates without doing so.

Miss Howard favored speaking distinctly and clear, with head held erect, book in left hand, and voice well modulated.

The exercises closed with a solo by Miss Appa Waggoner.

Arrangements have been made with Rev. Derrick to preach every third Sunday at 11 a. m. at our schoolhouse and at 3 p. m. on Saturdays at the Wilcox schoolhouse.

"Mental Arithmetic" was presented by L. E. Wilkes in an essay of a humorous nature, he attacked Prof. Hawes for his position at Forest Grove on mental arithmetic; also, gave several methods of teaching it and pointed out certain expressions to be avoided in the solution.

Prof. Hawes said his position on the mental arithmetic question was this—that it should be taught in connection with written arithmetic, without a separate book.

Recitation, by Johnny Willis, "Only Excess is Sin."

Miss Howard said she considered the question as involving principles of a broad nature—that she exacted courtesy of her pupils and treated them in the same manner.

CORNELIUS STERN.

MARCH 6th.—Oliver Spencer has been quite ill from lung fever, but is improving.

T. R. Cornelius is having the old storehouse on the lot formerly owned by D. L. Turpin. It now fronts to the south, and changes the appearance of that portion of the town considerably.

C. DeGroff has taken charge of T. R. Cornelius' "Dilley Ranch" and has moved his family there.

Geo. Wilcox, of Clinton, Wis., and a son of David Wilcox, is here visiting friends and relatives. He spent a portion of the winter in California.

John Poteet, sawyer in Cornelius' saw-mill, got his hand badly sawed one day last week. In moving the gauge, the wrench slipped and threw his hand into the saw.

GLEN CREEK NOTES.

MARCH 5.—It does not look so much like spring as it did. It has been raining in the valley and snowing in the mountains for the past three or four days.

Mr. Little, whom we reported ill, died last Tuesday morning, and was buried last Wednesday in the McCoy graveyard, near this place.

Mr. G. T. Lyda was thrown out of a wagon and came near getting his leg broken.

Well! Well! that beats all! We mean that girl at Henry Glassen's, a twelve pounder—and she has come to stay.

A republican club has been organized here and is in full blast. Cleveland may well decline.

Mr. A. W. Veatch, who has located on a claim near here, has built a cozy little dwelling and is prepared to take her home. We do not know who the lucky one may be.

Messrs. Wm. Lyda & Son are turning out about 10,000 feet per day of fine lumber as we ever looked at. They are accommodating gentlemen and ready to fill orders promptly.

Mr. N. C. Lilly is refitting his store-room. Increase of business necessitates more room. Mr. A. J. Veatch is the carpenter.

Mr. William Pointer, of Hillsboro, is visiting his brother-in-law, J. Heister, also attending to business in his old school district.

Mr. Ward Swape has gone to Portland on business.

Miss Libby Pletcher, who has been on the sick list for several days, has regained her health. She has gone to work at Mr. H. Buxton's new Forest Grove, where she will remain during the summer.

Spring Chicken vs. Rooster. In your issue of the 1st inst. we hear a "Rooster" crow over a victory which he is not entitled to. It is true the poultry show was for the best display, but this same Rooster went from barn yard to barn yard to borrow such stock as would be a credit to any one—which is all right. But when this same Rooster takes the credit of others' fine stock and says now is the time to procure eggs for setting, it is misplacing the trust which he received at the poultry show.

"It Saved My Life" Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, having used it for a year, and cured my cough, cold, and croup. My wife, Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe cold, which settled on my lungs, and deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough remedies, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 50c. Six bottles, $2.50.

NEW TODAY. I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use of this medicine cured my cough, and I am satisfied, saved my life.
