

The Liberal Republican.
DALLAS, SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1873.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.
Threshing has commenced in Polk county.
Several of the lawyers of this place have gone to Salem to attend the Supreme Court.
GONE.—Mrs. Tyson of Illinois, who has spent a couple of weeks in town, started for her home last Wednesday.
IMPROVING.—We notice several improvements going on in town, such as building sidewalks and porches in front of the stores on Main street.
OFF FOR THE COAST.—W. H. Teal and family of this place, started for the coast last Wednesday, we hope he will have a good time.
FIRE.—The fire alarm was given last Monday evening when everybody started with buckets and other tools to put it out, when they arrived at the place, they found that it was nothing except a straw pile, which some boys had set on fire.
The Oregonian comes to us in an entire new dress, its appearance is splendid and it is not exaggeration, when we say; that the Oregonian is one of the best papers in Oregon, and its influence is very considerable, we wish it abundant success.
No Telling What Can Be Done
The Humble Bee for June is on our table, and is an evidence of the fact that "some things can be done as well as others." It is published by Thompson and Lambert, at Albion Illinois, at the low price of one dollar a year, and every subscriber receives free a beautiful oil chromo 12x17 inches, such as they would have to pay $8 for in the picture stores. The articles with which it is filled are so well chosen that a person gets as much really good reading in a copy of the Humble Bee as they do in one of many of the high priced magazines. We notice they have also one of the best club lists ever offered to the public, so that anyone who reads at all can afford to take it. Everyone should send stamp for sample copy. See advertisement in his paper.

LOCAL BREVETIES.
Warm weather.
Bridges down this way need fixing.
All the blacksmiths in town seem to be busy at work.
Hay is selling from four to eight dollars per ton, in this place.
On Thursday we noticed that the scales in front of the Court House were being repaired.
Swimming time has come again, all the boys in town are in almost daily.
For the very best photographs go to Brady & Ruloffson's Gallery without STAIRS—ASCEND IN THE ELEVATOR, 24 Montgomery street, San Francisco.

NOTICE
The new postage law goes into effect on the first of July. We desire that all our exchanges would be sent to us regularly as before, no matter what the postage cost us.

Wood's Household Magazine, for July is ahead of any previous number, and we consider its usual standard excellence, this is rare praise indeed. It is household, not only in name but in character, and its table of contents shows a wonderful adaptation of articles to the individual members of the family circle. "Sister Little Girl," a temperance story by Mary Barwell, "Weather-tough Block," by Karl Kase, "How the Vow was Kept," by H. V. Osborne, "Lunatics at Large," by Rev. F. W. Holland, and the "Declaration of Independence," by J. B. W. Kelsey, D. D., are among the more noticeable articles. The Childrens Department is crowded full, and contains a poem, in baby-talk, which without doubt, will be very acceptable to the little ones. The price of the magazine is one dollar a year. Address

FOR RELIABLE FIRE INSURANCE.
APPLY TO THE OLD
PHENIX OF HARTFORD
because
First, It has complied fully with the Oregon State Law.
Second, Its contracts in Oregon are backed, under a re-insurance contract, by its own and the united assets of the Home Ins. Co. of New York and the North British and Mercantile Ins. Company of London, aggregating $22,544,087 97 offering the best security of any Fire Insurance Company or Association in the world.
Third, It can carry large risks, as its policies are re-insured by the above mentioned Companies, so that the PHENIX alone can carry the same line that all three companies would take separately.
Fourth, It requires but one set of papers in case of loss; thus giving the security of three Companies without the trouble of dealing with separate Corporations.
On these solid merits, viz:
Capacity to carry the largest risks,
The simplest possible security,
The simplest adjustment in case of loss, and
The prompt and equitable payment of all just claims,
The Phoenix Insurance Company solicits your patronage.
