A Splendid Chance.

We will send the DALLAS REPUBLICAN and DEMOREST'S MONTHLY, which is itself $3 for one year, to any person who pays us $4

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY stands unrivalled as a Family Magazine. Its choice Literature, its superior Music, its large amount of valuable information on miscellaneous subjects, its practical and reliable information in regard to the fashions, and artistic illustrations, give it a just claim to its well-earned title, "The Model Magazine of America."

Those indebted to us for subscription or advertising in first volume of the REPUBLICAN are requested to call and settle, as we wish to square all accounts.

Weather pleasant. Business lively.

The Sarah, of the night—Serenade.

The hunting club were out in full force Tuesday, and brought in a deer.

A perfect "gem" of a Hat, may be found at the Brick store, call and see them. Also a fine lot of dress goods.

Taxes. All voters of Dallas school District No. 2, will bear in mind that next Saturday the 22nd there is to be a meeting of the voters of said district, to vote for or against, a tax for the support of a free school the coming year.

On Wednesday Mr. L. S. Splawn brought into town a large black bear, which he had killed in the mountains near the Luckiamute. We did not hear its weight, but heard an old hunter remark that "it was the biggest bar he'd seed in many a day."

Boquet. On our table is one of wild flowers presented by a young friend. May her life be as pure as these emblems from nature, but unlike them, may she not be cut down in her youth, nor her cheek be caused to "Blanche" by the rude hand of adversity.

Bricks. From a brick, to a brick, with a brick of a compliment, encircled in a wreath of (Cigar) smoke. Good for Al.

For Bachelors lone, without friends or home,
The best of all joys by far,
Is to sit by the grate, whether early or late,
And enjoy a good cigar.

Rembrandts. We were last week shown a fine specimen of this late style of pictures, by Mr. W. H. Catterlin, well known in this vicinity as a photographic artist. He is now located at Independence, where he will be pleased to accommodate those desiring impressions taken in the latest styles.

Among arrivals in town during the week, are Drs. Jessup and Harris; and Capt. Chas. Lafollett. The Capt. gave us a call on Monday. He reports everything lively on the Reservation. Last week there were at one time forty teams plowing. The Capt. seems to be well satisfied with his retention as agent, and we feel confident that he will attend to the duties devolving upon him, to the best interest of all concerned.

At a meeting on the 10 inst. held at the Court House Dallas to organize a Base Ball Club, it was agreed that an anouncement be made to the effect that all desiring to enroll their names as members, would please call on the Secretary, Albert O. Yates. After a sufficient number have been enrolled a meeting will be called to elect Captains and provide the necessary bats and balls. Mr. David Holmes was elected President.

Settled. The question which has agitated the minds of many of our citizens, as to whether the Grand Round Reservation was to be thrown open for settlement or not, may be considered as settled. There has been an appropriation of $4,000 made for a survey, preparatory to dividing the land among the Indians. Patents are to be given to the Indians for the land, and it is to be free from all seizures for debts or other liabilities. Those Indians who do not choose to accept patents for lands and occupy them, are to be removed to a large reservation in south-eastern Oregon. Those persons who have been waiting for this tract of land to be thrown open for settlement may now look elsewhere.

Versailles, April 9.—Favre has gone to the Prussian headquarters.

A breach has been made in the Paris fortifications. Saturday night's sortie against the Chatillon was repulsed.

New York, April 10.—A Versailles special to a morning paper says that Gen. Richol died from his wounds.

Rochefort endeavored to save the Cathedral of Notre Dame from pillage. Nearly all the valuables were plundered.

The Archbishop of Paris has been transferred from Conciergerie to Mosas prison.

Platt declares in to-day's Venguer that the suppression of newspapers was an act of the Committee of Public Safety, and not of the Executive Committee.

A special correspondent at Rouen telegraghed on Sunday that Favre on Saturday had an important conference with the Prussian commander and returned to Versailles to-day.

A Versailles special says the Government is resolved to enter Paris by storm at any costs rather than to bombard the city. Fort Valerien fires mainly to clear the ramparts and to prevent artillery from being used to repel attacks. Incessant fire is kept up from Forts Issy, Vanvres and Montrouge.

A deputation of Paris merchants to Thiers returned without result. Conciliation is believed impossible.

A special from Paris says Gen. Henrie has not escaped. He was sent to Belle Isle.

Paris, April 10.—Unless the Germans save us Paris will soon swim in blood. The Commune is growing hourly more desperate, and resorts to fierce excesses. Spain and four Pacific republics will be fully represented. Bolivia, which has not thus far sent any representative, has empowered Col. Frayere, Peruvian Minister, to act in its behalf. There is very little doubt, if any, that the armistice will be rejected at once and followed by conclusion of a final peace.

London, April 11.—In a speech of Favre in the Assembly, he said all Powers expressed their sympathy with Versailles as the only legitimate Government. He declined the overtures of the Commune, which shortly shall succumb.

Prenological Journal. Among the prominent men sketched in the April No. are Henry Burden and Elias P. Needham, noted inventors; Edward C. Delavan, the great temperance reformer; and "Stonewall" Jackson. Among its interesting articles are: "The Boy Suicides," "Italians in New York, who and what they are;" "The Jews, their Peculiarities, &c."

Farmer—"What do you think is the matter wi'ar Mr. Quackington?"

Young Farrier (fresh from the Horse College)—"Well—ahem—a—I think that probably the cartilaginous processes have subtended the ossification of bone, and thereby forced the coronal arch to the magnetic; consequently, as things which are equal to the same thing are equal to the hypothenuse, it follows that the lateral thrust becomes so powerful as to damnify the ellipticity of the projection, producing such a concatenation of fluid portions of the periosteum and lesion of the coagulated pigments of the cognate therapeutics, as elevate the chalybeate constituents of the anterior extremity of the tibia, which must, of course, guide the treatment to be pursusd."

Farmer—"Lor!"

A young man in Oswego, who started to attend a masquerade on Thursday attired and accoutred as he supposed Satan usually is, unhappily entered the wrong house, to the consternation of the inmates.
