

The Editor's "Treats."

The Editor's hardest task is to dispose of his time. His would be a monotonous life, indeed, were it not for the kindness of a few hundred people who call upon him every day to enliven his dull life with stories of their grievances, of their brain new enterprises, and with antediluvian anecdotes.

The business of the editor is to entertain itinerant lecturers, book canvassers, exchange fiends and other philanthropists. He gives his whole days to these. He writes his editorials at night after he has gone to bed.

The editor is never so happy as when he is writing complimentary notices. For ten cents' worth of presents he will gladly give ten dollars' worth of advertising—all on account of the pleasure it gives him to write you know.

The Verdict of The Jury.

We have just received a copy of the most popular piece of music ever published in this country, called the "Verdict March," composed by Eugene L. Blake. It is written in an easy style, so that it can be played on either piano or organ. The title page is very handsome, containing correct portraits of Hon. Geo. R. Corkhill, Hon. J. K. Porter, and Judge W. S. Cox; also a correct picture of the twelve jurymen who convicted the assassin of our late beloved President.

A Modern Miracle.

Mr. B. E. Larrabee, of Boston, Mass., one of the Directors of the New York and Boston Dispatch Express Co., who had been cured of Bright's Disease after lying at death's door for three weeks, by Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. In speaking of the remedy to a friend said: "I am rejoiced to say that this medicine has effected a perfect cure in my case, and with many of my friends, who have been afflicted with kidney troubles, either of long standing or in their acute forms, and who, under my advice, have used this most wonderful remedy."

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Just arrived direct from San Francisco, the largest and most complete assortment of men's and boys' hats ever brought to St. Helens, at McBride's store.

We have received a copy of the Oriental Casket published by L. Lum Smith, and edited by Emerson Bennett. It is published at 912 Arch Street Philadelphia. Subscription, $2.00. Its typographical appearance is splendid and the reading first class. It is one of the finest magazines for the money we have seen.

D. W. Prentice & Co. have sent us their Musical Journal for May. It is an interesting number and contains the following beautiful pieces of music: "The Old Cottage Clock," "Under the Roof-tree," a Song and Chorus, "Gondola Serenade." Subscription, 75 cts. pr. year, 107 First Street, Portland, Oregon.

We have received a copy of the West Shore in German. This is a splendid text book with which to learn German by comparing it with the West Shore in English. It shows L. Samuel is a man of great enterprise, and is bound to succeed.

FOSTORIA, OHIO, April 22, 1882.

Morgan Clark who resided in Idaho in 1864 since above date has been missing, any one knowing anything about his whereabouts will confer a lasting favor by communicating with

H. B. CLARK, Fostoria, Ohio.

Hon. Jackson Peacher will go around with S. A. Miles' fine stallion during the season. Those desiring fine horses, should improve this chance, as the stallion is one of the best in the whole country.

Enoch Shintaffer's saloon is very cleanly. Tom Welles keeps everything about the premises in prime order.

Dr. Stewart will occupy the same office with F. A. Moore, Esq. till he builds. His praise is in all sick families.

The West Shore should be patronized by every one. It is a prime necessity of Oregon, not merely an ornament.

Blakesley has lots of good grub. We know whereof we speak. Go and try it.

Met F. Hazen is selling his revolving safes like hot cakes.

W. H. Whitney is getting up some fine boats.
