

NOMINATIONS FOR 1872.

THE BANNER WE FIGHT UNDER.

For President, HORACE GREELEY. For Vice-President, B. GRATZ BROWN, OF MISSOURI.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS: E. D. SHATTUCK, of Multnomah Co.; GEORGE R. HELM, of Linn county; H. H. GATES, of Wasco county.

"I ACCEPT YOUR NOMINATION IN THE CONFIDENT TRUST THAT THE MASSES OF OUR COUNTRYMEN, NORTH AND SOUTH, ARE EAGER TO CLASP HANDS ACROSS THE BLOODY CHASM WHICH HAS TOO LONG DIVIDED THEM..."

THE ELECTION.

The election comes off next Tuesday. This is our last issue before that time. During this campaign we have endeavored to present the true state of affairs in our country at the present time. We shall witness the election calmly, and with the consciousness that we have done our whole duty.

What class of our fellow citizens are willing to hazard the perpetuity of this great nation, by casting their votes for a man devoid of the first attribute or qualification which would fit him for a station so high and responsible?

this regard, a consummate ass; who then can it be? if it be the man who, Daniel like, falls upon his knees three times a day, and with windows open, asks the great God of the universe to give us rulers who shall be patteyns of piety, teaching temperance and good morals, let him rise from his supplication and vote for Grant, but talk temperance and reform no more.

We call upon all who honestly believe this present administration to be corrupt; all who believe Grant to be incompetent to perform the high and responsible duties, that belong to the Chief Magistrate of this great Republic; all who are satisfied, that a change of administration would redound to the great good of the people at large and would tend to bring about peace and fraternal feeling at home and respectability abroad; all who really sympathize with the down-trodden people of the South; all who prefer the election of Greeley the statesman, to Grant the usurper, to come out on Tuesday next at the sacrifice of all other considerations and vote and work vigorously for Greeley and Brown; and we promise you that victory, sweet victory, shall perch upon our standard; this military tyrant shall be driven from your national capital, and the freeman's banner shall once more wave undisturbed, where once our noble sires planted the olive branch and tree of liberty.

THE STATESMAN IS TERRIBLY EXERCISED OVER GOV. GROVER'S VETO.

The Statesman of the 24th, thinks that somebody likes power, and that the people somewhere have not been allowed to do as they please. Speaking of the Portland Police Bill, it says: "The love of power and patronage is one of Grover's weaknesses. To him, it was a glorious thing to throttle the people of an entire city and hold them at his mercy. Such power has more attractions to his vain, weak mind, than the respect of men. He vetoed the repealing bill, and Portland is still captive, bound hand and foot and helpless, at the feet of Grover and the Hallock-Lappeus ring. The people of that city have no redress and no means of escape from maladministration though their masters might enact any act of despotism."

FEARFUL.—During the last days of the session of the Legislature just closed, Caples stood in his place and, referring to other members, cried with a loud voice, corruption. Great God! And this from a would be man, who had been standing to his armpits in corruption for forty days and forty nights, in whose pocket jingled the money not long before handed by another, and on whose back Symphon said, could be found Holladay's brand!

THE BIGGEST STEAL OF THE FORTY DAYS FARCE.—The greatest outrage ever perpetrated upon a free people was the passage of a bill by the last Legislature, introduced by Dolph of Portland, by which they take directly out of the pockets of the people, $25,000 per year to support an irresponsible immigration society, and compel the people to pay besides that sum, whatever expenses may be incurred by men and women sent out by this society, which will be not less than $5,000 more, making the beautiful little sum of $30,000 each year taken from the people for nothing. If any man likes that, let him vote for Grant.

Vote for Greeley next Tuesday.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.

Grantites meet en masse—over the left.

Hare, the Grant elector comes to Dallas.

Great Enthusiasm—in a horn.

The Court House full—of wind.

The master speech of the campaign.

THE COUNTY GOOD FOR GREELEY.

The forepart of last week Hare, the Granite, sent to town his flaming hand-bills announcing that he would address the citizens of Polk County on Saturday the 26th, on the political issues of the day, and inviting Judge Shattuck to join him. The day before the great mass meeting was to come off, Judge Shattuck communicated to us the fact of Hare's intention to revolutionize the county on Saturday, and requested us to keep an eye out; and also, that if Mr. Hare was really spilling for a row, the Judge requested that we should take his place and receive the stripes. The time came, and Mr. Hare drove into town about twelve o'clock, in great style. The town seemed to be filling up rapidly. Proud horses upon whom sat anxious Grantites, pranced into town. The rattling of buggy wheels; the rumbling of heavy wagons, and the squealing of China pigs made high music; and all seemed merry as a humming-bird upon a honeysuckle.

With trembling hand and timid heart, we handed the Judge's note to a friend whom we chose as our second, and requested him to present it to Mr. Hare, and inform him that if nothing else would satisfy him but the presence of an antagonist, we would present ourselves before him as a substitute for the Judge, as he could not be present on the occasion, owing to pressing business at Portland. Time rolled on, and no meeting was called. The people began to return to their homes, wondering why, and at sun down it was announced that the meeting would come off in the evening at early candle-light. At half past seven, or perhaps near eight o'clock, we put on our overcoat, stove pipe hat, and cane in hand, we started for the Court House, when at the gate which opens into the street in front of our domicile, we were brought to a sudden halt by the well known voice of our better half, enjoining upon us, to be careful and not get shot. We proceeded with firm step, deliberately intending that if Hare should charge Grant with doing one good thing as a civilian, we would prove him a liar. As we entered Main Street, we discovered the Odd Fellow's and Good Templar's Halls were lighted up to unusual brightness; the business houses were all in running order with no one missing. Near to our right stood the M. I. Church in which some Granite orator was exhorting the people to discountenance intemperance and come up to a higher standard of morals. Just to our left stood the Court House, the place where earthly judges administer human justice, and where we expected to see Hare in a very few minutes devour Horace Greeley without oil. We proceeded to the head of the stairs and was surprised to behold that the immense audience was composed of one Granite from town, one from the country, and a third whom we took to be Hare. The trio were seated quietly by the stove, all engaged in reading what we surmised to be O'Meara's Bulletin; and as it seemed to us that they were about through reading O'Meara's wail over the abandonment of the Kentucky resolutions of '98 and '99 and that they were about to rise, sing the doxology and be dismissed, we quietly retired.

P. S. No others were present. Grantism has no standing in Polk. SHARP PRACTICE.—Mallory moved Heaven and earth to pass the Lock Bill. But after its reconsideration, dreamed of his constituency, and moved the other place to defeat it. Oh, what patriotism and devotion to the dear people!

THE FINAL FATE OF THE THIEVING IMMIGRATION BILL.

ALL HONOR TO GOV. GROVER. Oregon has a Governor both honest and fearless.

The Governor has vetoed the Immigration Bill which the last Legislature passed in total disregard of the rights of the people. This will save the tax payers of the State $30,000 annually; so by the vigilance of a faithful Governor the attempt to rob the people and bankrupt the State, will prove a failure.

It is true that Lish Applegate will be prevented from advertising his eccentricities in Europe and America at the expense of the people, but who cares for that, Lish has been crazy ever since he was kicked out of office, because somebody was not supporting him; and in the bargain and sale for the election of Senator, and support of Grant, Lish was to be sent swinging around the circle, to cut up his monkey shins, on the people's money. Will the Governor accept our thanks? For everybody says amen. Oh Lish!—"Stick close to your farm and you will suffer no loss, for the stone that keeps rolling will gather no moss."

Oh—Lish e! Since you have, like everybody else; been badly fooled by these corrupt Grantites, hadn't you better obey the dictates of a good conscience, and vote for Greeley, an honest man and statesman.

The only hope of the Grantites entertained for their success in Oregon or in the Union is, that enough Democrats will either stay at home, or throw away their votes on O'Connor to elect their drunken usurper. We shall see how many Democrats there are in Polk County and in the State who can make up their minds to thus foolishly act and thereby elect Grant.

How can you vote for Horace Greeley the life long opponent of the Democratic party? was the question propounded to a Democratic voter by a supporter of the great nepotist. The Democrat replied: "Do you consider Greeley honest?" "Oh, yes," answered the other. "Do you regard him as capable?" "Certainly," answered the Grant man—"Well, then," said the Democratic supporter of Horace, "if you could vote in 1868 for a drunken and incompetent Democrat, I think I can vote in 1872 for a sober, honest and capable Republican." The Grant man subsided.—Times.

The Straight-outs did a heavy business in Indiana in the late election. They nominated what they called a Straight-out Democratic ticket for State officers, and after a very animated canvass they succeeded in polling 130 votes in the State. The aggregate vote in the State, we believe, was about 350,000; out of this number 130 amounts to so mere a trifle that one can scarcely reckon it. The Democrats of that State saw what should be obvious every intelligent man, that the Straight-out movement was gotten up in the interest of Grant, and that it has been manipulated by the Grant committees at Washington. This fact is so perfectly clear that no one should allow himself to be deluded by false pretences.—Oregon Herald.

Will They Do It? If the Democrats will come up to the scratch and vote the Liberal ticket to a man, and thus prove their good faith in operating with the Liberal Republicans, Polk County will give Greeley one hundred majority; Oregon will be redeemed from corrupt rings and misrule, and Horace Greeley and Gratz Brown will be elected by a handsome majority. Will you do it? Or will you go back on all you have done at Baltimore, stay away from the polls, and thereby rivet for four years longer, the chains of slavery upon the already fettered limbs of your Southern brethren. The responsibility is with you. You can elect or defeat Grant as you see fit. The Liberals will vote against him to a man, and with a vim. We call upon you as you love liberty and country, come with us to the polls on Tuesday, and mingle with us your united effort to drive from the halls of our National Capitol this military usurper.
