

The Liberal Republican.
DALLAS, SATURDAY SEPT. 6.
FACTS AND FANCIES.

The "slave of the ring"—A bride.
A grant for the West—Emmi-grant.
A chin that's never shaved—An urchin.

A book for the table—One full of plates.
Set together by the ears—Sheaves of wheat.

What does a man see in the wild, wild waves?—Sea foams.

St. Jo has a man with legs so bow-legged that he has his pants cut by a circular saw.

Christianity is the worst trade, but the best calling in the world.

Miss construction—Whalebone and paint, powder and wadding.

If you want to know whether a tree is hollow or not, ax it.

Who was Richard the Third before he was "himself?"

The best band to accompany a lady vocalist.—A husband.

If you are out in a driving storm, don't attempt to hold the reins.

Widowers never die of grief. Just let them alone and will soon re-wive.

The recent forest fires in Michigan destroyed about eight thousand acres of woods.

Queen Elizabeth always displayed her worst temper in her clothes. She was dreadfully suffled then.

An Irish editor says he can see no earthly reason why women should not be allowed to become medical men.

Advice to lovers: When you can not catch the last car at night, take a "buss" instead.

An old farmer said of his clergyman, whose sermon lacked point, "ah, yes, he's a good man, but he will rake with teeth upwards."

If poor George had not blown in the muzzle of his gun, sighed a rural widow, at the funeral of her late husband, last Saturday, he might of got plenty of squirrels. It was such a good for them.

Keep sober and then you can talk straight. One of our druggists was surprised the other day to hear a fellow injure if he had any Mrs. Soothlow's Winking Silyrup."

Josh Billings says: "There iz one thing about hen that looks like wisdom—they don't kakle much until after they have laid their eggs. Sum pholks are alwys a bragging and a cackling what they are going tew dew before hand."

The other afternoon a rural gentleman who was stand in a river street store over a register, attracted, general attention to himself by observing to his wife, "Mariar, I guess I'm agoin to have a fever, I feel such hot streaks a-runnin' up my my legs."

Two gentleman of Decatur, Illinois, went out hunting. One of them wore a new hunting shirt. He does not wear it now. And the hunting shirt is perforated with buckshot. His companion mistook him for a bear.

A jubilant Wisconsin Republic wrote two letters inmediately after election one to his son, consisting of the single word "hurrah!" and the other a letter of condolence to a dear friend who had lost his wife. In his excitement, he mixed the envelopes, and the result can be imagined, when the bereaved widow received the wrong letter.

A drunken fellow was walking up the street quite late the other night, singing at the top his voice, "Rock me to sleep mother, rock me to sleep." He staggered against a policeman, who replied: "I won't rock you to sleep, but I will club you so you will be glad to lay down and be quiet, if you don't shut up." He lost his voice right away pretty quick.

A man out in Germantown purchased a sun-dial last week, and set it up in his yard according to printed directions. He is so fascinated with it that he goes out every night before retiring, and examines the dial with a candle, so as to set his watch by the correct time. He wants to trade that watch now, because he says it loses as much as thirty five or forty hours every night since he got the sun dial!

SALEM ADVERTISEMENT

FOR RELIABLE FIRE INSURANCE
APPLY TO THE OLD
PHOENIX OF HARTFORD because

First, It has complied fully with the Oregon State Law

Second, Its contracts in Oregon are backed, under a re-insurance contract, by its own and the united assets of the Home Ins. Co. of New York and the North British and Mercantile Ins. Company of London, aggregating $22,564,087.97 offering the best security of any Fire Insurance Company or Association in the world.

Third, It can carry large risks, as its policies are re-insured by the above mentioned Companies, so that the PHOENIX alone can carry the same line that all three companies would take separately.

Fourth, It requires but one set of proofs in case of loss; thus giving the security of three Companies without the trouble of dealing with separate Corporations.

On these solid merits, viz:
Capacity to carry the largest risks,
The simplest possible security,
The prompt and equitable payment of all just claims,
The Phoenix Insurance Company solicits your patronage.

OUR RULES:

We buy or sell only on commission—charging a per centage for the amount which the property is sold or traded, for our services, due when the contract of sale or trade is made.

We will introduce purchasers to the owners of the property, and leave them free to make the best bargain they can, without any interference on our part.

We pay all advertising expenses, depending on our commission, when a sale or trade is made.

We show all property, where within reach, or give letters of introduction to reliable parties living near who will show it.

All letters of inquiry promptly and fully answered.
We have many applications from good, prompt paying men, who will pay 12 per cent for money, and give first class personal or real estate security, and pay all the expenses attending making out the papers, &c. Parties having money to loan will do well to apply to us before placing it elsewhere. We charge the lenders nothing for our services; the borrowers pay us. Entire Satisfaction given regarding the securities.

Attention is called to description of property or sale in the WEEKLY STATESMAN.
