HOW FUNNY.

How funny. that the Democracy should cry out in fear of a military despotism in a country of 40,000,000 of people and a standing army of only 20,-000.

How funny, that they should raise a warning voice to the people, to guard against financial ruin, when the National Debt is being rapidly diminished, and the standard value of American bonds in Europe rising with unprecedented rapidity.

How funny, that grumbling and fault-finding should be indulged in to the extent that it is, without showing any way of bettering the condition of affairs.

How funny, that they should laud the operations of Andrew Jackson, and then blame Grant for following his example on a small scale, in the appointment of officers.

How funny, that they should claim that the Republican party is on the decline, and yet in case Grant gets the nomination of the Republican party. be willing to unite under the leadership of any disaffected Republican to defeat him.

How funny, that they should undertake to carry on a contest during the outrages as reported in the papers was trumped up, and all false. That it was done for pure political effect. Gradu ally, however, evidence is being brought out which proves that the charges are not all false. Reverdy Johnson comes out and gives in his evidence in the matter; it is firm and unmistakable. He says :

" I have listened with horror to some of the testimony which has been brought before you. The outrages proved have been shocking to humanity, They admit of no justification or excuse; they violate every obligation which law and nature imposes upon men. These men appear to have been alike insensible to the obligations of humanity and religion; but the day will come, however, if it has not already arrived, when they will deeply lament it. Even if justice should not overtake them, there is another tribunal from which there is no escape. It is the rown conscience, that tribunal which sits in the breast of every living man, that still small voice that thrills through the heart, and as it speaks gives happiness or torturethe voice of conscience--the voice of God. And if it has not already spoken to them in tones which have waked them up to the enormity of their conduct, I trust in the mercy of heaven that a voice will speak before they shall be called to the dread tribunal to ac count for their transactions in this world" The circumstances under which this statement was made were such as to preclude all charge that he was prejudiced against those gangs. He was acting as counsel for a party charged with committing outrages, and being conservative in sentiment, it is not to be conjectured that he would overpicture the facts in the case.

PUGET SOUND DAILY COURIER.

Though Olympia is the temporary terminus of the N. P. R. R., yet there seems to be not even a temporary termination to the number of papers published there. Now comes the Puget Sound Daily Courier and asserts its claims as a recipient of public patronage. Judging from the numbers we have received, it is well worthy, for its typographical appearance is excellent. and it is conducted with marked editorial ability.

A personal rencountre occurred in Portland between O'Meara of the Bulletin; and Pennoyer of the Herald. Neither party was injured.

A lot of registered letters which had been opened and rifled, were found under a pine tree a short distance from Canyonville, a few days since.

Sylvester Pennoyer was arraigned in the Police Court in Portland, Satur day morning, on a charge of assault and battery, and fined $10 and costs, Albauy's debt during 1871, was decreased by the sum of one thousand forty-three dollars and fifty-two cents. The remainder of the debt is six hundred and ninety-eight dollars and twenty-seven cents.

The Commissioners appointed by the President to inspect the twenty-mile section of the O. & C. R. R., passed over the route last week, Wednesday, and made a satisfactory report of the condition of the road.

A quantity of stolen goods, consisting of clothing, picks, grubbing-axes, spades, shovels, crowbars, hand-saws, nails, spikes, flour, bacon and numerous other articles, have been found in an old cabin, occupied by one Wilson, in the northern part of Portland. Wilson is under arrest.

A couple who "sloped " to Vancou ver from Portland to get married, were a moment too late. The telegraph operator stepped in with a telegram from the cruel parent of the lassie, which forbade the union just as they were on the floor, all sails set, and hands joined. --"There's many a slip," etc.
