Miss Saddle Shreve, is making DRESSES in the latest and best style, also cutting and fitting, and all kinds of plain sewing done with neatness and dispatch.

For the very best photographs go to Bradley & Bulfoison's Gallery without STAIRS—ASCEND IN THE ELEVATOR, 24 Montgomery, street, San Francisco.

R. A. Ray, of Eola, wants all the wheat in Polk County, for which he will pay seventy five cents per bushel, now, and at all times the highest price.

The next meeting of the Liberals for this county, will be held at the usual place at three o'clock instead of the usual hour.

A fine line of family groceries at Clarke's Post Office, which will be sold every low for CASH

All kinds of Produce bought and sold—New goods every few days—Terms cash or trade—I keep No Books, and by saving time and paper, and expense of collecting, can sell lower as a matter of course.

We didn't laugh, when Al Graham drove up in front of this office with a wagon load of ripe apples, potatoes, cabbage, beans, beets, and every other thing imaginable, that grows in an Oregon garden—all fresh, and of the very best quality—oh no! of course we didn't. We do not attempt to give the number of thousand pounds that weighed down that wagon, but this we saw, it was hauled by two fine horses weighing seventeen hundred pounds each, and both seemed tired from hauling it. If the world was full of such men, all but the cruelty to animals, it would be full of happiness.

AMUSEMENT.—The great Panorama of the Modoc war, scenes in Ireland, Yo-Semite views grand and wonderful, and the Franco Prussian war was exhibited at the court house on Wednesday evening to a large number of the good people of Dallas, who seemed to appreciate the wonderful works of art to a degree which no doubt was very satisfactory and gratifying to the gentlemanly proprietors. As the scenes of the Modoc massacre and murders were presented, the very blood in the veins of lookers-on coursed rapidly, and made its appearance in the already anxious faces of the audience, who I imagined for the moment, they were actually gazing upon the real tragedy. This exhibition is no humbug, but is worth seeing. We think it deserves, and feel assured it will receive a liberal support.

We call special attention to the notice of Miss Saddle Shreve at the head of this column. We advise those who desire sewing done neatly and promptly to give her a call.

Every reader of the Aldine for August is sure to be charmed with its beautiful and seasonable illustrations, as well as pleased with its fresh and piquant literary contents. A magnificent full-page marine view opens the number, from the pencil of M. F. H. de Haas N. A., one of our great painters of water scenes. It is a truthful sketch of what may be seen almost any day on Long Island sound. Mr. F. T. Vance, who has made the region a study, contributes a series of original pictures of the grand Adirondack mountains and lakes, which are very timely, as that region is now full of pleasure seekers. There is a page-picture of "Lake Colden," remarkable for its lights and shadows, depth and feeling; one of "Avalanche Lake;" another of "Calamity Pond Brook;" and an charming one of "Flume Falls of the Opalescence;"—four as fine views from the proposed great National Park, as ever appeared in an Art journal. James Sutton & Co., publishers, 58 Maiden Lane.

THAT INDIAN.—Which his name it is Peter He came to the city ya! evon Dallas. Peter is a dignified Indian, and he sports a plug hat A La Lafollette; as to his other clothing "tis said to say" 'tis hardly worth mentioning. In fact his tout ensemble is like unto an individual known in the emblazoned volumes of fame as Elax Break at Long Branch, as photographed by our special artist, on the spot. Peter waxed tired, morpheous gently sat him down on a goods box in front of Clark's Grocery store, he slept, and as he slept he gave vent to his august mind, "into the land of dreams it fled," anon he slew the bear and eat the frisky grass-hopper for a slight diversion; he occasionally would dash out the brains of a sleeping babe, with a tomahawk presented by a missionary. But such a blissful state on this sublimar sphere could not last forever. A vile youth had meanwhile stuck a large cork of Lucifer matches heads up, he cut a notch in the other end of that cork to fit on to the bridge of Peter's nose—it stuck, calmly and booby like that child of the forest—slept on. The youth lit a match and set it to the match in the cork, verily there was a fire on that "Bridge of sighs" Peter rose in the air—he eventually lit, but lit a running; the last ever seen of that Indian, two sparrows had went to roost on the tail of his unmentionables; so level did he run, a prolong war whoop, a fix, a stale smell of sulphur, and that Indian was in the La Creole. The goods box in front the grocery store that knew him once, knows him no more forever.

PHENIX OF HARTFORD

First, It has complied fully with the Oregon State Law

Second, Its contracts in Oregon are backed, under a re-insurance contract by its own and the united assets of the Home Ins. Co. of New York and the North British and Mercantile Ins. Company of London, aggregating $27,000,000 offering the best security of any Fire Insurance Company or Association in the world.

Third, It can carry large risks, as its policies are re-insured by the above mentioned Companies, so that the PHOENIX alone can carry the same line that all three companies would take separately.

Fourth, It requires but one set of proofs in case of loss; thus giving the security of three Companies without the trouble of dealing with separate Corporations.

On these solid merits, viz: Capacity to carry the largest risks, The simplest adjustment in case of loss, and The prompt and equitable payment of all just claims.
