

AN ADDRESS.
BY THE
United States Centennial Commission.

To the People of the United States:
The Congress of the United States has enacted that the completion of the One Hundredth Year of American Independence shall be celebrated by an International Exhibition of the Arts, Manufactures and Products of the soil and mine, to be held at Philadelphia, in 1876, and has appointed a Commission, consisting of representatives from each State and Territory, to conduct the celebration. Originating under the auspices of the National Legislature, controlled by a National Commission, and designed as it is to "Commemorate the first Century of our existence, by an Exhibition of the Natural resources of the Country and their development, and of our progress in those Arts which benefit mankind, in comparison with those of other Nations," it is to the people at large that the Commission look for the aid which is necessary to make the Centennial Celebration the grandest anniversary the world has ever seen.

That the completion of the first century of our existence should be marked by some imposing demonstration, we believe, the patriotic wish of the people of the whole country. The Congress of the United States has wisely decided that the Birthday of the Great Republic can be most fittingly celebrated by the universal collection and display of all the trophies of progress. It is designed to bring together, within a building covering fifty acres, not only the varied productions of our mines and of the soil, but types of all the intellectual triumphs of our citizens, specimens of everything that America can furnish, whether from the brains or the hands of her children, and thus make evident to the world the advancements of which a self-governed people is capable.

In this "Celebration" all nations will be invited to participate; its character will be international. Europe will display her arts and manufactures, India her curious fabrics, while newly opened China and Japan will lay bare the treasures which for centuries their ingenious people have been perfecting. Each land will compete in generous rivalry for the palm of superior excellence.

To this great gathering every zone will contribute its fruits and cereals. No mineral shall be wanting; for what the East lacks the West will supply. Under one roof will the South display in rich luxuriance her growing cotton and the North in miniature, the ceaseless machinery of her mills converting the cotton into cloth. Each section of the globe will send its best offerings to this exhibition, and each State of the Union, as a member of one united body politic, will show to her sister States and the world, how she can add to the greatness of the nation of which she is a harmonious part.

To make the Centennial Celebration such a success as the patriotism and the pride of every American demands will require the co-operation of the people of the country. The United States Centennial Commission has received no Government aid, such as England extended to her World's Fair, and France to her Universal Exposition, yet the labor and responsibility imposed upon Commission is as great as either of those undertakings. It is estimated that $10,000,000 will be required, and this sum Congress has provided shall be raised by stock subscription, and that the people shall have the opportunity of subscribing in proportion to the population of their respective States and Territories.

The Commission looks to the unflinching patriotism of the people of every section, to see that each contributes its share to the expenses, and receives its share of the benefits of an enterprise in which all are so deeply interested. It would further earnestly urge the formation in each State and Territory of a centennial organization, which shall in time see that county associations are formed, so that when the nations are gathered together in 1876 each Commonwealth can view with pride the contributions she has made to the national glory.

Confidently relying on the zeal and patriotism ever displayed by our people in every national undertaking, we pledge and prophesy, that the Centennial Celebration will worthily show how greatness, wealth and intelligence can be fostered by such institutions as those which have for one hundred years blessed the people of the United States.

CHOLERA.
HOW TO CURE IT.
At the commencement of the Diarrhoea, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of Pain Killer in sugar and water, (not if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhea or cramps continue repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as a remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Acidities it cures almost right by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. It cures the headache, when externally applied to the forehead, temples, and spine. For Sick Headache and Dizziness don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

The Warning has been Heeded
Since the exposure of the attempts made by certain unscrupulous local dealers, pain of their coarse stringents, made from cheap and impure materials, in the place of the great national tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, public opinion has set strongly against these impure and their preparation. Their occupation is gone, or soon will be when the light is let into deception it soon will down Persons who trade with their own health, by using unknown preparations, with no guaranty, when an established specific, proven by 20 years experience to be exactly what it is claimed to be is within their reach, are sure to repeat the termerly Many have done so in this instance, but it is hoped that the truth plainly spoken has arrested the evil. In the meantime the demand for the leading protective and restorative medicine of America was never so great as it has been this season. From the Ever and Augus districts of the West, South West and South, it is literally overwhelming, and it may be said of the advice from all parts of the country of the cure it is effecting in dyspepsia, indigestion, chronic constipation, that "their name is legion." Everywhere the importance of "holding fast that which is good," and of avoiding what is spurious and dangerous.

The numerous "Bitters," under various names which mercenary dealers endeavor to substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be avoided, for their own sakes, by the sick and the public at large. Hostetter's Bitters prepared in 1851 only, and never sold in bulk.
