Regular prayer meeting each Wednesday evening. Sunday School every Sabbath at 9 o'clock a. m.

DALLAS, SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1870.

PORTLAND legal tender rates, strong at 89@90c.

CANCELED.—The County warrants canceled at the last term of the County Court, amounting to $4,170 58.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Mr. Clark, Mail contractor from here to Salem, for a list of the Republican State nominations.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. N. & J. D. Lee have received an invoice of spring goods that offers inducements to purchasers to patronize that firm. For further particulars see their new ad.

REAL ESTATE.—Russell & Ferry's Real Estate Gazette has been received. This is a monthly publication, exclusively devoted to their business. Subscription price one dollar per year.

DEED.—We learn from the Salem paper that Simeon Page, of Independence, died very suddenly, this week, of some brain disease. Page formerly lived on Applegate, in Josephine Co.

OUR TICKET.—We received a list of the Republican State nominations so late yesterday evening that we have not space to make any comments save to say that it is a good ticket, and one that will lead us to victory on the 6th day of June next.

WOLF KILLED.—Dr. Sites, while hunting this week, to the northward of Dallas a few miles, killed a large wolf. These fellows are not met with often in this part of the country, but it is with a good riddance to put them out of the way on sight.

BRIDGES BULWARK.—The County agreed to furnish all the lumber at mill, except mud-hills, for the bridges, one across Salt Creek, near F. Lannery's, another across the Pee Dee, near Wm. Gage's, and a third one across Oak Point Slough, near E. C. Dice's.

WAGONS.—Mr. Teal has the largest stock of wagons, express wagons and buggies in the county. His work is well known all over the county, and purchasers have only to inquire of his next door neighbor to get a certificate of the excellence of Mr. T.'s work.

ROAD PETITION.—D. D. Prattman and others had the prayer of their petition granted for a road, running northward across the hills from Bolla to the Salem and Dayton road. The viewers appointed were Wm. Walker, Wm. Rable and S. D. Gibson; Surveyor, S. T. Burch.

NEW PAPERS.—We have received the first number of Roseburg Plaindealer. It makes a very creditable appearance, being printed on new material entirely. The Prospectus of the Red Rock Democrat is also received. This new candidate for public favor is to be published at Baker City, by M. H. Abbott and L. L. McArthur.

FRUIT.—The prospects for an abundant yield of fruit this summer are very flattering indeed. The backward spring has retarded the blooming of fruit trees so late a date that we will probably have no frosts that will injure the young fruit forms. Peach, plum and cherry trees will be out in full bloom in a few days.

CHOP MILL.—Mr. Wm. Beagle, as we are informed by Mr. Prattman, has built a mill for chopping grain of all kinds. Besides doing custom work, it is the intention of the proprietor to feed a large number of hogs on private account. We wish the new enterprise may prove successful.

JURY LIST.—The persons drawn to serve as jurors at the next term of the Circuit Court are:

- Wm H Hall, J C Bell, Henry Garrison, M M Dodson, Henry Garrison, Chas McDonald, Wm Comegys, Geo Brown, J K Conley, W T Baxter, Stephen Tillotson, Henry Ellis, Rob Percival, Wm Perry, Abraham Bolesjok, S H Walker, J W Saver, Saml Stone, Rowben Glasz, D D Prattman, T McIntire, Henry Flickenger, L B Frazer, Jas Richards, Jno Burden, E C Hall, Saml Booket, J Hollinshead, Nathan Conner, Edward Murwin, J D Hornbuckle.

BILLS PAID.—The County Court, this week, audited and ordered warrants drawn for the following bills:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes John Myers ($66 00), I. M. Butler (7 00), W. M. Fraker (2 00), J. W. Smith (52 00), J. I. Thompson (47 10), Total ($174 10).

TEMPERANCE.—G. W. C. T. Beal is canvassing this county in the interest of the temperance cause and organizing Good Templar lodges. He will organize a lodge to-day at Highland church. On Friday, the 23d, he will organize a lodge at Monmouth with about 60 charter members and another, on the 23d, at Independence with 20 charter members. Good Templars are invited to be present and assist in the organization.

STATE ITEMS.

The Ensign denies that there is any whooping cough in Roseburg.

The Plaindealer says that the navigation of the Umpqua river has induced the farmers to sow large wheat fields this spring.

The Willamette Freighting Co., says the Gazette, is putting the cabin on their new boat now being built at Corvallis.

The P. T. Co. has taken the great bulk of freight down the river already and have laid up some of their boats, as there is no business for them.

A team hitched to a harrow, ran away with a son of John Wrenn, living in Linn county, and injured the lad severely.

The Gazette is no longer the official organ of the Independent Order of Good Templars, the Grand W. C. Templar having made proclamation to that effect.

The Jacksonville News has an account of the discovery of a rich quartz load on the mountain between the right and left hand forks of Jackson Creek. The lead is about two miles west of the town of Jacksonville. It has long since been the opinion of miners, that a rich quartz lead existed in that mountain and much prospecting has been done, but to no effect until Mr. Bowden took up the pick and shovel, and now has his reward for over twelve months searching.

The Guard says business in Eugene is improving.

Prof. S. B. Morse, the celebrated telegraphic operator, has presented the Pacific University at Forest Grove, a set of telegraphic instruments.

The Salem Farmer suggests to the Salem Musical Union the propriety of giving a grand musical concert at the Wigwam during the next State Fair, and call to their assistance the entire musical talent of the State, both vocal and instrumental.

From the Albany Register: "One of our saloonists, also a member of the City Council, was indicted by the Grand Jury, and arrested by the Sheriff on Wednesday, for selling liquor to a boy."

The Blade of March 29 has the following account of an accidental shooting at McMinnville: "Nearly a fatal accident occurred in this place on last Saturday morning. A son of Mr. W. Morton, aged about 15 years, took down a rifle and started out of the house to shoot a duck. As he passed out of the house, the lock of the gun caught against the door frame and discharged the piece into the house. The ball grazed the side of Mr. Morton about the waist, inflicting a slight wound and passed through the arm of a younger son aged about 13, just below the elbow, breaking both bones. Dr. Johnson was immediately called in, and we learn from him that the wounded boy is in a fair way to recover without the loss of his arm."

Ed. Turk, tried last week at Albany for the killing of Sims, was acquitted by the jury.

The Linn county bigamist, has been convicted, in Linn county Circuit Court.

The Statesman, of Salem, says Mr. J. W. Gamble got his arm caught between a belt and pulley, in the Capital Lumbering Co's mill, on Saturday. The arm was broken in two places.

REAL ESTATE DEALER. The True Medical Doctrine.

Nature, when struggling with disease, indicates unmistakably the kind of assistance she requires. In cases of nervous weakness and general debility, the feeble pulse, the languid eye, the attenuated frame, the flaccid muscles, the melancholy visage, inform us as plainly as if each organ had a tongue, that a medicinal stimulant is needed. It does not require the aid of a medical education to understand this dumb appeal for new vigor, from an exhausted system. Every reader of these lines can comprehend it just as well as the graduate of a physicians' college. Let not this demand of enfeebled nature be neglected. Respond promptly by commencing a course of HOSCHETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a preparation uniting, in their highest excellence, the properties of a "stimulant," an "invigorant," and an "alterative." Before three days have elapsed, from the taking of the first dose, a marked beneficial change will be manifest in the bodily and mental condition of the patient. The pulse will be stronger and more regular, the eye will begin to lose its dull expression, the muscular and nervous systems to recover their tension, and the spirits to improve. Persevere, and a complete reinvigoration of the depressed animal and mental powers is certain. In cases of dyspepsia and biliousness, the same salutary results will be obtained. The appetite will revive, the sallowness of the skin disappear, and all the distressing symptoms which accompany disorders of the stomach and liver, will rapidly subside. The cold of winter often intensifies these complaints by checking the perspiratory action, by which so much morbid matter is evaporated through the pores in milder weather, and therefore the BITTERS are especially useful to the dyspeptic and bilious at this season. 3-4w
