WOOD—We wish some one who owns the REPUBLICAN would haul us a load of Wood

We call attention to the new advertisement of Herman & Hirsch in this issue. These gentlemen keep on hand one of the largest and best selected stock of goods in the City of Salem, and their large sales each year prove conclusively, that they keep the best quality of goods, that they sell as cheap as any House in Salem and that they are fair and honest dealers. Call and examine their stock.

PLAGUE—Dallas has got the Measles, or rather its inhabitants are troubled with that plague, and the only question seems to be whether or not there will be sufficient to go round

DELAY OF MAILS—The Salem Mail was delayed from Saturday to Monday in consequence of the ferry boat running out on dry land to keep from drowning.

MONTH—Democrat Monthly and Young America for March, come to hand filled as usual with the best of Reading matter so eagerly sought after by every family.

DASOEN—One of our young ladies while taking a pleasure walk, discovered two wolves near the sheep pastures. The Richmond club should at once call out the hounds and get after these unwelcome visitors, in default of which wool might take a rise.

BOOKS—We call special attention to the best of new books at Walter Jackson's Music Store Salem. Examine the low prices for which they are offered, and then call upon Jackson before spending your money elsewhere.

Those who've amusement when at Salem should go to the Opera Billiard Saloon where you can always play a quiet game undisturbed and enjoy the best of Wines and other luxuries For particulars see his card in this paper.

NEW VOLUME—With this issue the REPUB-LICAN enters upon its fourth volume with every prospect of success. The REPUBLICAN is conducted and its mechanical work performed by two boys, aged respectively sixteen and thirteen. The eldest, Prescott Cato Sullivan, acting as Foreman. Unless some one can beat that they claim the belt.

PREMS.—See the advertisement of Fisher & Haas in this weeks issue for the sale of their excellent Wood Pumps which are rapidly gaining a wide spread reputation throughout the valley They are undoubtedly superior to anything of the kind now in use, examine them and their workings before purchasing any other. Their circulans can be seen at the REPUBLICAN office.
