Department of Public Instruction

The State Teachers' Association for 1883 has been appointed to meet at Salem, June 26th, and will continue in session June 27, 28 and 29. Teachers and friends of education in all parts of the State are cordially and earnestly invited to attend and take part in the discussions. An excellent programme is being prepared and will be printed for distribution as early as possible. Superior lectures and instruction will be given by the leading educators and teachers of our higher institutions of learning and the common schools.

Arrangements have been made for reduced rates on the principal lines of travel to all persons attending the Association.

The proprietors of the hotels and boarding houses in Salem will make a liberal reduction to teachers and others in attendance.

E. B. McElroy,
Supt. of Public Instruction.

NEWSPAPER MEN AT WAR.—Editors do some pretty hard fighting in their newspapers at times but they seldom come to blows, as was the case with Major Adams and Wm. Glendye, editors of the St. Helen Columbian and the Register respectively. The Major in his paper accused Mr. Glendye of choking and slandering his (Glendye's) wife in a shameful manner, (and we believe he did.) The latter sought revenge on the Major with a bull-whip a few days since but came out second best, with the old soldier on top. The Major says of the encounter: "The trophies left on the field were a bull-whip with the stuffing knocked out of it, an old necktie, and a bunch of beard of a fashionable old gold color." The victor while quoting astride of his victim, should have quoted the language of the illustrious old roman: "Hic haec hoc, sic semper McGinnis saleratus, sativica, nuxvomica, a plurius unum paragonum limburger go brah!"—Clarke County Register

We regret to hear of unseemly disturbances between our nearest journalistic neighbors. In the last issue of the Columbian Major Adams accused Glendye, editor of the Mist of beating his wife, choking that aforesaid lady and making it otherwise unpleasant for the partner of his joys and doubler of his expenses; in return the Mist editor started to thrash Adams, but the Major captured the weapon and, turned the tables by whipping him. There's a great big healthy moral in the occurrence; in fact two or three morals. The most prominent is—don't whip your wife.—Astorian.

LOCAL NEWS

Sunday we rode up to Richland Mills; we had only a light shower during our trip. Our family went with us; we had a chance to see the work on the Railroad. The whole country was alive with Chinamen and their tents. The piles for trestle work were standing white over the lowlands. We crossed the Sly Creek bridge, between the piling we noticed a new house on the route, that of Mr. Vaughn. Sometimes the R. R. was on one side of the County road and some times on the other. Mr. David Cloninger is putting up a fine house, so is Mr. Shattuck. He has also built a blacksmith's shop 25x31. Mr. Shattuck's house is very conveniently planned and will be a model of beauty, on both the inside and outside. Mrs. Shattuck has bought her daughter Lutfia a piano. Mr. West has built a fine barn painted in two colors.

When we arrived at Richland Mills we met a genial reception, and soon sat down to a dinner of great variety and splendid quality. Mr. and Mrs. Wats and her intelligent sons and charming daughters know how to dispense elegant hospitality in their beautiful home. Miss Eva Price was there, an intelligent young lady of Nehalem. To say we enjoyed ourselves would faintly express how we enjoyed ourselves. A pouring shower came on, but we were safely housed from the storm. After the rain was over we started, and had a grand time getting home. We called at Mr. Shattuck's and had a superb time with old and new friends.

It is rumored that Hon. Alanson Smith who married Judith McBride will be appointed Chief Justice of Idaho Territory. This would be a good selection as he is very competent. He used to be a partner of Mitchell & Dolph.

We would call particular attention to G. W. McBride's local Ad. entitled "Change."

Glendye says the Oregon mist is backed by a number of the wealthiest and most respected citizens of Columbia County. Anybody can judge how low down they are by keeping up a wife-beater. If his supporters are the wealthiest and most respected citizens of Columbia County, we had rather belong to the poorer class. There is no place except St. Helen in Oregon or Washington Territory that would tolerate even the presence of such a person and the fact that such a wretch is backed and supported by people as an Editor shows that the moral sense of a part of community at least is at the lowest standpoint, and far below semi-civilization, and fast becoming brutalized in instincts and tastes.

Glendye says there are mischief-makers and scandal-mongers in every community. He means to insinuate from that, we suppose, that Byron Caples Mr. McNelly and Mrs. T. A. McBride were scandal-mongers when they reported his brutality to his wife. All we published was true. He was chasing us around the streets for days before we got an interview with us so as to prevent the truth from getting to the public through the columns of the Columbian and interceding with J. W. Campbell to persuade us not to publish it. We should think he would have been afraid of injuring his character to be seen associating with "our crony."

Our harnesses came at last, and were beauties, and Graf, Morsbach and Co. Cincinnati, wear the bell. They are light and elegant yet strong and shining with their nickel plate ornaments they just fill our eye and the horses walk off very proudly in their new dress. No bale rope about them. Albina maligners can sit on the fence and see us go by, and people who feed so envious because they can't starve us will have to scratch the envious place. They will have to get used to our success, all their envious plans will only elevate us. The more they crowd us down, the higher we shall rebound, like an india rubber ball.

"If a man will perjure himself" so says the mist "it would be sheer nonsense to expect him to tell the truth about any ordinary matter." Perhaps whipping his wife is an ordinary matter with him, whom Pennsylvanians would call an "ornery cuss." We think the mouth piece should say very little about perjury when he recollects how much state land one of his principal backers has on a certain creek not a thousand miles from here. Perhaps he don't know subornation of perjury is a crime as well as perjury.

Just received this week, Pacific Mills Dress Goods, Canton Gingham, Lace and Embroideries, also a full assortment of Granite Iron Ware, Tin Ware, Scythes, Hayforks, Brushhooks, also Ladies Slippers and Sandals—new styles Ladies', Misses', and Children's Shoes for sale at the lowest market prices for Cash at McBride's Store.

Capt. D. R. Fales has a most magnificent variety of trees and shrubs on his place. The Captain and his agreeable wife are some of the best people in the wide, wide world. May time deal gently with them, and may it be many years before they pass away from this Earth they have blessed and beautified with their presence and labors.

Mrs. Glendye came up to get her things out of the Glendye mansion on Wednesday. She has sued for a divorce we understand. Glendye is not so much related to the Merrills as he used to be. He has treated her cruelly for years so all the neighbors and relatives say.

Mrs. Mollie Kellogg and Josie Copeland are both getting better of the measles. Lizzie Hendrickson and Rosa Slavens in town are both down with the measles. Lizzie Hendrickson, when in health is a very fine looking young lady, and dresses with much taste.

Nettie and Newton Perry have been over to Glendye lately to visit their sister-in-law, Oliver's widow, who has reared a beautiful marble monument to her deceased husband. On the top of it is a dove with outspread wings as if soaring to a better clime.

Grandma Kendal has returned to her home near Corvallis with her little granddaughter, Mary Blakesley. She is a noble type of the pioneer women of Oregon, and is much respected by all who know her. She has made many friends in St. Helen.

Ox-eye daisies have taken the place of sun flowers. They are all the rage now. They used to be called white weed when we were a boy, but now they are called daisies. Dirt is no longer dirt, it is terra cotta. Such are the mutations of time and fashion.

Our friend Mr. Gaither is one of the hands on the Luca Mason. It warms our heart whenever we meet a gallant old soldier like him.

CHANGE.
In order to prepare for an important Change in business July next, I shall Close up all accounts due me on or before July 1st, where not otherwise agreed, all accounts or settled by note with approved security before July 1st, 1883.

NEWS DROPS.

Richard Cox's cow has two twin heifer calves.

Mr. W. H. Whitney and wife are both sick.

Mr. Cooper keeps the town well supplied with beef.

Mrs. James Muckle wears a very tasty suit to Church.

J. M. Joy wants a history of the battle of Laplam.

Enoch Meeker is making some alterations about G. W. McBride's store.

Lucy Miles is very sick with typhoid fever. Mrs. Perry is attending her.

The County officials who have backed the mist look very red behind the ears.

Mr. Harvey has been in town this week after lumber from Muckle's mill.

Mr. Wharton, the new clerk at Muckle's appears like a fine obliging gentleman.

Money to loan on real estate security by F. A. Moore Esq., St. Helen, Oregon

Mrs. Edmunds is very much admired for her lithe and graceful figure and appearance.

The Dart House is doing a flourishing business under the supervision of Mr. & Mrs. Young.

The Luca Mason is a beautifully finished boat, and has all the trade it can attend to.

Mr. Cushman has got a job clearing out the road to haul his ties on to the R. R. track.

Mr. Godkin brought us some extra quality of lettuce, onions, and radishes from his garden.

You can get most elegant refreshment at Alisky & Kraemer's, 145 First Street, Portland, Oregon.

The Cox children are great for pets, and try to make home agreeable by domestic pleasures.

The boom in land matters still continues unabated at Columbia City, the finest place for a metropolis in Oregon.

A niece of Mr. M. F. Hazen is stopping in his family. She looks like a nice, substantial, intelligent young lady.

Mr. W. W. West has had a letter from Mrs. Dann at Los Angeles. She and her son Claude have been very sick.

Mrs. Mary Holman is quite an artist, so is Mrs. S. E. Giltner. She has a very fine picture in her parlor, a bunch of lilies.

Mrs. Asa Richardson was in town Wednesday. She is one of the finest ladies in W. T., and known by us for long years.

Mr. T. Cooper has moved his family into the house lately occupied by Dr. Stewart, near the ship yard. It is near his corral.

The most of people who took the mist feel ashamed to own it. If it comes, they want it to come in the back door and after night.

Received calls from Mrs. Lemont, Mrs. Calhoun and sons, Mr. Godkin and family, Mr. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Strachan and children.

The blasting on the Railroad still continues its reverberations, shaking glass, and spoiling eggs under setting lens. Eggactly so!

A son of the late Ulyssa Jackson is visiting his cousin, Mr. T. Cooper in town. He reports spring wheat doing well on the Tualatin Plains, but says there is no fall wheat.

Young Ridley has an express wagon in Astoria and also a team hauling wood. He expresses himself as much pleased with Astoria. Mrs. Ridley, his mother is slowly regaining her health.

This mist spells scandals, 'scandals,' ridiculous, 'ridiculous,' &c. &c. The editor is an educated cuss. He also tells of "sanguine expectations." He appears to have been a "skate-teacher."

Dr. Giltner and Mr. Fisk have also bought Dr. Stewart's place on the Scaupose for $6000. They paid for Hon. Nelson Hoyt's place including stock, tools, &c., $10,700.

Wednesday morning Tom Welles dropped the staging around Blakesley's big hotel, the cornice and its brackets have been placed in position. The hotel is the finest building in St. Helen.

We think there is the handsomest crowd of ladies in town we ever saw; we don't dare to discriminate for fear of getting our ears pulled. The last one we see we always think the handsomest.

It is reported many Nehalemites have dropped the mist; also some at Bradbury; some at Deer Island said they wouldn't have the Oregon Seal in their house. They don't patronize wife beaters.

Mrs. Judge Moore went over to Hillsboro to see her sick sister, Mrs. Johnson who is down with typhoid fever. Her mother, Mrs. Shuittner was left with Mrs. Johnson who was thought to be a little better.

The young man Council, so seriously injured in the Columbia City mill, it is said will recover. At one time it was thought he would not survive long the accident. A heavy logging chain parted and hit him in the head.

Some of our County Officials, who have the Muckles on their bonds, endorse the mist and assist in its contents. They should have their portraits taken with the Muckles and as a center piece, have Glendye the wife-beater.

The house on the Stevens place we noticed was burned down. It caught while Mrs. Vinsonhaler was at home. Two men who were going along came in, and nearly all the furniture was saved by their timely interference.

A Mr. Warren, who was an orderly for Stonewall Jackson when he was wounded, and at his bedside till almost the last hour of his life, is living in the upper part of the Winton House. He was in a Confederate Virginia Regiment.

Mrs. Drew's father, Mr. Searle wanted a flag engraved on his monument, and felt he could not sleep easily in his grave unless he slept even in death beneath the emblem of his country's nationality. He had served during the Rebellion.

It is supposed the Railroad from Portland to Forest Grove, instead of going on to Astoria will come in through the Nehalem Valley by Bunker Hill to Columbia City. If it does Peter Brous will be in luck as it will pass immediately by his sawmill.

LITERARY NOTICES.
The Washington World and Citizen-Soldier, the Old Soldier's Paper, the People's Paper, is now in its eighth year, enlarged to 48 columns 8 pages, in entire new dress, every week, at only One Dollar a year. Specimen copy free to any address, on receipt of postal card request, by the World and Soldier Publishing Co., World building, 1106 F. St. Washington, D. C.

Have received the Art Amateur for June. All go into ecstasies when we get it; it has so many rare things. It is a perfect world of itself, and brings back to good old times, when man lived for the beautiful alone, and had not to consume his life in uninteresting drudgeries.

The American Register published at Washington, D. C. has been received. We have not had time to peruse its contents. It is published in Washington, D. C. Its terms are $2.00 per year. It is the exponent of Democracy at the Metropolis of the United States.

We have received a pamphlet entitled "The St. Clair Mineral Spring and the Oakland." This portrays the virtues of a famous medical spring of Michigan, and is illuminated with numerous wood cuts depicting the romantic scenery in its vicinity.

Work given Out. On receipt of your address we will make an offer by which you can earn $3 to $7 evenings, at your home. Men, Women, Boys or girls can do it. H. C. WILKINSON, & Co., 195 and 197 Fulton Street, New York.

The San Francisco Call sends us a Bird's Eye View of California. It is a beautiful chart, and shows the enterprise of that veteran newspaper.

TOLEDO, W. T., June 6th, 1883.
DEAR MAJOR:—As it has been some time since you heard from us, I thought I would drop you a line or two. Times are lively here, and everybody seems to be doing well. There is a big emigration here to this town and the surrounding country. The Steamer Toledo brought a portable saw-mill up her last trip. The mill will be five miles above here, and we have one mill one mile below town. Johnson has his wagon shop up so he can work, but it is not finished yet. He is crowded so with work that he cannot get time to work for himself.

Lots are selling very fast here; there is only one or two left now. There will be several new buildings built here this summer. There will also be a new Hotel, the Cowlitz River Hotel. You will hear from us again soon.

Lost.
A Remarkable Circumstance.
In 1875 a very peculiar man in kid gloves arrived at Columbia City. Every one recognized him as a spy. Owing to the great amount of brush he came into the heart of the city. Nothing has been heard from him since, when he cut his way out, dressed rather shabbily, his clothes badly torn, and his pants torn at the bottom. After following up his trail it will be found.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.
THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED AS IT CERTAINLY IN THE EFFICACY AND DOES NOT BLISTER.
REALLY THE BEST!
SAVED HIM 1,800 DOLLARS.
ADAMS, N. Y., Jan. 30, 1882.
Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gen'l. Agents—Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had a speedy cure as was ever gained in Jefferson County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs all to pieces. It was a terrible case, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large thorough-pin, and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and it took the bump out very fast, and he sold afterwards for $1800 dollars. I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth. It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Washington & Keneland's drug store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it, but could not; they said if I would write to you that you would send me one, I wish you would, and I will do you all the good I can.
Very respectfully,
E. S. LYMAN.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.
ON HUMAN FLESH.
Vevey, Ind., Aug. 12th, 1881.
Dr. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents.—Sample of circular received to-day. Please send me some of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, as I have several cases of spavins in my stable. I have used your Kendall's Spavin Cure in my stable and it has cured several cases of spavins in my horses. I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth. It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Washington & Keneland's drug store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them.
