DO YOU?

Some people have only to lie on their backs
And open their mouths as wide as they may,
And Apricots, nectarines, peaches, by sacks,
Fall into them quite in the regular way.
For peaches and apricots—plums, perhaps!
It may be the usual thing to do;
But why should they fall into lazy folks laps?
I don't see why. Do you?

Yet men may have labored the whole of their [lives
(Alas 'tis certain too many must?)
To earn for their starving children and wives
A daily meal though it be but a crust!
And that crust is almost as rare as a peach
To some poor strugglers—and not a few!
Why shouldn't there be a share for each?
I don't see why. Do you?

For kennel'd in gutters and reared in jail,
And left by us all in the slime,
With hunger's promptings—if others fail—
To drive them to sin and crime.
If the children of ignorance, poverty vice,
The one course we leave them pursue,
They are punished by pitiless statutes precise,
I don't see why. Do you?

'Tis a very mad world, you must understand,
Where the lucky have all of the luck;
Those who don't want aid get a helping hand,
And those are down are struck;
Where to toothless gums we give nuts galore,
To good grinders no nuts accrue;
Folks with naught get nothing—with plenty [get more.
I don't see why. Do you?

Answer to No. 3—THE HOMESTEAD ACT.

Why They Went to War.

A certain king, it is said, sent to another king, saying, "Send me a blue pig with a black tail, or else—"The other, in high dudgeon at the presumed insult, replied, "I have not got one; and if I had—" On this weighty cause they went to war for many years. After a satiety of glories and miseries, they finally bethought them that, as their armies and resources were exhausted, and their kingdoms actually laid waste, it might be well to consult about the preliminaries of peace; but before this could be concluded, a diplomatic explanation was first needed of the insulting language which formed the ground of the quarrel. "What could you mean," asked the second king of the first, "by saying, send me a blue pig with a black tail, or else—?" "Why," said the other, "I meant a blue pig with a black tail, or else some other color. "But," retorted he "what could you mean by saying, "I have not got one; and if I had—?" "Why, of course, if I had I should have sent it." An explanation which was entirely satisfactory, and peace was concluded accordingly.

The unhappy war now going on between France and Germany, which has caused the death of so many people, and so much horror and anguish, might have been settled by a few kind words. The story of the two kings related above is not only a lesson to other rulers, but also to all. Most of the quarrels between individuals are quite as foolish as the blue pig with a black tail.

A Girl Reclaimed from the Roanokes after a Captivity of Eight Years.

Bol. Wheeler, United States Marshal of Montana, showed us a letter on Wednesday evening, which he had received from Robert Hereford, late Assessor at Helena, and now interpreter for the Bannocks at the Crow Agency, on the Yellowstone, giving an account of the recovery of a white girl from the Bannock Indians, after a captivity of eight years. The letter is dated Jan. 5th. It appears that two men Tilford Kutch and Thomas Colter, had arrived at the Yellowstone, under the authority of Col. Wham, commandant of some one of the eastern forts to search for the girl who was captured by the Bannocks on the Raft river in 1862. Hereford accompanied them to the Bannock camp, where the girl was found. Her name is McIntyre. She is fourteen years old, small of her age, has light hair, and is tanned by the sun and storm until she looks like a quarter breed, which the Indians claim she is. She expressed a desire to go with the white men to her home, and was taken to the interpreter's house. Ten Day, Tayee, Bannock chiefs, were surprised at the demand of their captive, but, on representation of facts, yielded her up, and in a few days she will be sent home.

This is all the writer states—perhaps all he knew of the circumstances. But in this web of official statements, what a woof of romance, of horror and anguish may be woven. We hope the facts may be published, and that a mother's heart may be gladdened by the return of her long lost child.—New Northwest.

"What is the annual corn crop of Ken.?" asked a forigner tourist of a Kentuckian, "I but I know it's enough to make all the whiskey we want, besides what is wasted for bread."

A Dangerous Character—A man who takes life cheerfully.

A sure way to make an impression—Fall down in the mud.

A good peculiarity of shomakers is, that they hold on to the last.

Can a man be said to speak "feelingly" when his oration "touches the audience?"

Women have actually no rights. A Troy judge has decided that a woman cannot steal from her husband.

If Wis. girls remain unmarried at the age of 15, they are encouraged by their families to commit suicide.

"Say, Smith, where have you been for a week back? "I haven't been anywhere for it. I haven't got a weak back."

Young swell—"I say, boy, what do you do with your clothes when you have worn them out?" Boy—"Wears 'em'ome again."

"If you cannot inspire a woman with love of you, fill her above the brim with love of herself; and all that runs over will be yours.

Zenia, Ohio, girls have a pleasing habit of kissing strangers in the street, and then wildly screaming, "Oh, my! I thought it was cousin Charlie!"

"Father, do ships make nails?" "No, my son, why do you ask?" "Because I heard our captain say the ship made two tacks within the last half hour."

The mother of a large family was one day asked the number of her children. "La, me," she replied rocking to [illegible] girls."

A good deal of the consolation offered in the world is about as solacing as the assurance of a man to his wife when she fell into the river: You'll find ground at the bottom, my dear.

Hearing a physician remark that a small blow would break the nose, a rustic exclaimed, "Well, I dunno'about that. I've blowed my nose a number of times, and never broke it yet."

MORE RECONSTUCTION.—A Washington correspondent, of Jan. 30th says:

The bill of Senator Morton, reopening the subject of disorders in the South has resulted in a committee, which will spend considerable time, and involving a report probably to be the basis of authorizing Executive interference.

PUBLIC DEBT.—The debt statement for Feb. 1, says the total debt, principle and interest, is $2,451,931,006; cash in the Treasury, $113,894,289; debt less cash in the Treasury, $2,328,-026,807—a reduction during Jan. of $4,040,986 75; coin balance, $99,066,-500; currency, $24,827,788 84.

Houskeepers who are bothered by the domestic "help" question, may derive some consolation from the fact that it bittered the life of the great Beethoven. His diary for 1820 shows that he had a new kitchen maid, on an average, of once a month.

A class in Sunday School was told by the teacher to learn something new to tell him before the next Sunday. One little boy said the next Sunday, upon inquiry of the teacher, whether he had learned anything. "Yes, sir-ee." "Well, what is it? "I've learned to never trump my partner's ace."

"Pa, has the world got a tail?" asked an urchin of his father.

"No, child," replied the father; "how could it have a tail when it is round?

"Well, why do the papers say, "so 's the world,' if it has't got a tail to ?"

A Railroad Man Ahead of Railroads.

It is generally understood throughout Polk County that I am selling goods from 25 to 50 per cent. cheaper than any other Store this side of Portland. Now I do not offer this as an advertisement, but simply as an explanation. When we have a Rairroad from Portland South on the West Side of the River, it will open up a new era for the citizens of the counties through which it will pass. Every man can take his wife, leave the children with their uncle, go to Portland and gather up a full list of supplies, at a very trifling expense, and at a figure far below country prices, providing there were not merchants through the country up with the times. But there will be plenty of live men in the arena. All the old fogies will have to give way, buy themselves a little farm, and retire to quiet life. This is not sarcastic, but downright truth, as history of the past proves. And I expect those that are now little children will relate to their children in time hereafter how that, in the olden time, over there, on the hill just across Salt Creek, at Ed. Cluff's old Store House, M. M. Ellis inaugurated the now practice of selling goods at Portland prices, and paid the freights himself. Come and see me. You shall be entertained in a first class manner, with first class goods.

ADDRESS
—TO THE—
Nervous and Debilitated
WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN
Protracted from Hidden Causes,
AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE
PROMPT TREATMENT
to render Existence Desirable.

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia, or liver complaint?

NOW, READER,
self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health,

MAKE THE MAN.

Did You Eever Think
that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering successful business men, are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health?
You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only

RUIN THEIR CONSTITUTIONS, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about this state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—

IDIOCY,
LUNACY,
PARALYSIS,
spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.
Disease of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

Helmbold's
Fluid Extract
BUCHU
is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for disease of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.
If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

I did not wish to inform you, reader, that Dr Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures Comsumpion, when the lungs are half consumed, in short, will cure all diseases whether of mind, body or estate, make men live forever, leave death to play for want of work, and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful Paradise, to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show. Dr. Julien Perrault,
Dr. of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and Physician of the St. John Baptiste Society of San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT HAS THE PLEASure to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall Building, North East corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, Rooms Nos. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.
DR. PERRAULT's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the result of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists, involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that a premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruits tasted long afterward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urethra on going to stool or make water, Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened, and sleep disturbed by dreams; melancholy, sighing, palpitation, faintings, coughs and slow fevers; while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediatly to DR. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six or eight weeks, Patients suffering from venerial disease in any stage, Gonorrhea. Gleet, Strictures, Bubo, Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.
DR. PERRAULT's diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.
Patients suffering under chronic diseases can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor and that advertised physician till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.
Low charges and quick cures.
Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.
All communications confidential. 14-1y
