CHICAGO.

BY R. CLARK.

Fire! Loud clanged the tolling bell,
And like the seas mad, rolling swell,
Or serpents tongues' contagious blast,
Or day of judgments trumpet's blast,
Devouring demon's heated breath,
The work commenced: destruction, death.

Fire! The miser to his coffers fled,
As round about a light is shed;
A lurid glare—He seized his gains;
He staggers forth—the fire it reigns—
"I suffocate," he faintly cried;
He fell, and on his treasure died.

Fire! And from his bed of ease,
The hellish glare the rich man sees;
He staggers madly; 'tis in vain;
His wealth about in ashes lain;
Years of toil is swept away
In this semi judgment day.

Fire! And 'mid the throng to roam,
The tender maiden from her home
Is driven. Oh, God! can this be just,
And man-formed demons teeming o'er with lust?
Will hell not break them on the wheel of shame,
And damn them deep, amid consuming flame?

Fire! And nations heard the call;
And with their aid dispelled the pall.
Blessed charity will aid thy rise;
Will unite again thy rudely sundered ties;
Cause hope to o'er thy blackened ruins smile;
Cause flowers to bloom from out thy funeral pile.

Sunday Reading.

Meekness is a virtue by which a man may know a Christian better than by his name.

The closest walk with God is the sweetest heaven that can be enjoyed on earth.

Do the best we can, we must not expect every one to be friendly to us; for some will hate us because others love us.

Benefit your friends that they may love you still more dearly; benefit your enemies that they may become your friends.

In order to rightly understand the voice of God in nature, we ought to enter her temple with the holy word in our hands.

There is only one stimulant that never fails, and yet never intoxicates—Duty. Duty puts a blue sky over every man—up in his heart may be—into which the skylark happiness always go singing. —G. D. Prentice.

The fireside is a school of infinite importance; it is important because it is universal, and because the education it bestows, being woven in with the woof of childhood, gives form and color to the whole texture of life.

He that can only be useful on great occasions may die without exerting his abilities, and stand a helpless spectator of a thousand vexations which fret away happiness, and which nothing is required to remove but a little dexterity of conduct and readiness of expedients.

The poor in pocket may be blessed, or may not be blessed, as the case may be; but the poor in spirit are always blessed, and we have Christ's authority for so saying. Theirs is a poverty which is better than wealth; in fact, it is a poverty which indicates the possession of the truest of all riches.—Spurgeon.

A gentle happiness is favorable to virtue and to morality, as excessive excitement and warning and discontent are favorable to murmurings, and to rebellion and to sin. And he who can please his neighbor in good things, is actually making his neighbor a better man by making him a happier man.—Beecher.

We cannot emphasize too strongly this grace which pinches selfishness. I care not how orthodox is a man's creed, or how eloquent may be his prayers in public, if he has never learned to say "no" to the demands of fashion, and pride, and luxury, he is but a sorry specimen of the Christ's man.—T. C. Cuyler.

A peaceful conscience and a contented mind are the principal elements of happiness. The cross of Christ, and the promise of God, are designed to produce these, and no Christian should rest short of them. Anxiety about life sometimes leads from the Lord of life; live near Jesus, and cast your anxieties upon him.

Men are like passengers in a ship. So long as the weather is prosperous, it seems all well enough to them. But life is a voyage never made without storms; and what our hope is worth, and what our faith is worth, cannot be determined by what we experience in sunshine or calm, in days of prosperity. —Beecher.

Justice is the great interest of man on earth. It is the ligament which holds civilized beings and civilized nations together. Where her temple stands, and so long as it is duly honored, there is a foundation for social security, general happiness, and the improvement and progress of our race.

Without intelligence men know not what government means, and so cannot be governed reasonably, and by such motives as our form of government requires. Without morality man has not a character safe for the family and neighborhood; regards not the rights of his species; therefore morality must be enjoyed by the State, and is essential, like inteligence to the support of good government. Without religion a man has no idea of the source and sacredness of the government; fearing not God, he is likely to disregard man.

Dr. J. P. P. van Den Bergh,

From Prussia, the Great

Worm Exterminator!

[Office Chemeketa Hotel, Salem, Oregon—Rooms 9 & 22.]

Late of San Francisco, Cal. would inform the sick generally, that about forty years' extensive practice of medicine and surgery in Europe and the United States of which twenty-one have been in California, has by close observation and great experiments, come to the conclusion that there are more acute and chronic diseases caused by worms, haydadids, animalculæ or other species of entrozoa. The public genarally, or the profession at large, are not aware of the number of patients who are treated by eminent physicians for this, that, or such a complaint without any relief. If the disease has been understood, a few doses of Dr. V's Sovereign Worm Remedy would have immediately cured the complaint, and have saved a great many lives. Dr. V. has collected a large variety of California roots and herbs, which, by analyzing, close observation and extensive experiments, he can conscientiously say that he has discovered new remedies for successful cure for the following diseases:

Dyspepsia, Chronic affections of the Liver and Kidneys, first and second stages of Consumption, White Swelling, Palsy, Spermatorrhœa or local weakness, Nervous Debility, Epileptic Fits, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Diarrhœa, Incontinence of Urine, Gravel, Flour Albus, Diabetes, Dropsy, and all those diseases which are known under the name of Venereal, such as Syphilis, in all its forms, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, False Passages, Inflammation of the Bladder and Prostrate Glands, Excoriations, Pustules, Piles, Pimples, Blotches, and all Cutaneous Eruptions of the skin. Cancers Tumors cured with or without operation. In recent Venereal Diseases, the Dr. effects a Cure in 3 to 6 days or no charge.

For the Eye, Ear and Throat, Dr. V. possesses new and invaluable remedies.

Dr. V. would advise those ladies troubled with irregularities of the Uterus to try his new remedies and get cured.

Dr. van Den Bergh's Infalliable Worm Syrup for children. Price, $1 Warranted to expel the worms, or the money refunded.

Dr. J. P. P. van Den Bergh's Hair Tonic—a sure cure to destroy all animalculæ of the Hair Follicles, prevent falling out, and promoting the Growth of the Hair. Price $1 50, Warranted.

By consulting and undergoing a simple examination, the afflicted can learn if their disease is caused by Worms or not; at all events Dr. van Den Bergh can tell them from what disease they are suffering.

Consultations and examinations FREE of charges in all cases. Dr. van Den Bergh guarantees, in all cases, to expel the worm, and Cure all diseases he undertakes, or no charge.

Card from Judge Frier, of Polk County.

DR. J. P. P. VAN DAN BERGH—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in thanking you publicly for the restoration of my health after nineteen years of great suffering mentally and bodily. I doctored a great deal; was afflicted with almost every imaginable pain and despaired of seeing a well day again. When I came to see you at Salem, you said you would remove the cause of nineteen years' suffering in five hours. I could hardly believe it, but after taking the five tasteless powders you gave me, about 900 worms passed from me, and now, fourteen days afterwards, I feel like another man, and am able to follow my business without pain or inconvenience. A. H. FRIER.

Bethel, Polk Co. Oct. 10th. 1871.

1,500 Worms Expelled.

After 7 years of suffering, pain and debility, and doctoring for many complaints, now proved that I did not have, and taking different kinds of medicine from many eminent physicians, I gave up in despair, thinking it was no use to drench my poor stomach any longer, and that I must waste and waste away until there was nothing left of poor me. But hearing of the astonishing cures of Dr. J. P. P. van Den Bergh has performed in so short a time, effecting cures in a few hours, and my friends advising me to make one more effort, I consulted Dr. van Den Bergh, and he told me my miseries were caused by worms and he would expel them in about five hours. After taking five small powders, 1,500 worms passed away from me, and I am happy to say I am better than I have been for a good while. P. R. EVES.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of September, 1871.

J. J. MURPHY, J. P.

REMARKABLE!

Eight Hundred Worms Expelled!

I think it a public benefit to make the following statement, that I have been afflicted for two years with constant pains in the stomach, and in fact, pains all over my body; no appetite, and let me eat what I would it always put me in distress. No medicine would relieve me and I grew worse and worse until now I am a mere skeleton. Nobody could tell me what was the matter with me, until I consulted Dr. J. P. P. Van Den Bergh, in Selem, Oregon, and he told me I was afflicted with worms, and they were the cause of all my misery and pains. I took the Doctor's medicine, and he expelled 800 worms from me. They are like Leaches, with long tails, and measure from one to one and one half inches in length. I only took six little powders, and they brought the worms in four hours time. All those afflicted wishing to see me can find me at Sam Renlet's stable, Salem Oregon.

V. CRAIG.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of Sept. 1871. J. J. MURPHY, J. P.

Said worms can be seen at Dr. J. P. P. Van Den Bergh's office, Chemeketa Hotel, Salem.

A CARD.

DR. J. P. P. VAN DEN BERGH—Dear Sir: I deem it my duty to make the following statement: For the last three years I have been suffering with constant gnawing pain and a quivering sensation in my stomach, also pain in my chest and heart, my food would not digest and I was so nervous that with difficulty I could follow my occupation, which has been here in Salem for the past ten years, as a practical dentist. In fact from the constant pain and misery I had wasted away to a mere skeleton. I had been doctoring a great deal without any benefit, and believing there was no help for me but to linger on until death would relieve all my suffering. Some of my friends thought I had worms and had better see Dr. Van Den Bergh. He told me at once that worms were the cause of all my troubles, so he gave me 5 small and tasteless powders and in 4 hours about 700 worms, from one inch to one and one half inches long, came away from me that day, and the following night some more came, and now I am happy to say I feel like another man again, and am gaining strength from day to day. H. SMITH, M. D.

Salem, Oregon, Sept. 23d, 1871.

Another Great Slaughter!

We think it our duty to make the follrwing statement in hopes it may do some good to sick children: Our child had been sick for some time. Thinking all the time our little one was troubled with worms we tried many doctors and a great many remedies without any relief, Some neighbors told us we should go and try Dr. Van Den Bergh, the worm doctor in Salem, We did so and he gave us one botttle of his celebrated Worm Syrup, and after giving the medicine, to our great astonishment about 800 worms passed away from our dear child, and now, thank heaven she is well again.

I. D. GRIZZLE.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.
