

THE COLUMBIAN.
U. S. JOURNAL PAPER.

The Editor's "Treats."

The Editor's hardest task is to dispose of his time. His would be a monotonous life, indeed, were it not for the kindness of a few hundred people who call upon him every day to enliven his dull life with stories of their grievances, of their brain new enterprises, and with antediluvian anecdotes. When you grow up to be men and women, children, remember this, and spend all the time you can in the sanctum of the editor. He loves company so very much, you know, and sometimes has to sit silent and alone for a whole half minute. Is it not too bad?

The business of the editor is to entertain itinerant lecturers, book canvassers, exchange fiends and other philanthropists. He gives his whole days to these. He writes his editorials at night after he has gone to bed. The editor is never so happy as when he is writing complimentary notices. For ten cents' worth of presents he will gladly give ten dollars' worth of advertising—all on account of the pleasure it gives him to write you know.

We desire to extend to the citizens of Columbia County our grateful thanks for past liberal patronage and while soliciting its continuance for the future, hope through you to gain many new patrons; we have added to our large stock of Drugs and Medicines, a complete stock of Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Window Glass, &c. &c., and sell as low as the lowest; our place being central, affords a convenient place for storing your parcels when in town making purchases, and we extend a cordial invitation to all to make our place headquarters.—Come and see us.

Very Respectfully,
WOODARD, CLARKE & CO.

"The most perfect gem in the song line that we have seen for many a day has just been issued by Sherman, Clay & Co. of San Francisco. The title is "There May be Eyes as Brightly Beaming," the music is arranged by H. M. Cosworth, the song is in the original key of E. flat, as sung by Mr. Digby Bell in "Madame Favart." The marked price is 35 cents."

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 4, 1881.
H. H. Warner & Co. Sirs:—I have recommended your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure to many hundreds of people from Texas to New York, have seen it tried by many of these, and have yet to hear of a single case of failure.

COL. JOHN C. WHITNER,

We have received a copy of the Oriental Casket published by L. Lum Smith, and edited by Emerson Bennett. It is published at 912 Arch Street Philadelphia. Subscription, $2.00. Its typographical appearance is splendid and the reading first class. It is one of the finest magazines for the money we have seen.

D. W. Prentice & Co. have sent us their Musical Journal for May. It is an interesting number and contains the following beautiful pieces of music: "The Old Cottage Clock," "Under the Roof-tree," a Song and Chorus, "Gondola Serenade." Subscription, 75 cts. pr. year, 107 First Street, Portland, Oregon.

We have received a copy of the West Shore in German. This is a splendid text book with which to learn German by comparing it with the West Shore in English. It shows L. Samuel is a man of great enterprise, and is bound to succeed.
