DALLAS, SATURDAY, FEB. 3.

A WOMAN'S ANSWER.

Do you know you have asked for the costliest thing
Ever made by the hand above?
A woman's hand and a woman's life—
And a woman's wonderful love?

Do you know you have asked for the priceless thing,
As a child might ask for a toy?
Demanding what others have died to win,
With the reckless dash of a boy?

You have written my duty out—
Man-like have you questioned me,
Now stand at the bar of my woman's soul,
Until I question thee!

You may require your mutton shall always be hot,
Your socks and your shirts be whole:
I require your heart to be true as God's stars,
And pure has Heaven your soul.

You require a cook for your mutton and beef,
I require a far greater thing;
A seamstress you're wanting for socks and for shirts,
I look for a man and a king.

A king for the beautiful realm called home,
And a man that the maker, God,
Shall look upon as he did on the first,
And say, "it's very good."

I am fair and young, but the rose will fade
From my soft young cheek, one day—
Will you love me then 'mid the falling leaves,
As you did 'mong the bloom of May?

Is your heart an ocean so strong and deep
I may launch my all on its tide?
A loving woman finds heaven or hell,
On the day she is made a bride.

I require all things that are grand and true,
All things that a man should be;
If you give this all, I would stake my life
To be all you deemed of me.

If you cannot be this—a laundress and cook
You can hire, and a little to pay;
But a woman's heart and a woman's life
Are not to be won that way.

Sunday Reading.

A man may be ever so moral and not have a bit of religion.

Teach nothing but the truth of God, because nothing but that will save souls.

The Gospel is a box of most precious ointment: by preaching it the box is broken and the fragrance diffused.

It is not good works, or kind words that saves men, it is faith in Christ by a hearty repentance that saves them.

Grace never appears grace till sin appears to be sin. The deeper the sense of the evil of sin is, the deeper our apprehensions of the free grace of God in Christ will be.

Learning, like money, may be of so base a coin as to be utterly void of use; or, if sterling, may require good management to make it serve the purpose of sense or happiness.

There is too much of the cold silence of ingratitude amongst us. May not many of our barren seasons be ascribed to the fact that we did not thank God for fruitful ones?—Spurgeon.

One living, earnest Christian, who can offer the prayer of faith, be he ever so poor, is worth more to the cause of Christ than a thousand worldly minded and careful professors, be they ever so rich.

The moment a man gives way to inordinate desires, disquietude and torment take possession of his heart. The proud and the covetous are never at rest; but the poor and humble possess their souls in the plentitude of peace.

Many afflictions will not cloud and obstruct the peace of mind so much as one sin; therefore if ye would wait cheerfully, be more careful to walk holily. All the winds about the earth make no earthquake, but only that within.

The greatest man is he who chooses the right with invincible resolution; who resists the sorest temptations from within and without, who bears the heaviest burdens cheerfully; who is the calmest in storms, and whose reliance on truth, on virtue, on God is the most unfaltering.

So comprehensive are the doctrines of the gospel, that they involve all moral truth known by man; so extensive are the precepts, that they require every virtue, and forbid every sin. Nothing has been added either by the labors of philosophy or the progress of human knowledge.

The strength which God has educated and fostered in the last struggle will greatly assist you in the next, The man who gives way to one sin will very readily give way to another, but a man who through God's grace has won a very high vantage ground by mastering one sin, will be very likely to win another.—Spurgeon.

Unprofitable discourse robbeth us of much time. Some simply employ their tongues in telling fabulous and filthy stories; others in discussing of parties and opinions, and in talking of the faults and miscarriages of other men; some about the times, and enquiring after the news. But let Christians, when they converse, imitate the Lord; the words that proceeded out of his mouth were gracious words.

It is not great calamities that embitter existence; it is the petty vexations, the small jealousies, the little disappointments, the minor miseries, that make the heart heavy and the temper sour. Don't let them. Anger is a poor waste of vitality; it is always disgraceful, except in some very rare case, when it is kindled by seeing wrong done to another; even that noble rage seldom mends the matter.

Facts and Fancies.

How to serve a dinner—eat it.

A clerical error—A long sermon.

A silk dress should never be satin.

A woman's fear—A state of single blessedness.

Lost—The buttons from a coat of paint.

When are laundresses not laundresses? When they air clothes.

Chicago calls her colored men tinted citizens.

The latest thing on the tapis—The foot of Virginia on the carpet-baggers.—Telegram.

"A dreadful little for a shilling," said a Skinflint to a druggist of whom he had just purchased an emetic.

Mrs. Asphyxia gives a reason for declining to marry a widower the fact that she is down on second-hand children.

The palaces of Europe are getting the reputation of being haunted, because some of the rooms are hung with Gobelin tapestry.

A schoolmaster on being asked what was meant by the word "fortification," answered, "Two twentyfications make a fortification."

It is unwise to worry about that which cannot be helped, and foolish to worry about that which can be helped. Therefore, worry not at all.

What should a young man carry with him when calling upon his affianced? Affection in his heart, perfection in his manners, and confection in his pocket.

An editor, alluding to the demand for female suffrage, female doctors and female clergymen, remarks that another want presents itself—that of female women.

The Indian ring, the whiskey ring, and several other rings, are mean enough, but the meanest of all are those utterances which contain "the true Democratic ring."

Mr. G. was a most inveterate punster. Lying very ill of cholera, his nurse proposed to prepare a young, tender chicken. "Hadn't you better take an old hen," said G, in a low whisper—he was too ill to speak louder—"for she would be more apt to lay on my stomach."

It is always safe to be polite to ladies. An incident of the late rail-road smash-up near Boston proves it. A Gentle man of that city gave up his seat in the last car of the Beverly train to a lady, and passed forward. The lady was killed and the gentleman was unhurt.

Always acknowledge courtesies in a kindly spirit. Throw a boquet and a card of thanks to a serenading party, if not prepared to invite them in. If you haven't a boquet or card at hand, throw a boot jack or brick, or any thing of that sort, just to show your appreciation of the kindness intended.

A young lady at an evening party some time ago found it hard to use the expression "Jordan's a hard road to travel," but thinking that too vulgar, substituted the following: "Perambulating progression in pedestrian excursion along the far-famed throughfare of fortune cast up by the banks of the sparkling river of Palestine is indeed attended with a heterogeneous conglomeration of unforeseen difficulties."

A story is told of a man in Connecticut who fell from the roof of a five-story building to the sidewalk; but, as he struck on the thick soles of his rubber shoes, he bounced back within a quarter of an inch of the roof, and so continued to bounce, the distance decreasing by only a quarter of an inch at each journey. He subsisted on hash enclosed in rubber balls, which he managed to catch on the bound, and at the end of a month was stopped and returned to his family.

Four of the dirtiest, most ragged little ragmuffins in this city entered one of the magnificent drug stores in our place.

Marching up to the counter, one said:

"I want a cents worth of rock candy."

"Get out you ragmuffins! we don't sell a cent's worth of rock candy."

Slowly and sadly they filed out of the store. On the sidewalk a consultation took place. They re-entered the door.

"Mister, do you sell three cents worth of rock candy?"

"Yes."

"Well, we ain't got 'em;" and the procession moved out again.

A physician in the Grand Army Journal tells this ghastly joke; "I remember one day in making my hospital rounds, a patient arrived presented me an amputated forearm, and in doing so could scarcely refrain from a broad laugh, the titter was constantly on his face. What is the matter? This does not strike me as a subject of laughter. It is not, doctor, but excuse me. I lost my arm in so funny a way that I still laugh when I look at it. Our first sergeant wanted shaving badly, and got me to do it as I am corporal. We went together in front of his tent; I had lathered, took him by the nose, and was applying a razor when a cannon ball came, and that was the last I saw either of his head or my arm. Excuse me, doctor, for laughing as I do, but I'll be especially blasted if I ever saw such a bully thing.

Dr. J. P. P. van Den Bergh,

From Prussia, the Great

Worm Exterminator!

[Office Chemeketa Hotel, Salem, Oregon—Rooms 9 & 22.]

Late of San Francisco, Cal. would inform the sick generally, that about forty years' extensive practice of medicine and surgery in Europe and the United States of which twenty-one have been in California, has by close observation and great experiments, come to the conclusion that there are more acute and chronic diseases caused by worms, haydadids, animalculæ or other species of entrozoa. The public genarally, or the profession at large, are not aware of the number of patients who are treated by eminent physicians for this, that, or such a complaint without any relief. If the disease has been understood, a few doses of Dr. V's Sovereign Worm Remedy would have immediately cured the complaint, and have saved a great many lives. Dr. V. has collected a large variety of California roots and herbs, which, by analyzing, close observation and extensive experiments, he can conscientiously say that he has discovered new remedies for successful cure for the following diseases:

☞ Dyspepsia, Chronic affections of the Liver and Kidneys, first and second stages of Consumption, White Swelling, Palsy, Spermatorrhœa or local weakness, Nervous Debility, Epileptic Fits, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Diarrhœa, Incontinence of Urine, Gravel, Flour Albus, Diabetes, Dropsy, and all those diseases which are known under the name of Venereal, such as Syphilis, in all its forms, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, False Passages, Inflammation of the Bladder and Prostrate Glands, Excoriations, Pustules, Piles, Pimples, Blotches, and all Cutaneous Eruptions of the skin. Cancers Tumors cured with or without operation. In recent Venereal Diseases, the Dr. effects a Cure in 3 to 6 days or no charge.

For the Eye, Ear and Throat, Dr. V possesses new and invaluable remedies.

Dr. V. would advise those ladies troubled with irregularities of the Uterus to try his new remedies and get cured.

Dr. van Den Bergh's Infalliable Worm Syrup for children. Price, $1 Warranted to expel the worms, or the money refunded.

Dr. J. P. P. van Den Bergh's Hair Tonic—a sure cure to destroy all animalculæ of the Hair Follicles, prevent falling out, and promoting the Growth of the Hair. Price $1 50, Warranted.

By consulting and undergoing a simple examination, the afflicted are learn if their disease is caused by Worms or not; at all events Dr. van Den Bergh can tell them from what disease they are suffering.

Consultations and examinations FREE of charges in all cases. Dr. van Den Bergh guarantees, to all cases, to expel the worm, and Cure all diseases he undertakes, or no charge.

Card from Judge Frier, of Polk County.

DR. J. P. P. VAN DAN BERGH—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in thanking you publicly for the restoration of my health after nineteen years of great suffering mentally and bodily. I doctored a great deal; was afflicted with almost every imaginable pain and despaired of seeing a well day again. When I came to see you at Salem, you said you would remove the cause of nineteen years' suffering in five hours. I could hardly believe it, but after taking the five tasteless powders you gave me, about 900 worms passed from me, and now, fourteen days afterwards, I feel like another man, and am able to follow my business without pain or inconvenience. A. H. FRIER.

Bethel, Polk Co. Oct. 10th. 1871.

1,500 Worms Expelled.

After 7 years of suffering, pain and debility, and doctoring for many complaints, now proved that I did not have, and taking different kinds of medicine from many eminent physicians, I gave up in despair, thinking it was no use to drench my poor stomach any longer, and that I must waste and waste away until there was nothing left of poor me. But hearing of the astonishing cures of Dr. J. P. P. van Den Bergh has performed in so short a time, effecting cures in a few hours, and my friends advising me to make one more effort, I consulted Dr. van Den Bergh, and he told me my miseries were caused by worms and he would expel them in about five hours. After taking five small powders, 1,500 worms passed away from me, and I am happy to say I am better than I have been for a good while. P. R. EVES.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of September, 1871.

J. J. MURPHY, J. P.

REMARKABLE!

Eight Hundred Worms Expelled!

I think it a public benefit to make the following statement, that I have been afflicted for two years with constant pains in the stomach, and in fact, pains all over my body; no appetite, and let me eat what I would it always put me in distress. No medicine would relieve me and I grew worse and worse until now I am a mere skeleton. Nobody could tell me what was the matter with me, until I consulted Dr. J. P. P. Van Den Bergh, in Selem, Oregon, and he told me I was afflicted with worms, and they were the cause of all my misery and pains. I took the Doctor's medicine, and he expelled 800 worms from me. They are like Leaches, with long tails, and measure from one to one and one-half inches in length. I only took six little powders, and they brought the worms in four hours time. All those afflicted wishing to see me can find me at Sam Renlet's stable, Salem Oregon.

V. CRAIG.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 7th day of Sept. 1871. J. J, MUPHY. J. P,

Said worms can be seen at Dr. J. P. P. Van Den Bergh's office, Chemeketa Hotel, Salem.

A CARD.

DR. J. P. P. VAN DEN BERGH—Dear Sir: I deem it my duty to make the following statement: For the last three years I have been suffering with constant gnawing pain and a quivering sensation in my stomach, also pain in my chest and heart, my food would not digest and I was so nervous that with difficulty I could follow my occupation, which has been here in Salem for the past ten years, as a practical dentist. In fact from the constant pain and misery I had wasted away to a mere skeleton. I had been doctoring a great deal without any benefit, and believing there was no help for me but to linger on until death would relieve all my suffering. Some of my friends thought I had worms and had better see Dr. Van Den Bergh. He told me at once that worms were the cause of all my troubles, so he gave me 5 small and tasteless powders and in 4 hours about 700 worms, from one inch to one and one half inches long, caame away from me that day, and the following night some more came, and now I am happy to say I feel like another man again, and am gaining strength from day to day. H. SMITH, M. D.

Salem, Oregon, Sept. 23d, 1871.

Another Great Slaughter!

We think it our duty to make the follrwing statement in hopes it may do some good to sick children: Our child had been sick for some time. Thinking all the time our little one was troubled with worms we tried many doctors and a great many remedies without any relief, Some neighbors told us we should go and try Dr. Van Den Bergh, the worm doctor in Salem, We did so and he gave us one botttle of his celebrated Worm Syrup, and after giving the medicine, to our great astonishment about 800 worms passed away from our dear child, and now, thank heaven she is well again.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.
