

True Heroism.

Let others write of battles fought On bloody, ghastly fields, Where honor greets the man who wins, And death the man who yields; But I will write of him who fights And vanishes his sins, Who struggles on through weary years Against himself, and wins. He is a hero stanch and brave Who fights an unseen foe, And puts at last beneath his feet His passions base and low, And stands erect in manhood's might, Undaunted, and in eye— The bravest man that drew a sword In fray or in raid. It tells for something more than brawn Or muscle to overcome An enemy who marcheth not With banner, plume and drum— A foe, forever lurking nigh, With silent stealthy tread, Forever near your board by day, At night beside your bed, All honor, then, to that brave heart, Though poor or rich he be, Who struggles with his baser part— Who conquers and is free! He may not wear a hero's crown, Nor fill a hero's grave; But truth will place his name among The bravest of the brave.

After Death.

BY CHRISTINA ROSSETTI. The curtains were half drawn, the floor was swept, And strewn with roses; rosemary and may, Lay thick upon the bed of which I lay, Where through the lattice-ivy shadows crept He leaned above me, thinking that I slept. And could not hear him; but I heard him say: "Poor child, poor child!" as he turned away Came a deep sobs, and I knew he wept. He did not touch the shroud, or raise the fold That hid my face, or take my hand in his, Or ruffle the smooch pillows for my head; He did not love me living, but once dead He pitied me, and very sweet it is To know he still is warm, though I am cold.

ENIGMA No. 11.—I am composed of 26 letters.

"The Pacific Mails"—quiet husbands Drawing room—Apartment of a dentist.

How to make time go fast—Use the spur of the moment. Never attempt to form an opinion of a woman by her sighs.

An early spring—Jumping out of bed at five o'clock in the morning. How would you speak of a man who was an excessive bore? Would you not call him a hyperborean?

Innocence is like an umbrella—when once we have lost it, we may never hope to see it back again.

Consistency—Asking a blessing before a meal, and abusing the victuals through the entire meal.

A lady of Mattoon, Ill., was recently married to her eighth husband. Nos. 5, 6 and 7 are reported alive and well, but—divorced.

A down-East editor plainly says that he has original poetry enough to shingle a meeting-house, but, as he had no meeting house the original poetry is useless.

A mineral which performs all the duties of soap, and has no aromatic odor, has been discovered in exhaustless quantities near Iowa City.

The Wyoming papers say that the people of that Territory are about to "abandon woman suffrage as both mischievous and impracticable."

A very handsome park equipage can be hired in London for about $1 an hour, including a "tiger" in uniform most gorgeous. A certain kind of style is cheap in that wonderful city.

"Long engagements," writes a young lady in New York, "are going out of fashion, young men being convinced of the stupidity of matrimonial proposals until they are in a position to fulfill their promises at once."

A wife wanted her husband to sympathize with her in a feminine quarrel, but he refused, saying, "I've lived long enough to learn that one woman is just as good as another—if not better." "And I," retorted the exasperated wife, "have lived long enough to learn that one man is just as bad as another—if not worse."

A law suit for the settlement of the estate of a deceased citizen of Troy, which has been in the courts for two years, was ended on Saturday by the discovery of his will in a false bottom beneath a bureau, which had been sent to a cabinetmaker for repairs.

Doctor F. was the President of a Southern college. He professed to be very grammatical in the use of his language, and therefore expected his pupils to be likewise. Playing cards was strictly forbidden on the school premises, but as it is always the case, this law is often violated by the students without being detected. A number of freshmen collected together in one of their number's room and were enjoying a good game of euchre, when a knock was heard at the door. "Who's there?" one exclaimed. "Me!" was the laconic reply. "Who's me?" Professor F. wouldn't say me! He'd say, "It is I sir." The Prof. turned his back and went off knowing that they had him there.

The trustees of a certain church in Western Pennsylvania having fallen in arrears with the Minister's salary for six months, determined to pay him up in trade. They waited on him, and after the family had gathered around, the president said: "Mr. Brown, we have a very pleasant duty to perform, and one no doubt, you are very much interested in. We have come to remunerate you for your labor in our church for the past six months—in fact, we have brought your salary. Mr. Jones, just undo Mr. Brown's salary and hand it to him." Jones did as requested, and handed Mr. Brown the following: "10 feet of stove pipe, two papers of corn starch, one felt hat, three kegs of varnish, one paper collar, four palm leaf fans, and two bundles bed-slats. At the sight of these Brown became raving mad. The trustees were ejected through the window sash, and all the family immediately vanished.

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

Dr. Julien Ferrault, Dr. of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris. Graduate of the University of Queen's College and Physician of the St. John Baptist Society of San Francisco.

Dr. FERRAULT HAS THE PLEASURE to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice that he can be consulted daily at his office, Armory Hall Building, North East corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, Rooms Nos. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

Dr. Ferrault's studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the result of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists, involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that a permanent decline of the vigor of a manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruits fasted long afterwards; patients, laboring under this complaint, will experience one or more of the following symptoms: Neuronal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urethra on going to stool or making water, Intellectual Faculties are weakened, Loss of Memory occurs, Ideas are unconnected, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dimness of Vision, Weakness of Sight and Hearing are weakened, and sleep disturbed by dreams; melancholy sighing, palpitation, faintings, coughs and slow fevers; while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to Dr. Ferrault, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee the cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six or eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal disease in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Syphilis, Chancres, Bubo, Ulcers, Catarrhs, Eruptions, etc., will be cured successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

Dr. Ferrault's diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases can call and examine for themselves. We advise investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfill our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that a doctor physician till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.

O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.
