Rev. J. James will preach at the M. E.
Church to-morrow, morning and evening.

After Us again. "Uncle Ed" has been after us again with more of those "big red apples." They're good, you better think.

Trustee Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Trustees of the Creole Academy at the Academy building, on Monday at 6 o'clock.
P. M.

Frank Simpson, the Alsea mail-carrier, says that on his last trip he found the roads in a terrible condition. He had to swim several streams on the route.

Mails. The West-Side mail has been a failure most of the week, and but for the invincible determination of Mr. J. C. Lewis, the carrier on the Salem route, we should have been in a perfectly isolated condition.

For Rent. A farm on upper Salt Creek. A good, responsible party, applying soon, can get this farm on fair terms. There is in the barn a quantity of hay, which can be bought at reasonable rates. Apply to H. Hagood, Dallas, Oregon.

We hear considerable complaint from the country in regard to the dilapidated condition of the bridges. As the Supervisors have just handed in their reports and the County Court has examined them, the probabilities are that the matter will be promptly attended to.

Independence. The ball on the 14th inst., is reported a perfect success. The costumes were many of them very picturesque, and excited considerable merriment.—The water, during the late freshet, came into the town, and reminded the residents that although they felt themselves pretty well up in the world, yet, like the people in the times of Noah, they were not entirely above high water mark.

Those wishing anything in the line of addery or harness rigging can be supplied by calling on S. C. Stiles. He has lately replenished his stock, and is now ready to supply old customers, and as many new ones as he can get, with all kinds of work in his line at the lowest possible cash rates. Remember and give him a call before purchasing elsewhere. Shop up stairs in Stiles' new building.

The Democracy, determined to make assurances doubly sure, are forming clubs and organizing and preparing for the campaign. A club was formed here last Saturday. The "Pass-sieve" policy, which, as the name indicates, is easily "seen through," does not seem to go down well with the bed-rockers. They seem to have the bull by the horns, and don't know whether to hold on or let go. To hold on is dangerous, but to let go is fatal.

Dr. Rubell informs us he has made necessary arrangements to have a wheel put into the race near his office, an addition put on to the office-building, and necessary machinery put up for the manufacture of everything needed in the Dentistry line. The Dr. has located permanently in Dallas, and understanding all branches of his business thoroughly he evidently means to attend to it. Office room opposite the Victoria Gallery, Main street.

"Music by the Band." The members of our Band have, by dint of close application, perfected themselves so that they are now ready to furnish music for any occasion. Patronage from Polk, Yamhill and adjoining counties, is respectfully solicited. Their instruments are of the best make; and their music mostly new, and already they begin to play with the skill that would go credit to many more practiced hands.
Any communications concerning matters connected with the band, should be addressed to T. H. Glass.

Mixed. The Statesman has information that the mail from Corvallis to McMinnville is carried on horseback. "Now you see, and now you don't see." One day it goes horseback, and the next, perhaps, it goes on a sulky. We believe but once during last week it succeeded in reaching McMinnville. Mud is deep in some places, and deeper in others. We have only received one Oregonian for two weeks, but whether the delay has been caused by deep quid, high water, sulky or horseback riding—we can't say why.—Don't you?

To stop an itching head use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Restorer, a sure cure.

The Exhibition.

The Academy exercises at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, were a decided success.
Very rarely do we see an exercise of that kind carried through without a failure, to a greater or less extent, on the part of some one. Such however was the case in this instance. Much credit is due to the untiring energy of Mr.
Oglesby, Miss Witten and Miss Scriber, for making a success of the exercises, under circumstances before which many would have abandoned the project. We hardly feel like attempting a description of the entertainment, yet, circumstances seem to forbid that we pass it by unnoticed. A beautiful "Greeting Glee" was sung at the opening by the entire school.
It was well sung and made a good impression. The Salutatory, by Wm. Barney, was well chosen, and well delivered. After the song, "Beautiful Bells," played by Mrs. Collins and sung by the Misses Witten came the dialogue of "Mother Goose." Miss Mollie Nichols, surrounded by a crowd of little folks, kept the audience well entertained by the humor of the piece as well as their excellent performing.
Joseph Glaze delivered the Declaration, "Mt.
Tabor," in true artistic style. Though the piece was quite lengthy, and Master Glaze young and almost unpractised, yet he went through his piece without trepidation and showed a careful study of his subject. Quartette, "Come to the Greenwood," was well sung by Misses Jennie Lee, Libbie Shaw, and Messrs.
Chas. Teal and Z. Dodson. In the charade "Outrage," Miss Betsy Primley was well personated by Miss Mollie Nichols; Euphrosine, sonnet of Miss Primley, was acted in good style by Miss Lou Ellis; Mr. Puffs was represented by M. M. Oglesby, and the servant girl, Susan, by Miss Mary Kincaid. Miss Kincaid drew the attention of the house by the admirable manner in which she did her part, and the expressions of the audience showed that she was appreciated. Comic song, "Esau," by Frank Knox, brought down the house, and we could imagine that we all saw Esau. Essay, entitled The Importance of Gaining Knowledge in Youth, by May Shelton, was well rendered.
Medley—well, imagine all the little girls in town circled around one larger one, each one singing a different song, and you have the "Medley." Duet, "Brooklet," played by Miss Nettie Richmond and sang by herself and sister Minnie, was a splendid effort. The girls were so small that they could not be seen standing behind the organ, and after they were through, they were called to the front to receive the cheers of the audience. "Queen of Beauty" was finely played by Mary Zumwalt as Goddess of the Beautiful, Ellen Robbins as Dawn, Annie McNeil as Day, Sarah Shreve as Sunlight, Cornelia Hagood as Night, Libbie Shaw as Forest, Jennie McNeil as Flowers. The sceptre was awarded to Miss Nettie Collins. Miss Annie Levens played the organ while Misses Ida Witten and Elsie Crystal sang the beautiful duet, "Wait for the Turn of the Tide." Orick Barney spoke in good style a comic recitation.
This was followed by a recitation, "Woman's work," by Ellen McKune, which was well received and well received. "Soldiers' Marching Song," by John Robbins, Willie Rubell, Lou Nichols, Jacob Crider and Lot Shreve. Charade, "Footprints," by Hester Robbins as Mrs.
Seymour, Libbie Shreve as Beatrice, and Ellen Barnes as servant girl; Chas. Teal as Mr. Seymour, Wm. McKune, as Fletcher, and Lot Shreve as Archibald. "Blessed Dreams" was sung by Miss Elia Witten. Recitation, "Angels of Buena Vista," by Miss Louvia Lee, was certainly splendid, and was so considered by those present. Quartette, "Trip Lightly," by Lou Ellis, Hester Robbins, Frank Knox and W. H. Barney. A comic dialogue, by George Cairn as Biggs and Snodgrass, Messrs. Jones, Smith, Brown, Green, Black, White and Gray, were personated by Z. Dodson, Wm. Hagood, J. Scott, Wm. McKune, J. Shultz, Wm. Barney and G. Barney, and the Hotel Waiter by J. D.
Lee. This was truly comic and brought down the house. Ida Witten and Amelia Scriber sang "Let the Dead and the Beautiful Rest." Miss Jennie Lee read in excellent style a fine essay on Love of Fame. Z. Dodson brought the house down with the comic song of "Ya-copina." "Motherless Meg," was given excellently, by Jennie McNeil, and appreciated by the audience. The beautiful duet, "Bel's Across the Hudson," was sung by Belle and Jennie Cristal. The exercises wound up with that int'er-esting Charade, "Antecedents," Miss Cordelia A.
St. Clair was personated by Amelia Scriber; Elizabeth St. Clair by Jennie Lee; Servant girl, Mary Garrison. Mr. Brown, Frank Knox, "Clarendon," J. D. Lee. Instrumental music was frequently interspersed throughout the entire performance by Ida Witten and others.
Taken altogether, it was one of the most interesting exhibitions which it has been our good fortune to witness. The proceeds of the evening, after defraying expenses were to be devoted to repairs of the Academy. Although the house was full, yet, as all the patrons of the school were admitted free the proceeds of the evening only amounted to twenty dollars. The incidental expenses were fifteen dollars and twenty-five cents, leaving a balance of $4.75; net proceeds, which has been paid to Mr. N.
Lee, to be put into the fund of the Academy devoted to repairs.

Changes. Miss Ida Witten retires from the Academy and Miss Watt takes her place. Miss Witten has won many friends while here and will take with her the good wishes of the community. Miss Clara Watt, who supplies her place, has a well-established reputation as a teacher, and under her management the intermediate department cannot fail to be a success.

DR. J. P. VAN DEN BERGH WOULD respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he has concluded to remove his office, on the 8th of February, 1872, from Salem to Eugene City, Oregon. Until further notice all of those wanting any further treatment can find me after said date at the above-named city. All those having claims against me will present them at once for settlement, and all those indebted to me will do me a great favor in settling their accounts forthwith. I would thank my friends and the public generally for their liberal and kind treatment I have received during my five months' practice in Salem. DR. J. P. VAN DEN BERGH.
Salem, Oregon, Jan. 26th, 1872 42nd

THE BADGE RULE.

THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS UNPO-PULAR rule at the late Agricultural Fair, although a source of great annoyance to visitors and of vexation to Marshals, was not entirely barren of good results, especially to the people of this vicinity who are gaggled enough to profit by the facts developed. It seems that in ejecting parties violating the rule, the Marshals found great difficulty in some cases by reason of the clothing of the offenders giving way, while others more roughly handed were removed from the ground without the least injury to their clothing. This mystery was solved by the Marshals when they found on investigation, that the clothing which stood firm under the sturdy grip of the officers was purchased (with the exception of one velvet suit) at the store of Murphy & Crossman, in the bank building, corner of State and Commercial st., Salem, where a good supply of the same kind of clothing is always on hand together with a full assortment of fashionable hats and gents' furnishing goods. 33if.

Telegraphic Summary.

Cincinnati, Feb. 20.—A horrible tragedy came to light this morning, near Albany, Indiana. The cabin of a man named Bentley was burned to the ground and the charred remains of the owner found in it. He is believed to have been robbed and murdered, and the house burned to conceal the crime.

St. Louis, Feb. 20.—Resolutions were adopted at the Republican primaries last night opposing any and all movements or measures hostile to Republican principles or the National Republican party, and pledging support to the nominees of the National Convention.
The delegates embrace some of the most prominent Republicans of this city, among them Henry T. Blow, ex-Gov. Fletcher, ex-Lieut. Gov. Stanford, Judge Dover, Judge Breckinridge, and others of standing and influence.

New York, Feb. 20.—The preliminary examination in the case of Stokes was continued to-day. Recorder Hackett was examined as to empanelling jurors. Others were examined, but no important testimony was elicited.

The examination of the quarantine ambuses to-day by the Legislative Committee, brought out from Geo. W.
White, that he was President of the Lighterage Co., which paid Mr. Carno-chan, $115,000 for license and $15,000 as fees to another official for the right to board vessels and to do all towing and lighterage.

Indianapolis, Feb. 20.—A destructive fire occurred at Worthington, Indiana last night. Eleven business houses on Main street were entirely destroyed, but most of the goods were saved. Loss about $40,000.

New Orleans, Feb. 20. Alexis and suite left by special train last night for Pensacola via Mobile, to join the Russian fleet.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Senator Ferry of Michigan, presented a petition from the lumber merchants against the Chicago relief fund.

Cole called up the bill providing for the transmission of the Pacific mails during the snow blockade. The bill went over.

Dancing Club.—Mr. McCann wishes to inform the patrons of the Dancing Club that the Club will meet at the Court House, Monday March 4.

The Florence. Those wishing to engage in the sale of sewing machines, or wishing to purchase one for family use, cannot do better than patronize Samuel Hill, whose card will be found in another column.

The exhibition at the Court House Wednesday evening, was a success, but to those of utilitarian views the goods exhibited at the store of N. & J. D. Lee, and the low prices at which they are sold, has a greater charm.

Ball.—The ball at the Court House on Thursday night was well attended and everything pleasant. The supper, gotten up by the Landlady of the Hotel, was enough to tempt the appetite of the most fastidious. It is not often that a party is carried on with more general satisfaction.

Changes. Miss Ida Witten retires from the Academy and Miss Watt takes her place. Miss

New York, Feb. 20.—A Herald's Washington special says it is understood that J. W. Forney, will be appointed Postmaster-General, in the place of Croswell.

London, Feb. 19.—Sir Chas. Dilke addressed his constituents at Chelsea this afternoon. The meeting was crowded and at the outset was slightly disorderly. Ample precaution was taken against trouble. The platform was raised so high it could not be scaled, the seats were nailed to the floor and the police on hand in force. The disorder soon subsided, and the organization was completed. Sir Charles then delivered a long and powerful speech. He protested against the suppression of free discussion of monarchical principles. He had attacked the monarchy because of the evils it engendered. Never did the rich less understand the necessities of the poor, and should they continue to ignore them grave results would follow. He warned his opponents to beware lest they push the people to extremes.
Alluding to the relations of England and the United States, he attributed the present ill feeling to the ignorance which prevailed in aristocratic circles of American institutions.

Paris, Feb. 19.—Geo. H. Baker the newly appointed Minister of the United States to Constantinople was yesterday presented to Thiers by Washburne.

The Opinion Nationale asserts that a conspiracy has been discovered in which three Generals under the late Emperor are leaders. Their plan was to disperse the Assembly by force and take possession of the Government, when they were to be supported by a large number of ex-officers and soldiers of the Empire from the North. The Opinion says that in consequence of this revolution, the Belgian frontier is carefully guarded and no one permitted to pass into France without passports.

A slight demonstration was made before the residence of the Duke Anauai on Sunday. The crowd uttered cries hostile to the Monarchy. Some threats were made, said to have been incited by Bonapartists. The forthcoming manifesto of the Monarchists in the Assembly monopolizes the attention of deputies.

Washington Feb. 19.—In the Senate, Scott presented the majority report of the Ku Klux Committee, accompanied by testimony and by a bill to extend the operation of the law to May 7th and authorize the suspension of the habeas corpus act until the end of the next session of Congress. The report also recommends the passage of a general but not universal amnesty bill.

In the House, Frye, at the instance of Hooper, introduced a bill supplementary to the civil rights act of 1866, and moved the previous question. The bill was read. A motion by Edridge to reject the bill was negatived by a strict party vote. The bill was over till Monday.

The bill to repeal duty on coffee passed under a suspension of the rules by a vote of 153 to 38.

In the Senate, Cole introduced a bill directing the Postmaster General to provide immediately by contract or otherwise for the transportation of the California mails around the blockaded portions of the Pacific Railroad.

In the House a large number of bills were introduced and referred. Among them a bill to refund the cotton tax collected from 1865 to 1868.

New York, Feb. 19.—The funeral of Mrs. W. B. Astor took place to-day at Grace Church. It was largely attended.

CHOLERA.
HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhoea, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot if convenient,) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhoea or cramps continue repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as a remedy, has no equal.
It cures Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma it cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KIL-LER.

Directions accompany each bottle.
The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.
Prices, 25 cents, 50 cent and $1 per bottle

Sinking Slowly.
Diseases that progress rapidly to a crisis are not the only ones to be dreaded. Canker or dry rot does not blast a tree as suddenly as a stroke of lightning, but unless arrested it destroys it as certainly; and in like manner chronic debility, although it does not kill with the swiftness of yellow fever, is as sure to sap the springs of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication.

There is nothing inexpensively touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Langour, pallor, emaciation, depression of spirits, and a distaste for exertion, are its ordinary symptoms, and they should be promptly met by tonic treatment. The best invigorant and exhilarant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stimulating principle of the preparation rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties give a permanent and healthful impulse to the vital forces thus brought into play. The failing appetite is re-awakened, the process of digestion and assimilation are quickened, the quality of the blood is improved, the secretions become more natural, and every organ that contributes to the nourishment of the body undergoes salutary change. By these means the repair of the physical structure is effected and its health and vigor restored. In no class of diseases has the beneficial operation of the Bitters been more marked and striking than in those characterized by general debility and nervous prostration.
Ladies affected with these ailments find in this most wholesome of all tonics and correctives the safest and surest means of relief. It is strong to restore and powerless to injure.
Such is the uniform testimony of "clouds of witnesses."

THE LOST CITY;
OR,
CHICAGO
AS IT WAS and AS IT IS.

A HISTORY OF THE GREAT CHICAGO FIRE. Truthful and accurate. A vivid and detailed account of the most terrible calamity that has ever befallen the civilized world.
Startling incidents. "Hair Breadth escapes." The fearful ravages of the Fire Fiend. The reign of terror. Profusely and beautifully illustrated, including views of the city before and since fire, still sublimely grand in its ruins.

Important to builders. Messrs. Shrader & Co., having refitted their mill on the line Luckiamute, are prepared to furnish all the lumber of the best quality at prices maintaining the reach of all. Their facilities for obtaining good, clear lumber, are unequalled, and their machinery for manufacturing cannot be beat in this part of the country. Parties desiring finishing lumber, either dressed or undressed, can be accommodated at any time, and satisfaction guaranteed.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean.
It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimu-lates and nourishes the hair-glands.
By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.
Price One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS.

As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied, and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off.
Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty Cents.
