

Grant.

THE OLD MEN'S GRANT MEETING.

Well, wife, we've had a meetin' at the school-house on the hill.
And I was chosen Chairman to keep the old men still.
But I found I couldn't do it; each man down his cane would plant,
And about with all the noise he had, "I'm goin' in for Grant!"
We talked about the past four years, what great things had been done;
How the nation's debt had melted like the snow before the sun;
We said, to keep it meltin' do a better thing we can't,
Than to stick and hang together and all go in for Grant.
We all looked through our spectacles upon the naked facts,
Then drew the veil of charity o'er Grant's past;
We said, "We like you Sumner, but you sumner way we can't!"
Then we made the school-house echo with a rousing shout for Grant
We didn't have much charity for Trumbull or for Schurz;
They stand around the party gate, a pair of snarling curs;
Their speeches cannot harm us nor make Grant lose their mark;
Hep, an old dition tanner and knows how to handle bark.
We talked about Grant's smokin'—we thought "it's no great sin";
To vote that out of office we might vote a worse one in;
And seein' we were smokers I wouldn't do for us to rant,
So we lit our pipes together and smoked 'the health of Grant."
In the days of the rebellion none of us could go to fight,
But we read from morn till evening how he battled for the right;
He's been the nation's servant in the days of peace and war,
And treason melts before him like the smoke of his cigar.
After I'd adjourned the meetin' I gave each a friendly grip,
We, every one, determined to stand by the war-torn ship;
We will not topple over, we will not even slant,
But put our names down firm and strong and stand up straight for Grant.

Sunday Reading.

Syllables govern the world.
Follow after holiness, it will repay you.
If you would please God, be much in his company
A desire to love Christ springs from the love of Christ.
What one dies for, not his dying, glorifies him.
The whole earth is the monument of illustrious men.
To see what is right and not to do it is want of courage.
What you do not want done to you do not to others.
To lead an uninstructed people to war is to throw them away.
Man must will the good and great; the rest is decreed.
Christ made himself like us, that He might make us like Himself.
They that deny themselves for Christ should enjoy themselves in Christ.
He that thinks much of himself is standing at a great distance from God.
If Christ denied innocent nature for love for us, shall we not deny corruption out of love for Him?
Christ by his death appeared to be the Son of Man; by his resurrection He appeared to be the Son of God.
Christ was the Great Promise of the Old Testament; the Spirit is the Great Promise of the New Testament.
Christ must needs have died; how else could sin be expiated, the law satisfied, the devil conquered and man saved?
Christ's strength is the Christian's strength. He that thinks he has no need of Christ has too high thoughts of himself; he that thinks that Christ cannot help him has too low thoughts of Christ.
Think not the worse of Christ for His manger or His cross. As he ceases not to be man in His highest estate, so He is God in His lowest. His words were oracles and His works miracles. His life was a pattern, His death a sacrifice. All the angels adore Him and all the sons and daughters of Adam must stand before Him.
O! did we but know ourselves and our Savior! We are poor, but he is rich; we are dead, but he is life! We are sin, but He is righteousness; we are guiltiness, but he is grace; we are misery, but He is mercy; we are lost, but He is salvation. If we are willing, He never was otherwise. He ever lives, ever loves, ever pities, ever pleads. He loves to the end, and He saves to the uttermost all that come unto Him.
The man I call asceticism is the man who is not contented with the blessings of number one on the street, but who is always throwing stones and mud at number two; who is not content with his own wife and family, but who talks and gossips about another man's family. Give me the man who has earnest, honest convictions about his own Church, and I extend to him the right hand of fellowship. Love your Church and do all you can for it; but try and imagine, at the same time, that other men are as conscious as you are, and give them the right hand of fellowship when they do all they can for their Church.

The hatred of favorites is nothing more than a love of favor. Our indignation at not possessing it ourselves is soothed and mitigated by the contempt we express for those who do; and we refuse them our homage, because we are not able to deprive them of that which procures them the homage of every one else.
Two Germans once got into a dispute about the English language, each one contending that he could command it the best. They made a bet, at length, and appointed a judge to decide between them, and accordingly they began: "Vell, Shoon," said the first, "did it rain to-morrow?" "I shall tink it vash," said John. Wasn't that judge in a quandary?

"Deliver all things in number and weight, and put all in writing that thou givest out or receivest in." is a precept of universal application; and there is a special necessity for its strict observance in all business transactions. The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY?
THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK.
Meds of Four Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirit and Refined Liqueurs, distilled, speedily adulterated to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcohol Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, by opening the Intestines, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.
Indigestion, Flatulency, Colic, Spasms, Tightness of the Chest, Distention, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, flatulency in the Mouth, Bloating of the Stomach, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Liver, Pain in the Regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the result of Dyspepsia.
To invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render curative of unequalled efficacy in clearing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.
FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Bores, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Itch, Carbuncles, Ring Worms, Foul Head, Scald Head, Erysipelas, Itch, Scabies, Inflammation of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever nature or origin, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities breaking through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.
PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.
J. WALKER, Proprietor, R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 21 and 23 Cornhill Street, New York. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS.
