Dallas.—
The town seems to be lively, and business reviving; and the great attraction seems to be at Lee's on the corner.

Wonderful.—Last Thursday we had heavy thunder. It is so seldom that sound is heard in this valley, that the school children were running about the streets and inquiring "What is that?"

For want of space we are compelled to leave out several articles sent us which will appear next week.

We are glad to know that Mr. T. B. Newman who has been confined to his room for some time from congestive chills, is able again to be at his place of business, and is fast convalescing.

Miss Joan Lyle, who has spent the winter east of the mountains, has returned home to enjoy the rain showers, with which the people of this valley are not unfrequently blessed.

Omission.—Our foreman failed to insert our comments on the correspondence in last week's issue over the signature "RURAL." We consider the subject an important one, and hope the author will continue to write.

Sale of Real Estate.—
Our old friend and enterprising citizen John Waymire, has been purchasing more real estate adjacent to this mill property, and is now improving it. We need more such men as Uncle John in Dallas.

We were informed by a gentleman on Wednesday, that R. Bean of McMinnville, attempted suicide by taking poison, which was discovered in time to rescue him. We know nothing of the facts.

We call special attention to the new advertisement of Weatherford & Co. Inserted this week. Weatherford & Co. keep constantly on hand a very large assortment of drugs, painters' oils and glass, and furnish them to customers at rates as low perhaps as any establishment of that character South of Portland, in Oregon Now to test our suggestion upon that point just go to this house and purchase your next bill of goods and then compare it with your purchases heretofore made elsewhere. Call and see them.

Mail.— One regular daily mail from Salem, came in on last Tuesday night four hours behind time.
The cause we learn, was detention at the Salem Ferry. It is but just to say, however, that Mr. Lewis, our mail contractor, has brought the mails with a promptness and regularity [which reflects upon him great credit. No person has any reason or right to complain.

Dry Goods.—Breyman Bros., new advertisement in this paper ought to satisfy the people of Polk County, that at no place in Oregon can their dry goods be obtained at prices so favorable to the purchasers as at their store in Salem.
The integrity and fair dealing of these gentlemen are well established in Polk County to require comment. Breyman Bros. do an extensive business, have sold goods in this County for many years and know just what the people want and we advise those who desire anything in their line, to examine their immense stock, and consult their low prices, and favorable terms.

Home Manufacture.—Let the people examine the new advertisement of the Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company, in this number, and satisfy themselves that it is much better to purchase home goods which are not only of fine quality but substantial. Let the farmer and mechanic purchase the goods manufactured at the establishment for the use of himself and family instead of squandering his money for foreign, flimsy, flashy goods possessing no substantial merit, and let the merchants of Oregon purchase these goods for their home trade, and thereby benefit themselves, their country and their customers.

Musical Instruments.—Walter Jackson's new advertisement in this paper, demonstrates the fact that Pianos and Organs of the latest styles and best quality can be had at his establishment on State street, Salem, as cheap and as good terms as in San Francisco minus the freight, also Books and Stationery at prices which cannot fail to suit purchasers. Call and see Mr. Jackson for anything in his line before paying out your money elsewhere. dont be afraid to call you will always find him agreeable and ready to accomodate you.

The new advertisement of Gilbert & Company which appears in this issue, offers great inducements to the people of Polk County.
Their stock is large and selected for this trade particularly; and their prices are such as are notorious to purchasers. These gentlemen are always on hand to exhibit their goods, and what is still better, are always pleasant and don't get angry if you do not purchase, consequently it will pay the people of Polk to call on Gilbert & Co., before purchasing any goods they may desire in their line. Remember, on water side of Commercial Street.
