MUMPS.—We understand there is several cases of mumps in town.

No Go.—The theatrical troupe that advertised to perform here on Wednesday evening, failed to put in an appearance.

FIXING UP.—The youths of this place are busily engaged this week fixing up their guns, preparatory to going into the hills after grouse.

NEW GOONS.—Mr. N. Lee, of the firm of N. & J. D. Lee, went to Portland this week to lay in a stock of new spring goods. He will return next week.

SHOWERY.—The fears expressed by some on Thursday, to the effect that we would have a drouth this spring, was dispelled by the fine April shower of yesterday.

DRIVING.—If the rain would stop for a few days we would soon have excellent roads. We never saw the ground dry faster than during the bright days in the fore part of the week.

GOOD SALE.—Mr. W. W. Boone, of this county, has sold 84 head of calves, one year old, at thirteen dollars per head. For stock of that age this is considered a good price.

AFRAID.—We heard a prominent Democrat remark, a few days since, that he would like to go to the State Convention at Portland, and would go, if he wasn't afraid he should lose his residence.

CONVENTIONS.—We call the attention of our readers to the two calls for political conventions in this issue, the Republican to meet in County Convention on the 14th of May, and the Democratic on the 16th of April.

A HOTEL AGAIN.—We are pleased to be able to state we are to have a hotel in Dallas again, and all visitors to our town can rest assured of finding good accommodations. Mr. Shultz has leased and refitted the old Dallas Hotel, and will hereafter cater to the tastes of his patrons.

MEDICAL.—We have received the March number of the "Oregon Medical" and Surgical Reporter. The table of contents presents that variety of matter heretofore characteristic of the publication. It is filling a station in Oregon that has heretofore been vacant, and its mission is for good.

GROUSE.—The foot hills are alive with grouse, and our hunters are having fine amusement among them. It is a noticeable fact that game birds are in greater number this spring than usual, and the number of young birds this fall is likely to be larger than heretofore.

MUSICAL CONCERT.—The Salem Musical Union advertise that they will perform the beautiful musical cantata named Queen Esther, at Reed's Opera House in Salem, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next. This is the first piece of the kind that has yet been brought out in this State. We advise any of our readers who may be in Salem at that time to go and see it.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—As reason of the inclemency of the weather and the muddy roads, we have not been able to canvass the county for subscriptions, but have sent papers to many persons for the purpose of advertising our new enterprise. If any there be who do not want the paper, and will inform us of that fact, their names will be promptly stricken from our lists, and, on the other hand, if a new subscriber gives us his name and address we will gladly send him a paper.

HEARD FROM.—Mr. Waymore has heard from his sons and their families, who started over the mountains for Tillamook. The company had got as far as the Eight Mile House when the snow storm caught them. Here the women were left while the men pressed on over the mountains in the storm. The loose snow was about four feet deep, and the passage is represented as being very hazardous and laborious. A valuable horse was lost in the journey by falling over a precipice. The snow is now, after being packed down, about two feet deep.

FOR TILLAMOOK.—We understand that there are about a dozen persons in this county who are intending to remove to Tillamook county this spring. That place offers many inducements to immigrants. It is near the sea coast with a good harbor for coasting craft, and consequently is near market. The opportunities for agriculture are considerable and the lumbering interests are not to be estimated. In connection with farming are vast natural pastures, inviting the stock raiser to enter and take possession. We know of no spot west of the Cascade range that is a better place to settle than Tillamook.

WANT A CHANGE.—There are three postmasters in this county, one on the northern confines, another in the eastern part of the county and a third toward the south, who are paying more attention to politics, and less to the honest discharge of their duties as Federal office holders, than the case justifies. These men have taken the authority of returning the REPUBLICAN to this office with refused written on it, when, in fact, the subscribers never ordered them so to do, but have written us to know the reason why their papers were not sent. If those men, working in the interest of the Democratic party, are afraid to allow both sides of the political issues of the day to be studied, they had better get up a new party with a sounder bottom.

TRANSPORTATION.—Judge Collins, Chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, handed us the following letter, from Major Berry, Chairman of the State Central Committee: Being desirous to have a full representation of delegates from your county in the State Convention, I take pleasure in informing you that the State Committee have chartered a steamer to carry delegates from Eugene City, or Corvallis, to Portland and return free of charge. Tickets will be furnished on delegate credentials. All other persons desirous of attending the State Convention will be charged half fare only. Meals will be charged for by the Company at the usual rates. Delegates will please take notice that the steamer will leave Corvallis at 5 o'clock on the morning of April 5th, 1870. Delegates from Polk county can calculate the time the steamer will be at Buena Vista, Independence, and the other landings from the time of leaving Corvallis.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—The delegates from the various precincts to the Republican County Convention met in the Court House, at 12 m., last Saturday, and came to a temporary organization by the election of Geo. C. Bell, Chairman, H. H. McCord and Thos. Pearce Secretaries. A committee on credentials was appointed and the Convention adjourned to 1 o'clock, p. m. At the coming together of the Convention again the committee on credentials reported and recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent, which was agreed to. By motion it was decided to proceed to the election of eleven delegates to the Union Republican Convention at Portland. A motion to elect the delegates by ballot was lost. W. C. Whitson moved that each precinct should select a delegate to attend the State Convention, and submit its choice to the Convention for ratification or rejection. This motion was agreed to, whereupon the following names were put in nomination:

D. J. Cooper	Bethel
Isaac Smith	Bridgeport
A. M. Smith	Buena Vista
Wm. Savage	Douglas
J. H. Whitwood	Eola
J. W. Crawford	Dallas
John Frederick	Jackson
H. Burford	La Creole
B. F. Whitson	Monmouth
J. C. Cooper	Salt Creek
L. Case	Luckiamute

The Convention ratified the nominations. B. F. Nichols offered a resolution to the effect that the delegates to the State Convention be instructed to use their best endeavors to secure the nomination of W. C. Whitson as candidate for District Attorney in the third Judicial District. The Convention then, on motion, adjourned.

The Knights of the Horny Hand have been utterly ignored by the Democratic Convention. That devoted band of brothers "didn't get a snoot full," as the phrase elegantly hath it; and their leader, who almost alone has tilted against the Mongolian host, has no reward for the dangers he has braved, and is about to return, sans hope, sans honors sans everything. The sacrifice is made and Col. Chapman has fallen. Who will care for the poor, feeble, helpless American workman now? —Oregonian.

Thaddeus Young Smith, of the Mormon mission in Louisville, Ky., writes to the Courier-Journal that the Saints propose to resist the effort to abolish polygamy and that the Mormons "bid defiance to every crusade that originates in the corrupt court of Washington."

STATE ITEMS.

The Jacksonville Sentinel says that a proposition to flume Foot's Creek for about a mile and a half from where it empties into Rogue river, has been considerably talked of lately. It is believed that there are rich diggings on this creek, for about a mile and a half from its mouth, which, owing to want of fall, cannot be worked without a flume. The cost of the undertaking is estimated at $5,000. We would be glad to see the enterprise go on.

Ed. Turk, who shot Sims, in Gird's saloon, at Albany, last fall, was arrested last week by the sheriff of Lian county. He came from Grant county as a delegate to the Democratic State Convention.

Mr. Ramsey furnishes the following school statistics to the Statesman: Total amount paid teachers during the year in Marion county, $15,329; average wages, $40 20; amount of tax levied and collected, $3,373 92; expended on school houses, $148 25; value of school houses in the county, $30,040; total amount expended for school purposes, $16,964 34.

The State Agricultural Society has contracted to purchase 70 acres of land lying east of and adjoining the Fair Grounds. This tract of land will be surveyed into lots and blocks for the convenience of campers.

The Statesman editorially says that the stock-holders of the Oregon Central Railroad Company have dissolved their corporation after having transferred all its rights, property and franchises to a new corporation to be known as the Oregon and California Railroad Company. The capital stock of the new corporation is $20,000,000. The Directors of the new company are, Ben. Holladay, W. L. Halsey, C. Temple Emmett, George W. Wilder, I. R. Moore, C. H. Lewis, J. C. Hawthorn and M. Crawford.

The Society of the First Congregational Church, in Portland, is making arrangements to build a new church edifice.

A petition has been circulated and numerous signed in Corvallis asking the City Recorder to declare J. H. Upton, of the Corvallis Mercury, a common drunkard.

A Mr. Bryant, in Marion county, has made during the winter 3,700 pounds of cheese. He has already sold 2,200 pounds.

Gov. Woods, says the Statesman, has commissioned Thos. Mountain as Port Warden at Portland, vice Captain Couch, deceased.

The latitude of Salem is 44° 56' and longitude, west of Greenwich, 122° 48' 42".

SPEAK GENTLY.—Of all the evils prevalent among young men, we know of none more blighting in its moral effect than to speak slightly of the virtue of women. Nor is there any thing in which young men are thoroughly mistaken than in the low estimate they form of the integrity women—not of their own sisters and mothers, but of others who they forget are somebody else's sisters and mothers. As a rule, no one who surrenders to this debasing habit is to be trusted with any enterprise requiring integrity of character. Plain words should be spoken on this point, for the evil is a general one and deep rooted. If young men are sometimes thrown into society of thoughtless or lewd women, they have no more right to measure other women by what they see than they would have to estimate the character of honest and respectable citizens by the development of crime in our police court. Let our young men remember that their chief happiness in life depends upon their faith in women. No worldly wisdom, no misanthropic philosophy, no generalization can cover or weaken this fundamental truth. It stands like the record of God itself—for it is nothing less than this—and should put an everlasting seal upon lips that were wont to speak lightly of women.

A Nashville reporter rapturously asks, "What heart has not thrilled at the silvery silence which succeeds sweet music, when the delicate harmonies that had ceased to vibrate on the ear were repeated, and each share of melodious meaning translated to the inner sense." A hand-organ was the provocation.

Senator Wm. M. Tweed's stable in Fortieth street, New York, is three stories high, built of light stone, with Mansard roof, cost $48,000 without the lot, and is equal in style to a first-class Fifth avenue dwelling. Window glass that cost $250 a pane adorns the windows, and rich Brussels carpets are on the floor. Great is Tammany, and great is the profit.

A polecat got out of his cage in New York the other evening and scampered up Broadway. A policeman, mistaking the animal for a squirrel, gave chase and captured him. The M. P. went home and buried a new uniform worth $50, in the yard.

Telegraphic Summary.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The fight between the Democratic factions continues and the Young Democracy are marshaling their forces for the contest of tomorrow evening. Sheriff O'Brien, their leader, claims that the meeting is not to request Tweed to resign the Chairmanship of the Democratic General Committee, but he says he will be called upon to state distinctly whether he has been elected with Republicans, and if he has been a traitor, the next step will be his expulsion and the election of a new Chairman. The Tweedists are as confident of success as their opponents, but it is said that in case the General Committee should elect another Chairman they will retire and adhere to their Chairman. The whole matter comes before the Sachems of Tammany, of which Tweed is the Grand Sachem, and whose decision will doubtless be in his favor. Other reports state that earnest efforts are being made to heal the breach.

NEW YORK, March 27.—It is stated upon trustworthy information that a communication has been received by the President to the effect that the Virginia Legislature is preparing to abrogate its ratification of the fifteenth amendment by a coup de main, and that members intend to rush its repeal through both houses on the same day without notice and without debate. The President, it is declared, intends to issue a proclamation announcing the adoption of the fifteenth amendment as soon as Texas is admitted, and that he won't wait for the admission of Georgia.

NEW YORK, March 27.—A Panama correspondent says the Republic of Colombia will ratify the Darien Canal treaty. A letter from the Darien expedition, March 14, says the officers and crew are all well except commander Selfridge, who is suffering from a lame leg, which prevents his accompanying the party across the Isthmus. A road has been cut three miles into the interior, meeting a river which is said to flow into the Pacific. The Indians were frightened at first, but proved friendly. They assisted the explorers in every way possible. All are sanguine of discovering an easy route for the construction of the canal. Another Darien letter says the surveyors have secured five maps of the topography of the country back to the base of the mountains. In some instances, four hundred feet up the mountains great quantities of valuable timber—logwood, india-rubber and sugar cane, the finest ever seen—are found. No wild animals are met with and but few large snakes.

CHICAGO, March 28.—The Tribune's Washington special says Gen. Butler's raid on newspaper men is likely to prove interesting not only to correspondents but on the floor of the House. He has begun to look after Farnsworth and the Post Office Committee, in its Boston and New York investigation, by sending for the bill of expenses and vouchers. He is also looking up owners of Cuban bonds among members of Congress. Yesterday he sent the Sergeant-at-Arms to oblige the Secretary of the Washington Safe Deposit Co., to bring up his books and submit them to his inspection at which private citizens having papers on deposit are greatly incensed. It is understood a move is about to be made on banks here to ascertain the deposits of newspaper men. The Western Union Telegraph Co. decided that Butler shall never enter their office again after the style of the impeachment days without first testing the matter in the courts.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The Committee on Reconstruction still have the Tennessee case before them. Secretary of State Fletcher presented reasons why the State should again be reconstructed. It is claimed by those anxious and persistent for such action that a Senator was elected by fraud; that the vote at the election was 9,300 more than nine months previous. The principal argument for reconstruction at present is that the State Government is unable or unwilling to protect its people from the Kuklux and marauders.

MEMPHIS, March 25.—A R. Curry, Republican candidate for Sheriff, is elected by 123 majority. The Republicans also elected the collector and clerk of the First Circuit Court.

NASHVILLE, March 26.—The election for the ratification of the new Constitution occurred to-day. Everything passed off quietly. A heavy vote was polled. Dispatches to the Banner indicate the ratification by a decisive majority. But little opposition was made out of East Tennessee, and the Conservatives claim for Tennessee the credit of being the first State to adopt universal suffrage, incorporating it into the organic law.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Prince Bonaparte, who shot Victor Noir, a short time since, in France, has been acquitted.

In Elizabeth, N. J., a would-be Count, claiming to be "Bismarck's cousin," has been arrested as a swindler.

A well-known young lawyer obtained a divorce for a pretty and wealthy client. He sent a bill of $1,000. The next day the lady called on him, and inquired if he was in earnest in proposing to her.

"Propose to you, Madam! I didn't propose to you," replied the astonished attorney. "Well, you asked for my fortune, and I thought you would have the grace to take me with it," was the calm reply. The lawyer wilted.

Rev. D. M. Hodge, of North Adams, Mass., is writing a hymn to the music of Beethoven's ninth symphony, which is to be sung in the Music Hall of Boston, by a chorus of one thousand two hundred children, in centenary celebration of the great composer's birth.

The workwomen of Paris receive a very small compensation for their labor. Thus, in 1860 there were 13,203 females who earned from 10 to 25 cents a day; 89,840 who earned from 30 to 80 cents a day, and only 809 who earned from 90 cents to $1 40 a day.

The Mormon missionaries on Long Island have "converted" five long and pretty girls, and will send them to Utah next month.

The True Medical Doctrine.

Nature, when struggling with disease, indicates unmistakably the kind of assistance she requires. In cases of nervous weakness and general debility, the feeble pulse, the lachrymose eye, the attenuated frame, the flaccid muscles, the melancholy visage, inform us as plainly as if each organ had a tongue, that a medicinal stimulant is needed. It does not require the aid of a medical education to understand this dumb appeal for new vigor, from an exhausted system. Every reader of these lines can comprehend it just as well as the graduate of a physician's college. Let not this demand of unfeeling nature be neglected. Respond to promptly by commencing a course of HOPKIN'S STOMACH BITTERS, a preparation uniting, in their highest excellence, the properties of a "stimulant," an "invigorant," and an "alterative." Before three days have elapsed, from the taking of the first dose, a marked beneficial change will be manifested in the bodily and mental condition of the patient. The pulse will be stronger and more regular, the eye will begin to lose its dull expression, the muscular and nervous systems to recover their tension, and the spirits to improve. Persistence, and a complete re-verification of the depressed animal and mental powers is certain. In cases of dyspepsia and biliousness, the same salutary results will be obtained. The appetite will revive, the sallowness of the skin disappear; and all the distressing symptoms which accompany disorders of the stomach and liver, will rapidly subside. The cold of winter often intensifies these complaints by checking the perspiratory action, by which so much morbid matter is evaporated through the pores in mild weather, and therefore the BITTERS are especially useful to the dyspeptic and bilious at this season. 3-4w

JOSEPHINE P. BOYLE, GUARDIAN of the minor heirs of J. W. Boyle, deceased, having filed her petition in the County Court of Polk county, State of Oregon, for the sale of the following real estate belonging to said wards, to-wit: Beginning at the N. W. corner of the Donation land claim of J. W. Boyle, in T. 7 S., R. 5 W., running thence S. 18 1/2 chains, thence E. 33.38 chains, to W. line of the land sold by J. P. Done at Chambers, March 11th, 1870. J. L. COLLINS, Co. Judge. 2-4w
