WEGETARNE STORLING Loved.

Did leve die too dearest, the day you died, That I should only say I " loved " you? Die Vanished forever 'neath its shrouding 1id?

I kissed your face, so beautiful, and still, Pillowed on spotless buds, my hot tears fell. Love was not there; his lips, unanswering,

Met not my own in that supreme farewell. And when I sit in the long spring-tide hours Beside your grave, and decorate and trim Its eloquent, dumb mound with early flowers, I never, never lay a flower for him !

He is not dead ? Who said so was a cheat. Love has no past tense ; he is never past! I love you love you still, and still repeat Clinging to that soul anchor as the last,

Though you have left my side and strayed - A little further than you used to be; And though I follow sadly, still, each day
I say "I love you still." Do you love me?
