My Heroine—A True Story.

I know a little maid—as sweet
As any seven year old child you'll meet
In mansion grand or village street.

ENIGMA No. 17.—I am composed of 17 letters.

My 1, 16, 7, 14, is to shake or quiver.
My 8, 5, 12, is an article in common use.

Stories about Parrots.

Thomas J. Bowditch writes in "the Troy Times": A gray parrot, with whom we had the pleasure of an acquaintance

Occasionally parrots acquire phraseology of a vulgar or devout nature, and appear somewhat irreverent to short-sighted critics.

The Rev. T. O. Morris relates: A parrot belonging to some friends of mine was generally taken out of the room

Said a gentleman to a dealer, who was asking a high price for a parrot. "This is a handsome bird, but he talks very little."

Motto for lawyers—be brief; for doctors—be patient; for potters—be

Facts and Fancies.

A bad policy—one that has run out.
Flower for the hayfield—The wire-rope.
Floating capital—rich people in bathing.

Best locks for your barn in winter—Bullocks.

When is an ox not an ox? When it is turned into a meadow.

A yawn in company generally indicates a gap in the conversation.

Lawyers' mouths are like turnpike gates—never open except for pay.

Your wife may baste a chicken, but you will have to sow the crop yourself.

It is somewhat curious fact that a composer takes most of his when hardest at work.

The Philadelphia "Press" deliberately advises its readers to "lay in their coal."—Disgusting.

Why are candidates who fail to get elected like the world? Because they are depressed at the polls.

The sentiment of cheese is astronomical, for when forced to give expression it gives the milky whey.

When you get in your stocks for the winter, remember you cannot wear the hoss you dug the potatoes with.

Don't let your cattle stray; they often wander to the most mysterious places; we once saw a cowhide in a shoemaker's shop.

Why is a son who objects to his mother's second marriage like an exhausted pedestrian? Because he can't go a step farther.

"It's 40 years, my old friend John, since we were boys together." "Is it?"
—well, don't speak so loud, there's that young widow in the next room."

A correspondent of the "Echo," at Versailles, says he saw 6 German officers take more than 152 glasses of beer at a sitting, which is but a trifle over 25 a head.

A Scotchman's definition of metaphysics:
"When the folks who listen dinna ken the meaning of what they hear, and when the man who speaks dinna ken what he means his ain sel"—that's metaphysics."

The remark of an exchange "that many of our successful lawyers commenced life as preachers," is gracefully corrected by one of the legal gentlemen referred to, who begs leave to state that he began life as an infant.

Thackeray tells of an Irish woman begging of him, when she saw him put his hand in his pocket, cried out, "may the blessings of God follow you all the days of your life"—but when he pulled out his snuff box, immediately added—
"and never overtake you!"

A good parody that that involved in the story of a young English nobleman with a large number of titles and a small amount of brains—Lord this and Viscount that, and so on ad infinitum.
"May fair friend," said the witty N—, "One of his titles you appear to have forgotten." "Oh!" was the universal exclamation, "what is that?" "His bar-on of intellect," was the rejoinder.

A little Short.—A tall handsome girl named Short, once loved a certain big Mr. Little. But little, little thinking of Short, loved a little girl named Long. Now Long longed to be even with Little's Short-ness, threatened to marry Little before long, which caused Little in a short time to marry Long. Query, did tall Short love big Little less, because big Little loved little Long?

A young lady observes of a young man that his face has a strange fascination for her, because it looks so well at a funeral. This recalls an original recommendation of a young physician who was supposed to be "keeping company" with a young lady. The matronly friend of the latter having raised the young man from all points of view, returned one day from the death-bed of a friend, at which the physician had been present. She eulogized the living fully as much as the dead man, and finally, turning to the girl as if she had reached the ne plus ultra of enthusiasm, she said: "Jane, he's the handiest man I ever seen fixin' round a corpse."

One stormy, blustering night in Jan.
a voracious couple presented themselves at the residence of a certain Norfolk clergyman, requesting to be married.
After the ceremony was performed, the happy groom, pocket-book in hand, asked:

"Wall, squire, what's to pay?"

The astonished and expectant reverend modestly replied that he never named his price for any such service, but accepted whatever any one was pleased to give him.

The money was returned to the capricious pocket with a grin and a bow:
"Wall, I'm obliged to ye, I declare; I will do as much for you some time."

"Yes," chimed in the blushing bride, with astonishing courtesy, "much obliged to ye, as far as I'm concerned.
If it hadn't stormed we should have gone to Dedham!"

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE.

Dr. Julien Ferrault, Dr. of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College and Physician of the St. John Baptiste Society of San Francisco.

Dr. FERRAULT HAS THE PLEASURE to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice that he can be consulted daily at his office, Amery Hall Building, North East corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, Rooms Nos. 9, 10, 11, first floor, up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets.

Dr. FERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the result of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists, involving the happiness of a lifetime that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that a premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the cure of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruits tasted long afterward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urethra on going to stool or make water, Intellectual faculties are weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that Sight and Hearing are weakened, and sleep disturbed by dreams; melancholy, sighing, palpitation, faintings, coughs and slow fevers; while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to Dr. FERRAULT, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six or eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal disease in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo, Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

Dr. FERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfill our promise. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor and that advertised physician will turn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.

Female Monthly Pills.

Dr. FERRAULT is the only agent in California for Dr. BUTTS' Female Monthly Pills. Their immense sale has established their reputation as a female remedy unapproached, and far in advance of every other remedy for oppressions and irregularities, and other obstructions in females. On the receipt of five dollars, these Pills will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to Dr. FERRAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.

All communications confidential. 14-ly

Dr. Wislar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

may be well called a "wonder of medical science." It cures coughs and colds without inflammation; it soothes the irritated parts; it heals the inflammation; and even consumption itself yields to its magic influence.
