PRISONER ESCAPED—On last Thursday evening Mr. Charles Sutton who was confined in the county jail, taking advantage of the absence of the guard, burst open the door lock with a chisel and fled to parts unknown. In a few moments his escape was discovered and pursuit was immediately commenced but as yet the fugitive has succeeded in eluding his pursuers.

THE YAMHILL COURT—The Yamhill Circuit Court has been in session for two weeks with a large criminal docket. Quite a large number of criminals as well as civil cases have been disposed of, and on Monday next at ten o'clock, the trial of Joseph Coxen will commence for the murder of Benjamin Harbrook. The case as yet, is shrouded in mystery. There are already sixty witnesses subpoenaed, and others being daily discovered and sent for. The Court refused an application by the Defendant for a continuance until the next term of the court, but gave him one week to prepare for his trial. This is one of the most mysterious murders ever committed in that county. It is conceded that the Defendant is a young man of excellent character and no motive can be imagined or assigned for the act, the Defendant and Harbrook being the best of friends and living peaceably together. The trial will occupy several days if not the whole week.

England reduced her debt by over $34,000,000 during the fiscal year ending March 31, 1873; and the estimated reduction for next year is 60,000,000.

Three women entered the cars at Cornelius on the down train last night with thirteen children, the oldest less than five years of age. It is not at the number we marvel, but at their extreme youth.

STATE ITEM.

Says the Eugene Guard: There being no probability of Judge Thayer being sufficiently recovered to hold our term of Circuit Court, arrangements have been made with Judge Prim, now holding Court in Benton County, to stop here and hold Court from Monday morning until Wednesday noon, at which time he has to leave in order to reach Jacksonville in time to commence the April term of Court there.

Riddle's wife says that Boston Charley tried to scalp Meacham but she cried out: "don't do that, the soldiers are coming." Boston ran, after cutting an ugly gash in the scalp.

From the Baker Democrat: Everything is lively in and about Baker City. The quartz mill is running night and day; teams are constantly arriving, heavily loaded with quartz from the ledge. Teams and pack trains are arriving with freight from Umatilla for our merchants. Our Carpenters are all as busy as they can be; rock and stone are being hauled into our city for building purposes in large quantities. Our citizens are putting in their garden truck; our farmers in the valley are putting in their grain. We have no idle men about. All that will work are busy.

Benton County forests furnish sawlogs for Salem.

Cole's Valley, Douglas County, is expected to yield 60,000 bushels of wheat this year.

A farmer's Club was formed at Aumsville on March 29th, with S. Co. dit, President, and J. Peebles, Secretary.

The Advertiser says: A camp meeting will be held on Kahier's camp ground, three miles north of Grant's Pass, in Jackson County, commencing on the 8th day of May, which will continue over the following Sabbath. All are cordially invited to attend.

A writer in the Willamette Farmer justly complains that much of the arable land of Oregon is owned by a class of men who either do not improve and cultivate it at all, or else barely enough of it to make a living, refusing to sell any of it to any new owner for any reasonable price, and compelling those of us who desire to improve our lands and build good county roads, to increase their wealth by doing so with out their paying their proper share to build and maintain these roads.

The factory at Oregon City offers only ten cents for wool, believing this to be all the market will bear.

A Washington letter says that Mrs. Southworth, author of several of novels, is one of the persons who have contributed to make the fortune of Bonner of the New York Ledger. She has written twenty years for the Ledger, and gets $6,000 per annum.
