COLUMBIA CITY.

Monday we were down to Columbia City. This burg has aroused from its Rip Van Winkle sleep and now begins to show signs of life. The mill is running. We noticed there the face of our old friend Spencer the school teacher, in the mill sawing genuine blocks instead of trying to instruct blockheads. B. C. Failing has rented the large commodious Butts House, and has already 10 boarders. His wife is the lively Miss Heald. We saw Miss Alice Enyard, lately a belle of St. Helen Society.

China toads were built on the top of Hez. Caples' hill, and while we were partaking of a sumptuous repast at the hospitable board of Hezekiah Caples, a Mr. Shuck, Superintendent of the Railroad Chinamen, called on Capt. Caples to haul a load of dynamite, with which to blow off the rocks. Mrs. Caples felt a little nervous as she did not want her husband grieved over ear night and day since the railroad work commenced. Capt. Bonser, Mrs. Caples' father, has had great success in catching smelt having earned many dollars thereby. He lives on the Butts farm across the river. We caught sight of many Chinamen with basket hats, on the ridges between the late Mr. Gum's and Columbia City.

Charley Webb, who so faithfully nursed Gum in his last sickness will soon commence fishing for salmon. He is offered a dollar apiece for every salmon. Charley is a good boy, and was a long time a soldier in the 22d Infantry (regulars).

G. W. McBride will soon close his store in Columbia City, calls all indebted to pungle.

Mr. Jacob Bensch has a fine boy named Otto. He intends soon to remove to the Cowemans.

Mrs. Maxwell was gone to Portland. C. G. Caples sold Rev. Mr. Dillman, Catholic priest a block for $600. Hezekiah Caples had sold many lots lately for $125 a lot. He intends to open a store on Front Street soon. Mrs. Caples looked as charming as ever.

Mr. Louis Baxter is at work in the mill so is his step-son, Joseph Emerick. Mr. Jewell's wife is still quite feeble. Mr. Jewell works in the mill. He was a gallant soldier in the Dakota Country, and can tell many a lively story about General Sully and Indian Campaigns.

Mr. Harris has lots of work. Miss Willie Caples is growing into a fine young lady, so is Dell. Willie resembles the McBrides very much.

UPPER SCAPOOSE ITEMS.

NORTH SCAPOOSE, OGN.
March 18th, 1883.

MAJOR ADAMS—Dear Sir: As you were informed last week of the doings and sayings of this part of the country by a member of society in this community who calls himself SPOORENDYKE, & as I have been accused of being this person, I wish to inform a few of the readers of your paper that I am not the writer.

He speaks of some of the young ladies making masques &c. &c. The question of the day who this society SPOORENDYKE is.

Harry West is going to logging on his father's place soon. I saw him today down on the Bay looking for boomsticks.

J. W. Campbell is in our neighborhood for the purpose of surveying R. R. land. Joe is a rustler.

J. D. McKay has a large contract of making rails for W. W. West. Help wanted. Inquire of contractor. Messrs. McNamoe has stopped logging for this season. He was unlucky as there was not enough water to get logs to the Bay.

Downing is doing a rushing business in the way of logging. He is a man that understands the business well.

Yours truly,
J. P. W. D. D.

The Telegram is beautiful and enlarged. The Polaris has changed hands and comes out as a Sunday paper. It is witty, brilliant and readable, and decidedly Frenchy.

LOCAL NEWS.

Sunday ourself and family called at Mr. William Harris' and Mr. Davis' on the Scappoose road. There was a sick house at Mr. Harris'. The old lady is a great sufferer, and George was quite ill. Mrs. Garrison was there doing all the friendly offices a symyathizing sister and daughter could do. She has a beautiful young babe, and is a very fine woman. At Mr. Davis' we had a grand time. Mr. Davis is an old soldier, served gallantly in the 10th Iowa Regt. during the Rebellion. Mrs. Davis is a woman of cultured and refined manners. Their daughter played and sang us some beautiful songs on their Palace organ. Miss Bertha Davis has a very strong voice, rich, sweet and powerful. The Davises expect to move soon, as Mr. Joseph Copeland intends to gather his family together at that place. Isaac intends to come back from College at Monmouth, Dora from the Sisters' school in Portland, and Mrs. Mollie Kellogg will spend some time with them, and little Josie and the widowed father will complete the family group. Wm. has rented the place across on the Lower Willamette river or slough.

The Band of Hope gave an entertainment at the church on Saturday night. This was a good beginning. Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Adams deserve much credit for their effort, all of them are women with multifarious cares and duties of their own, and had not sufficient time to train the young hopefuls as they should be; besides they could never get them all together at one time to practice their pieces and some of the girls took a contrary fit; but nevertheless all did well considering the circumstances and show that in time they could give an exhibition creditable to the intelligence of St. Helen. Many readings and recitations were fine, and much of the music was good. We would mention names, but for fear we should hurt the feelings of some we will not specify. The next time they give an entertainment all should be present and give their encouragement as these exhibitions are not for fame, for money or glory, but only to interest and benefit the children.

We could not help thinking when we saw Hofsteater & Co. pay the rent for the little field they occupied to the Muckle Bros. how different the treatment they expected from that which they were willing to give. They have used Frogmore for years, realized thousands of dollars out of it, torn down our fences with their hands and legs, and never paid us a cent of rent. To pay us they have assailed us publicly and privately, tried to starve us out in every shape they knew how, and yet they have the effrontery to call themselves honest, square-dealing men. Verily the cheek of some men is past belief.

Miss Dora Copeland and Josie took the Dew Drop the other day to visit their uncle James Copeland at his new mansion on Lewis River. Dora played and sang the piece "Father why so sadly weeping" with a pathos like a wind sweeping the waves of the ocean. Her father could not endure to hear it, and Mr. Blakesley listened with tears in his eyes. We believe if she should sing in public this piece she would entrance the people as Albat did the audience at Albany New York when she sang "Sweet Home."

Merritt Pomeroy brought up two cans of smelt from Rainier. An Italian has started in there to can them. It is thought they will supersede the sardine. They are called candle fish. They are first put in a vat with salt water, then put in the cans and cooked whole. Mr. Pomeroy gave one can to Judge Moore, and one to Glendye. Glendye should light one of these candle fish, and illumine his path with it to honor and renown. Pomeroy gave us nary a smell of smelt, and we must plod on in darkness.

We are sorry to learn that the editor of a St. Helens' exchange "missed a good dinner at Judge Moore's" one day last week. If brains were on the menu, it was an irreparable loss to him.—Times Mountaineer.

Major Adams' intellect don't lie in his stomach as does that of Mr. Mereshell. The result of Mr. Mereshell's weekly issue was carried out on a half sheet on the 17th. He is another Michigan, not a goose stirred, only a gander stirred.

We met Dr. Blanchard the other day. For the time he has been here he has done much for Columbia County. He has brought in 16 settlers with means into Columbia County. He informed us Maud Semple at the Sisters' school in Portland had been quite ill, and also that Mrs. Blanchard had had much trouble during the winter from inflammatory rheumatism, but was improving in health. Mr. Eugene Semple has gone to St. Louis, but will return soon.

David C. Cook of 46 Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois is a most enterprising business man, and sends out everything in the shape of papers, lesson quarterlies, Sunday School helps, cards, rewards, Bibles, organs, library books, &c. &c. everything required in a Band of Hope, or modern Sunday School run on the most approved plan. He sells every thing cheaply and is as prompt as an eight day clock.

The Washington World and Citizen-Soldier, the Old Soldier's Paper, the People's Paper, is now in its eighth year, enlarged to 48 columns, 8 pages, in entire new dress, every week, at only One Dollar a year. Specimen copy free to any address, on receipt of postal card request, by the World and Soldier Publishing Co., World building, 1105 F. St. Washington, D. C.

We have received the March number of the West Shore. It is just splendid, if you don't believe it, send for it. We have the Art Amateur, also. It is grand to read, and a credit to the United States to issue a magazine so interesting and replete with useful knowledge of how to make home happy.

Mr. N. C. Hillery's baby is just as good as can be. Mrs. Watts nursed Mrs. Hillery, and she got along first-rate. Her mother, Mrs. Warnstaff from Astoria has been up to see her grandson and daughter. The Warnstaff boys remember us as their old teacher with much affection.

Miss Amanda Merrill has returned from Oregon City where she has been visiting her sister, the wife of Hon. T. A. McBride. Mr. McBride's children have all had the whooping-cough. Georgia Giltner caught it while visiting there some time since.

Glendye, the editor of the mist, has got the appointment of night watchman in the mill, this gives him a chance to perfect himself in the study of Astronomy, lay off lots in the moon, an addition to Albina. See Albina Herald about Old Jerusalem.

In D. W. PRENTICE & Co.'s Musical Journal for March you will find the following music: "Once in a Life-Time," "Sunday Morning," and "Nilsson Waltz." All for ten cts. or 75 cts. per year, published at 107 First St., Portland, Oregon.

Have received the Woman's World, Chicago, Illinois. The Editor is Helen Wilhams, and it is very interesting, the best journal of the kind we ever read. Yearly subscription $1.00. Office, Briggs House, corner of Randolph and Fifth Avenue.

The editors that think anybody living on the Lower Willamette River bottoms can't throw as much mud as anybody will get mistaken. Why, it is all mud here, only occasionally a rock gets mixed in with the mud, and that hurts.

It seems our enemies must be hard up for material to assail us when they prostitute the sacred precincts of public offices to publish to the world matters of private business which are just and honorable, and the right of any man.

We think Mrs. Dr. Yergain's forte is that of a public singer, and if she had the confidence would coin thousands of dollars. She has a voice rich and powerful, but its pathos is what would entrance people and unlock purses.

Dr. Giltner and son lately from Yale are visiting at B. F. Giltner's. The young man gave us a call. Rash Giltner is studying law in Portland, and bids fair to be at the head of the legal talent of Oregon.

Last Sunday Rosa and Lottie Edmonds came out to visit Blanche. They are beautiful little girls, good and pure as early spring violets. Also on Monday received a call from Mrs. Moore and daughter Nellie.

Farmers and others desiring a genteel lucrative agency business, by which $5 to $20 a day can be earned, send address at once, on postal, to H. C. WILKINSON, & Co., 193 and 197 Fulton Street, New York.

NEWS DROPS.

Miss Dell Butler has returned to St. Helen.

A. H. Blakesley has lots of use for his fine spars of horses.

Mrs. Briggs has a young daughter, so Mrs. Perry informs us.

We see again the pleasant countenance of Hector McLean.

Mrs. Watkins has a very sweet voice, one of the best in St. Helen.

W. H. Whitney is building an addition to Judge Moore's office.

The dry weather still continues, and give all a fine chance to put in early crops.

Money to loan on real estate security by F. A. Moore Esq., St. Helen, Oregon.

Miss Nelly Moore starts to-day to attend school at St. Helen's Hall, in Portland.

J. S. Davenport has a fine quality of cigars. Every one that smokes should try them.

The Albina Herald tells about Wiggins (Wiggins), a new breed of fowl. Let 'em wig!

Mrs. Decker had a nice family picture of herself and children taken lately in Portland.

The cry of all is like the cry of the Genesee when he discovered Ameriky, "Land! land!"

J. T. M Nulty is hauling cordwood for a man cutting cordwood on Captain Lemont's claim.

Charley Blakesley and others are applying white paint to the elegant front of the new hotel.

Prof. Garrison is meeting with great success as a teacher of penmanship in the upper country.

Mr. Morse remains about the same. Sometimes he is better then falls back to his old status.

C. G. Caples has taken up the tide-land in front of Specht's farm, and the latter is exceeding wrath.

Cora Miles has a splendid voice so has Calista Moore. Cora throws her whole soul into her singing.

The St. Helen Band of Hope return thanks to the Grand Lodge for another supply of Badges and Rituals.

Mr. Gering is over to put up fences on his place on Germany Hill. He brought over some splendid butter-milk.

Dr. Richardson has been down to visit Mr. Morse. Willis was down from Portland. Tuesday Mr. Morse was some better.

A reader of the COLUMBIAN of the 16th this spoke to a reader of the mist of the same date, "I'll read mine, and you can con yours."

Mr. George also Mr. Watkins have had wooden cisterns built and calked. A good idea. They universally have them down the river.

T. H. Cooper, our butcher, is a nephew of the late Hon. Ulysses Jackson, formerly one of the richest men in Washington County.

J. L. Benham has great varieties of seed potatoes of the latest and most celebrated kinds. He is a live man in everything relating to a garden.

The Muckles have raised the wages of the mill-hands, but at the same time everything else has gone up—goods—yeast powder and last—the mist.

Mrs. Drew has named her boy Stewart Elden and the Doctor promises a new pair of red top boots as soon as his boy is big enough to wear them.

The sidewalk built across the St. Helen Street mostly at the expense of S. A. Miles is a great convenience. Judge Moore and Jacob George contributed to the project.

Hofsteater & Co. Photograph Artists return thanks for the liberal patronage they have received from the inhabitants of St. Helen and vicinity. They have gone to Toledo.

J. A. McElhany is clerking for Rosentfeldt at Pekin. The correspondent of the Independent called him "Michaelhaney." Mr. McElhany was formerly a St. Helen merchant.

Dr. E. Jessup delivered a very entertaining lecture last eve at the Court House to a full audience. The Doctor is a lively speaker, and keeps his listeners wide awake, and will always be welcome to the ear of the public.

Capt. Lemont has christened his place Plymouth. This was the original name of St. Helen. Whether named from Plymouth, Mass, or Plymouth, England, we cannot tell.

ST. HELEN BAND OF HOPE—Under the Superintendency of Mrs. Emma Moore, Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. Mary George, Chaplain, Mrs. J. E. Stewart, Secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Adams, Treasurer, Mrs. Ellen Perry, Chorister, Miss Dell Butler, Organist, Miss Nellie Moore. All of Evergreen Lodge. The Band of Hope meets every Saturday at 8 P. M. in the Church.
