

THE COLUMBIAN. U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. Mr. Wolverton closed his services at St. Helen, Scappoose Bay and Columbia City last Sunday. He had morning and evening services at St. Helen and a baptism; Jennie and Cora Miles joined the Church, and were baptized near the shipyard. Rev. Mr. Wolverton's discourse Sunday evening was very interesting. He has won golden opinions while laboring in this field, and has not been without his sheaves to return to the garner-house of God. He will soon remove from Portland to Corvallis, where he will preach, and be Principal of the Preparatory Department in the Agricultural College. He has been indeed a faithful laborer.

The Circus under the management of J. S. McCue, an old stage-man—editor, &c. &c. gave St. Helen a call last evening, and exhibited to a full audience. This is the first circus that has exhibited in Columbia County. Many of the feats equalled anything we ever saw. The feats of the trained horse, Americus were particularly interesting. There were two other trained horses, Abe and Boston. The exhibition of Hercules was ahead of that of a similar character in any of the circuses we have visited. It exhibits to-night at Astoria.

New Goods.

Arrived this week a full assortment of newest styles of dress goods including Brocades, Grenadines, Brocades, Seersuckers, Fancy Ginghams and mousseline cloths also American prints, white goods, Ladies' and Misses' hosiery in all colors, Lis' thread gloves, Embroidery &c. &c. at McBride's Store.

William Slavins and his father-in-law have been putting up the partition fence between Frogmore and Milton, torn down by the refuse drifted in there by the Muckles running their logs on the inside through the small slough opening into Milton Creek.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST

A large and well assorted stock of men's boots, men's women's, and children's shoes of all kinds carefully selected by Mr. Gilboer in San Francisco now arriving and to arrive at McBride's store. Especial care has been taken to get the very best goods in the market.

A number of monogams have come down from Portland for parties lately deceased. One for Mr. William Meeker, one for Mrs. Blakesley, one for Mr. Woodman's son James, and one for Hattie Amelia Hancock.

Banker Hill is the great resort this year, 14 teams have gone up there the past week beside persons on horseback. The blackberries will get pretty well cleaned out we should think.

Thomas Loudon came over the other morning for a doctor for Jacob Shubert, taken with cramps, and in a critical condition. He had eaten a lot of uncooked peas in the pea-patch.

NEWS DROPS.

All persons are forbidden running logs inside of the Neck on Frogmore Place. If they persist, they will be dealt with according to law.

If any one fails to get their paper at the St. Helen Post office it is not our fault, as we tally every paper and assure we put them in.

Mr. William Wolf says the latest novelty in nightgowns has a wolf brand on it. As he is posted in the fashions he ought to know.

On Sunday received a call from Mr. James A. Ragin and Charlie Hancock. On Saturday from Mr. and Mrs. Hancock.

The house bought by Conkling has been moved. We understand he intends an addition to it.

Mr. William Wolf and Mr. Hendrickson have boated their stock back to Sauvie's Island.

Wanted 5,000 rails, for which cash will be paid by Major Adams.

Received a call on Tuesday evening from Rev. Mr. Wolverton.

The Conyers family are camping out on the Clatskanie.

A family lately moved into the Nehalem Valley.

The Muckle Bros. are deepening their well.
