

Love's young dream—1871-

"Thank you—much obliged, old boy! You, it's my report says true, I'm engaged to Nell Latine—"

CORRESPONDENCE.

The following "Valentine" shows plainly that the author is evidently what he purports to be, "not of sound mind."

February 14th, 1871. from the shades of shamplane, for he that cries with pance near can be happy again.

Non Compus Menntus. A Connecticut farmer, on his being found that his load of hay contained several large boulders, remembered that he "druv pretty close to a stun-wall, on his way to market."

Facts and Fancies.

A young poet, in describing Heaven, says: "It is a world of bliss fenced in with pretty girls." Where's the man who won't repent?

"Woman is a delusion, madam?" exclaimed a crusty old bachelor to a witty young lady. "And man is always hugging some delusion or other," was the quick reply.

A very good way to prevent your hair falling out is to allow your wife to catch you kissing the servant girl.

"What have you to remark, madame, about my singing?" said a gentleman to a lady. "Nothing, sir," replied the lady; "it isn't remarkable."

In Toronto recently a man had his wife's coffin carried through the back window for fear of scatching the paint off the front door.

A Wisconsin man, who was bitten by a small dog three weeks ago became apprehensive of death by hydrophobia, and, to prevent that catastrophe, committed suicide.

Somebody says "devil" is a mean word any way it may be written. Remove d and it is evil, transpose the e and it is vile, remove the v and it is ill remove the i and l remains, which has the aspirate sound of hell.

The Fincaisle, (Va.) Herald announces the death of Master C. H. Balton, 16 years old, in that place, from eating "painted French candy," the poison from which had gradually gone through his system causing the most intense suffering.

An inquisitive young lady of Wisconsin thought it would be nice to see a storm through a light house, and went to the tower of Racine for that purpose. She was gratified with a tempest that kept her a close prisoner for five days.

The proposition to erect a monument in New York in honor of the late George Peabody, has been abandoned, and the money subscribed thereof turned over for charitable purposes. The amount subscribed was only $258.

The trial of Minnie Davis a young and rather good looking woman, indicted for arson, in having set fire to her trunk for the purpose of obtaining $2,000 insurance money was concluded in New York on Friday with a verdict of guilty. She was sentenced to the State prison for 10 years.

Sleep being a condition common to intervals to all animated nature, it will be interesting to everybody to hear that a writer in an English scientific periodical maintain that sleep is produced by "a molecular change in the nervous structure itself on the cerebro spinal system."

A Canadian has invented a bed-bug trap a sort of India rubber bag, which is filled with chemical composition of delicious taste the cimez, but at the same time poisonous. He expects to make a fortune by selling the right to hotel keepers.

Mrs. Emberling, of Prairie County, Ill., requires no special legislation in her behalf. A few evenings since she followed her husband to a village saloon, armed with an ax. Finding him engaged; with several others, in playing cards, she smashed the table with an axe, scattered the cards, piled up the astonished players, and carried off her legal "protector."

A Boston lady, "who has been there," says that, in view of the awkwardness with which men aid a lady in rising from the sidewalk, she would much rather remain in that position than have such assistance. The gallants must not be gingerly, but take hold with both arms, lift neatly and firmly, and not disengage themselves so soon.

The size of Boss Tweed's diamond is nine and three-fourths carats, and the gem cost him $15,500. Its original weight, when found in India, in the year 1602, was 22 1/2 carats, but a flaw was cut out in 1849, while it was the property of an English baronet. Tweed's agent in France bought it from an impoverished French lady. The Jewellers' Circular claims that, "without doubt, it is the most perfect diamond in America."

A gentleman of Halifax, being at a ladies' fair not long since, and being solicited to buy something by a fair girl who kept one of the tables, said he wanted to buy what he feared was not for sale—a lock of her hair. To his surprise and delight, she promptly cut off the coveted curl, and received the price offered—$10. The happy purchaser was exhibiting the trophy to one of his friends, who very suddenly blessed his joy by saying: "She rather outflanked you, for to my certain knowledge she only paid $3 for the whole wig."
