We received a call from Prof. M. M. Oglesby from Douglas County. Mr. Oglesby was for some time Principle in the La Creole Academy, and was well thought of.

Good Chance.—Those desiring a clean bed and a square meal during the coming Court can get it by calling on S. C. Stiles. P. S. Board by the week or day, also single meals.

Correction.—Mr. John Phy desires us to state that he did not object to the may day party occupying his ground on Mount Pisgah, nor to any person going there on that occasion; and the story that obtained currency in town to that effect was entirely a mistake.

At The Barber.—Henry Hagood wants it distinctly understood that during the coming Court he is prepared to furnish more coats and hats for horses, and more leather beds and good substantial grub for both men and women, than any man in Dallas. No Chinamen allowed about the premises as cooks or otherwise.

Dead.—The people of Dallas were startled on Sunday last about four o'clock P. M. upon the death of Mr. George Howe one of our old, quiet and most respectable citizens. Mr. Howe was a single man of about twenty six years of age and resided at the time of his death with his parents in town. He was well known here, highly respected, a substantial citizen, a part of the noblest work, an honest man. He leaves a large circle of friends to mourn, and society will feel his loss. We feel like mourning with those that mourn, and we deeply sympathize with the friends that George has left behind.

Ed. REPUBLICAN. I wish to state a true case of something, and I am at loss to tell what to call it, it may be a freak of nature, it may be a phenomenon, perhaps both. Now to the point, I have a pair of turkeys on my farm, the gobbler is three years old, the hen two. Last season she went on the nest regularly every day but never laid an egg. Long in the fall she took it in her head to try sitting, but that was most too much of a good thing, as we put her in jail and she was satisfied to quit such tom-folery. In the mean time the gobbler robbled and stratted as all good gobblers do. Well this spring she began her old tricks so Mr. Gobbler, I think, felt sore over her last year's foolishness and failed to either gobble or strut this season, but moped around and is always ready for his meal, so we thought as he was not disposed to gobble or strut we would borrow one from our neighbor Dodson that would both strut and gobble, but to our surprise she took Mr. Gobbler No 2 by the snout and led him all over the lot. Gobbler No 1 n't taking any notice of it whatever, she still continues to go on the nest, but nary a egg yet, and she, up to yesterday, has made it a rule to fleece Gobbler No 2 every day but yesterday she failed, he could stand it no longer, turned on her and whistled good. Now what effect it may have on the matter is more than I can say now, my opinion is she has some notion of the suffrage question in her head although she is very kind to Mr. Gobbler No 1, but he is a hearted looks very dejected. It may be he is not well although he eats well. I can't make up my mind what the matter is, though he looks about like I would feel, if it was a true case of female suffrage. Perhaps some learned ones can explain it. I hope to find out what the matter is. But these turkeys are for sale at twenty per cent discount from regular turkey prices.

E. L. DELASHMUTT. The above is from our old friend Uncle Ed who seems to be somewhat puzzled concerning the conduct of the turkey. But can't you see, Ed, that there is no woman's suffrage in it; it is only demonstrating the principle inaugurated by the grantites, that a white man has no rights that a negro woman is bound to respect.
