THE GOODRICH TRGEDY.

Full ! Confession of Kate Stoddard-Goodrich, her Paramour, Killed by Her for Having Deserted Her, and Being About to Mary another Woman.

On the night of the 21st March last, Charles Goodrich, a young man well known in Brooklyn, was killed in a basement in that city. The affair was involved in great mystery. Every effort to ascertain who the perpetrator of the act was failed. It was believed to have been a woman, but she could not be found. A few days ago the telegraph stated that the murderess had bren discovered. She is a girl from Middleborough, Massachusetts. Goodrich fell in with her in New York, and they lived together. After the murder she lived in Brooklyn, where she was discovered by a woman who had formerly known her. Her confessions is as follows:

She had been living with "Charlie as she called the deceased, and was greatly attached to him. He wanted to cast her off, but she loved him so much that she could not leave him. She entreated him on her knees to let her remain with him, but he was firm and in fact brutal in his treatment of her; and the Thursday before the Friday on which the body was found, was the day fixed for her to leave him. He threatened her with all sorts of things if she dared to trouble him further. She had remained in the house in Degraw street all the previous evening, and in the morning when Goodrich got up she again besought him not to cast her off. He was very angry and refused her request, or to hear her at all. He then went into the basement, at the front of the house, and proceeded to light the Baltimore 1 eater, located there. The murderess said she loved the man so much that she could not leave him. When she saw him determined to discard her she worked herself up to murder him. She had one of his revolvers in her pocketnot the one detectives lying in the house beside the corpse-and while Goodrich was stooping down on one hand and knee, in the act of lightning the heater, she drew the pistol, and extending her hand toward him, she said, "Charlie." He looked up and she shot him three times.

She states: "I killed him for love. I could not part with patient was closely questioned, and which they agreed to serve them; and urnet on short notice and on reasonable him." A reporter was informed that she had attempted to commit suicide. He went to the police authoroties, but they denied any knowledge of the matter. Since the tragedy she has had a terribly afflicted with a disgusting disterrible struggle for life. Working at ease that had not only broke out on his times as a sewing girl, she made money body, but had even made its appearance she was compelled to sell her cloths the nuils were running, festering sores, verge of starvation, she kept the jewelry with scabs of most offensive appearance. and money of her victim lying The doctor without more ado, boldly watch and chain, finger ring and seal, leisure, though the coolie continued and a pocketbook with forty dollars in bills in it, believed to be the indentical money taken from the murdered man. was found in a trunk, with three chambers loaded and three empty. Every article of property from smoking eigars manufactured in seems to have carefully preserved.

There is probabilty that she will be hanged for marder. But though crime like hers must be punished. Goodrich seems to have well deserved the fate he met at her hands.

- A late dispatch says it believed, after all, that the real murderer was a man named Roscoe, and that this woman, whose name is Kate Stoddard, alias Lizzie King, is assuming the responsibilty in order to shield him. But this is not proved, and she steadily denies that she had an accomplice .- Bulletin.

A STARTLING DISCOVERY.

"Within the past few days a most startling discovery has been made in the case of a certain gentleman who is much addicted to the use of tobacco. and, from what we can learn, it must have a decided influence on the trade in that article in this city. Some days After she had committed the murder ago the gentleman in question, who has she waited all that day and night in been a great smoker for a number of the house, watching it. On Friday years, noticed a tickling sensation in morning she had occasion to go to his throat at the base of the tongue and the murdered man with a towl, which feeling, and he decided to leave off the

We have not given the name of the gentleman who has been so unfortunate, for reasons which will be readity understood. The physician who is treating him gives it as his opinion that there are many shops in this city in which similar cases may be found among the coolies employed therein, and advised all prudent people to be careful in the selection of their cigars. It is well known that the organic poison of the ulcers, such as were on the hands of the coolie mentioned, coming in contact with the mucus membrane, is bound to induce infection, and there is no telling how many of our smokers may be suffering from this terrible disorder, contracted in the way we have described. It is estimated that there are 8,000 Chinese cigar makers employed in this city. We give these facts for the benefit of all smokers. Be cautious in the selection of your eigars !

Resolved, That, in and by all efforts to sell in the dearest markets and buy in the cheapest, to secure for us such articles as are indispensable to our well-being and comfort, we will stand by and assist each other until final success crowns our efferts, and we placed, in society and citizenship, the equal of the proudest monopolits that tread our soil.

Resolved, That, while we regard with favor the universal brotherhood of man, neither distance, clime, nor country can destroy the right to buy, trade, traffic, or sympathize with the toiling millions who strive to and show willingness to eat their bread in .the sweat of their face.

Resolved, That, for the promotion of these ends and purposes, we pledge ourselves to use all and every lawful means to induce our Congressmen to reduce the opprestive and obnoxious portion of our present tariff to that point 12 that will give relief to the masses and a furnish revenue; and also to return to the al principles of honesty that characterized ar our Government when run by farmers f earlier days.

Resolved, That we will heartily co+ // perate with all clubs, granges, andil Patrons of Husbandry in their labors for our final emancipation.

Resolved, That our motto is, and is hereby declared to be, Association, Information, Co, operation, Remuneration, and Equal Taxation.
