

Something About Curtains.

There is no one thing that adds so much to the furnishing of a room as curtains. With a good carpet, nice walls, tasty curtains, though you have little furniture in your room, it will look quite elegant.

The Garfields.

Mrs. Lucretia R. Garfield, wife of the late president, is living quietly with her children and his mother in Cleveland.

On bright Saturdays Mrs. Garfield and the children take a run down to Menor and remain until Monday. She still takes a great interest in matters there, and the neighbors say that her whole desire seems to be to do everything just as the general intended.

The new $50,000 residence which Mrs. Garfield has lately purchased on Prospect street, in this city, was selected, I am informed, by Dr. Boynton. It is quite large, but probably none too large for her some what extended family.

Social Mathematics.—A mathematical professor had been invited by a city friend to visit him at his residence in a certain square, and had promised to do so.
