Democrat's Young America is as full of novelties as an egg is full of meat. The September No. of this entertaining Juvenile monthly will be a valuable accession to any family of children. An announcement is made that hereafter it will be furnished at $1.00 per year with a valuable Premium. Girls and Boys please note this. Address W. Jennings Democrat, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

Mr. Walter Jackson whose advertisement appears in this issue, takes pleasure in saying to the citizens of Polk county, that he has now on hand a full and complete stock of the new text books recently adopted by the State Board of Education for the public schools of Oregon, also a large assortment of Miscellaneous books, Blank Books and General Stationery, Chickering and Emerson Pianos, Mason and Hamlin and Taylor and Farley Organs which he is selling at Portland rates Those wishing anything in his line would do well to give him a call.

Democrat's Monthly Magazine for September is rich in literary novelties, and also gives a fine display of the new Fall Fashions. Democrat seems to outbid all his contemporaries in the value of Premiums to his subscribers; He announces an astounding offer for 1874, of the large and celebrated Chromo, "The Old Oaken Bucket," after Jerome Thompson, several other equally large and valuable Chromos, "The Captive Child," "Home Sweet Home," and "After the Storm," for the ensuing three years, worth $15 each. This is certainly unparalleled, and we wonder how it can be done. Send for Circular. Address W. Jennings, Democrat, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

SEVERE CRITICISM.—We had overlooked in the Statesman until recently a severe criticism on the freedom of one of our citizens residing in this county. The article is headed 'monstrosity,' and has reference to Mr. R. P. Gilliam who resides about five miles south of town. The Statesman thinks Mr. Gilliam ought not to have his liberty yoked to do not see why a man's liberty should be taken from him, simply because from sickness he has been unfortunate enough to become a cripple. Mr. Gilliam's nervous system is so much affected, that he has no control of his limbs and is compelled to have assistance in getting about, and we can see no cause for the great fright of the Statesman unless his mind is perturbed, and if the Statesman had stopped long enough to converse with Mr. Gilliam, he would have become fully satisfied that no one was in danger, and also that Mr. G. had as great a share of common sense as some other men, even if within the last fifty years they were connected with the Statesman, nor is the statement true that his parents are quite wealthy they are poor people, but honest and respectable.

The Phenological Journal for September now on our table, must be pronounced by every reader a capital number. Its examination has given us much satisfaction. It contains over twenty set articles, besides shorter papers; among them being Hiram Powers, with portrait; Extraordinary Scientific Discovery; Living Unto Life; Dr. Horatius Bonar, with portrait; Laughter illustrated; Sketches from Real Life, No. 4, illustrated; Good Behavior—which everybody should read; Prof. J. M. Kieffer, with portrait; Mary Lee's dream, a story for teachers; Over-training; Curiosities of Abstinence; Local Option, or The Temperance Experiment at Vieuland; Dr. Wilder's Wit and Wisdom; From Chebygan to Mackinac on job; The Chinese Wheelbarrow, illustrated; John T. Gordon, a murderer, with portrait, etc. Subscription price, $3 a year. S. R. Wells, Publisher, 389 Broadway, New York.

MEDICAL.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., PRACTICAL AND ANALYTICAL CHEMISTS, LOWELL, MASS. PRICE $1.00.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has become known and its extraordinary character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to it, it should be provided with this antidote for it.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed incurable, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else subsides and for Croup, it should be given. Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it. Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Stramonium, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is in no wise injurious to any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the squatter districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed. Unaccommodated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity. For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
