THE DANGER AHEAD.

The bloaters feel that there is danger ahead. Multitudes of people will not forever live in squalor and drudgery, while these stupendous fortunes are piled up by hook or by crook—not the hook of the fisherman or the crook of the shepherd. Farmers under mortgages while speculators fatten,—craftsman and toilers under the iron law of wages in competition with machinery,—everybody but the few under hard lines in a land of plenty,—gloomy lives under glorious skies,—these things cannot last always.

Danger ahead? Of course there is. Danger is always ahead when wrong is at hand, and explosions always take place, from time to time, when it becomes intolerable.

Crack goes the earthquake, and the Hebrew slaves stride out of Egypt as Pharaoh sinks in the Red Sea.

Crack it goes again, and the agrarians of Rome seize their short-swords.

Crack again, and the serfs of Germany and Hungary carry terror before them through the Peasant Wars.

Crack once more, and the fires of the French revolution give dread to monarchs.

Crack goes the earthquake, here or there, now and then, again and again, the wide world over. Heedless are men after the terror of each crack, till they are stirred again by the alarm of the next.

But what of our own beloved country Well, the founders of our Government established a political system that provided for the removal of every wrong by means that are majestic in their plainness and power, means that are peaceful, serviceable on every occasion, suitable to all circumstances, and applicable at any time.

Is this system a failure? Are these its proper fruits that we see when we look around us and stand appalled at the growth of moral gangrene in our industrial state, our society, our politics and our city.?

The system of the founders would not be a failure if fully applied in the integrity of its own nature, and adapted to the immense changes that are being brought about in the push and whirl of the age. If it be not thus applied and adapted by the people—if means be not taken to reach the dry rot and the festering wrongs of the times, we shall yet behold things that will make the evil-doers quake.—John Swinton's Paper.

A VALUABLE PUBLICATION.—Each number of The West Shore is an improvement upon its predecessors and a pleasant surprise to the subscribers. "Progress" is the publisher's watchword and perfection his aim. With its January number the Journal enters its tenth year, and will then appear in an intirely new dress of type, be generally remodeled and have eight pages added to its present size. More attention will be devoted to general literature than formerly, and its artistic features will also be improved. The improvements will make it almost indespensable to every family in the Northwest. The Daily Oregonian of November 27th speaks of it as follows: "The sketches are admirable and the workmanship would do credit to any city in the Union. Well written descriptions of the scenery illustrated are given, and the number also contains consise and interesting articles on mining, agriculture, fishing, transportation, etc. It is exclusively an Oregon production, and has done a great deal towards making the resources of the Northwest known abroad, having been devoted especially to this work. Mr. Samuel has just purchased at a large expense a complete new dress for his journal, and from the advance sheets of the January number it is deemed safe to assert that it will be the handsomest work ever published in Oregon." The Northwest News of the 28th says:" The West Shore is recognized as the most powerful instrument in drawing desirable immigrants and in making known abroad the resources of the Pacific Northwest. With the Jan. number it begins its tenth year, and will then be entirely remodeled and enlarged, and will be made far more attractive artistically and in its literary features. While it will continue to devote as much attention as formerly to the resources of our country it will enter more fully the general field of literature. The improvements will make of it a journal that should find its way into every counting room and family circle on the coast." By all means secure this sourse of information and pleasure for 1884 by sending $2 to the publisher, H. Samuel, Portland, Or.

SIXTY-THIRD YEAR.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY!

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

"THE SATURDAY EVENING POST"
$2.00 A YEAR FOR SINGLE COPY!
—OR—
$1.00 a Year in Clubs of 10.

Now is the Time to Raise Clubs for the Coming Year.

We are determined to get a very large list of new subscribers, and in order to do so we will receive subscriptions at ONE DOLLAR A YEAR, IN CLUBS OF TEN!

And, as an inducement to each of our subscribers to send a club, we will give a gratis copy for every club of 10 at $1.00 each. Remember, we will not send a single copy for less than $2.00; and in order to get the reduced rate, one must send at least ten subscriptions. We cannot send a less number for less than $2.00 each.

Think of it! 10 copies of THE POST one year, with one extra for sending the Club, making 11 copies, for $10.00.

As to THE POST, there are few in this country, or in any other country, who are not familiar with it. Established in 1821, it is the oldest paper of its kind in America, and for more than half a century it has been recognized as the Leading Literary and Family Journal in the United States. For the coming year we have secured the best writers of the country and Europe, in Prose and Verse, Fact and Fiction.

A record of over sixty years of continuous publication proves its worth and popularity. THE POST has never missed an issue. Its fiction is of the highest order—the best original Stories, Sketches, Narratives, of the day. It is perfectly free from the degrading and polluting trash which characterizes many other so-called literary and family papers. It gives more for the money, and of a better class, than any other publication in the world. Each volume contains in addition to its well-edited departments, twenty-five first-class Serials, by the best living authors, and upwards of five hundred Short Stories. Every number is replete with useful information and Amusement, comprising Tales, Adventures, Sketches, Biography, Anecdotes, Statistics, Facts, Recipes, Hints, Cautions, Poetry, Science, Art, Philosophy, Manners, Customs, Proverbs, Problems, Experiments, Personals, News, Wit and Humor, Historical Essays, Remarkable Events, New Inventions, Curious Ceremonies, Recent Discoveries, and a complete report of all the latest Fashions, as well as all the novelties in Needlework, and fullest and freshest information relating to all matters of personal and home adornment, and domestic matters. To the people everywhere it will prove one of the best, most instructive, reliable and moral papers that has ever entered their homes.

We trust those who design making up clubs will be in the field as early as possible. Our prices to club subscribers by the reduced rate are so low that if the matter is properly explained, very few who desire a first-class literary paper will hesitate to subscribe at once, and thank the getter-up of the club for bringing the paper to their notice. Remember, the getter-up of a club of 10 gets a free copy of the paper an entire year.

Literary Notices.

We have received the Penman's Art Journal, $1.00 per year, published at 205 Broadway, New York, D. T. Ames and B. F. Kelley, Editors. It is a gem of art, and any one that wishes to cultivate an elegant style of hand writing should take it. Its information is invaluable. It is a monthly. It contains a world of information and illustrations.

The Last Spike is a pamphlet we have received with the compliments of Staver & Walker; its cost is 50 cts. It is worth perusing, and a splendid book to send to friends in the Atlantic States. It is indeed multum in parvo.

We have received the Normal Teacher, published at Oregon City. Its name heralds its mission. It is a sina qua non in its particular field. Curtis Baird is its publisher. 75 cts. per annum.

The Mirror from Seattle is held up to the faces of all temperate and intemperate to see themselves as others see them. Its price is $2.00 per year. It is elegantly printed and ably edited.

The Home Guard ably edited by Mr. & Mrs. W. C. King comes to hand. While they are on guard the homes of Oregon will be well protected.

The Inland Printer published in Chicago comes to hand. All printers should have it. It is a monthly, only $1.00 a year.

Dr. McCabe gets much patronage.

The Art Amateur for November gives a series of six admirable drawings by Walter Crane of the superb friez, illustrating Longfellow's "Skeleton in Armor," recently painted by Mr. Crane for the Newport residence of Miss Catherine Wolfe. A biographical notice of this popular artist is accompanied by a portrait drawn by him from his reflection in a mirror, by many examples of his work as an illustrator, and by a spirited drawing of his picture of "The Angel of Love Averting the Hand of Fate." The designs for wood-carving, china painting, embroidery and sketching on linen are numerous and excellent. There is a profusion of hints and directions for art work, and the department of home decoration and furnishing is abundantly illustrated and filled with practical suggestions. Dramatic and operatic feuilletons form new and interesting features; the Munich, Louisville and Cincinnati exhibitions are noticed, and Montezuma's "Note Book" is as full as ever of readable paragraphs. A careful examination of this number will show that Art Amateur's claim to be the "best practical art magazine" has a broad foundation. Price, 35 cents; per year, $4. CORRESPONDENCE.

PEKIN, W. T. Nov. 27, 1883.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN—Hoping that a little news from this vicinity, would be of interest to many readers, I attempt to pen you a few items.

Rain has been descending in torrents for several days past; and as you may suppose, Lewis River is up and booming; a greater part of the lowlands are already submerged. School in Dist. No. 12, taught by I. N. Laffert closed about two weeks since, and we regret the departure of our much esteemed and able teacher, who is now conducting a school on Lake River.

We are pleased to say that Miss Lella Bozarth, who has been spending the summer with friends from Cheney W. T. has again returned to Lewis River where she expects to attend school this winter.

Quite a number of jubilant young people of this place think of attending the Thanksgiving Ball at St. Helens, where they anticipate a grand time.

Lewis River boasts of a Lyceum which affords much amusement as well as knowledge for its many members, for which we tender many thanks to Mr. Frank Bedford and Miss Ida VanBebber for trying to render it pleasant and agreeable for all. Last meeting being election, the following officers were chosen, Mr. Whitfield Pres.; F. Bedford Vice Pres.; Miss Lella Bozarth Sec.; S. Conrad Treas.

We still have the pleasure of seeing the smiling face of A. Lee Lewes Esq. behind the counter of J. L. Rosenfeld's store at Pekin, said store is doing a rushing business as it sells goods so very cheap. F. Lee Lewes had a severe attack of heart disease several days ago, but we rejoice to see him able to be among his many friends once more.

We are all eagerly waiting to hear of double wedding after the next term of the Dist. Court.

Mimie Lindstrom, age 3 yrs., of Pekin, passed from life on earth to life immortal last week.

Born to wife of Frank Klager on 23d. inst. a daughter.

Fearing this should find its way to the waste basket, I close. A well-wisher.

LILLIE MOUDELL.

NEER CITY.

MAJOR ADAMS—I thought I would give you an item of interest.

First blood for Neer City fought on Lisk's wharf, J. H. M. first man in the ring and C. S. T. second. On sight of No. 2 sparring began, and resulted in favor of No. 2, flooring No. 1 with a hard blow on the left eye.

Second round both men coming to time, resulted in hard hitting on both sides, but No. 2 getting in a heavy blow on the nose of No. 1, floored him the second time.

Third round both men came to time laughing, and sparring commenced with No. 1 letting out with his right and falling short. No. 2 brought the right in on the temple of No. 1, bringing him on his knees, but he soon gaining his feet, got in a heavy right hander on the neck of No. 2, almost knocking him out of time.

Fourth round both men came to time looking very determined, but betting was in favor of No. 2 as No. 1's face was badly swelled, with one eye closed and the blood flowing freely from his bugle but being of good grit it was thought he would win but the fourth round settled it. No. 2 measuring his distance well and letting out with his right and falling short, No. 1 got in a heavy blow on the ribs of No. 2 staggering him back but soon No. 2 gaining his equilibrium, sent in one on the shut eye, and knocked No. 1 clean out of time. We all think No. 2 will be a match for John Sullivan. From your correspondent,

Woman's Gossip and its Evil Effects.

In our days when women clamor for what they call their rights, when they become preachers, lecturers, and doctors, when they smoke, bet, and otherwise show by every means in their power their determination to be on equal footing with men, it may seem out of place for me to still speak of man as woman's superior. But above all the destruction and madness caused by the attempted emancipation of woman from their imaginary slavery, there remains the fact verified by nature, that man is king and woman is his subject. Great is man's superiority and so great is woman's weakness, he must command, she must obey. Could they but only realize the noble mission they have to perform by their obedience to the ways of industry and economy of their husband, they would gain a more complete sway of the whole world than they themselves can possibly think of even in their most frantic attempts to stand on equal footing with men. Woman can be man's superior, and the most vexed question of Woman's Rights from her imaginary slavery will one of these days be laughed and scorned out of memory by all good, true, pure and virtuous women. It is for man to rule world on which we stand. It is for him to put his shoulder to the wheel and breast the stormy billows of change, chance and misfortune, and it is for man to master, guide and protect the heart, body, and soul of woman, to lead her through the many snares and mantraps which are daily and shrewdly laid in her path that she herself is unconscious of, and to protect her and her name and to lovingly use his right to her obedience both for her good and his own, and our women who make it their daily duty to gossip from house to house, disturbing the peace of the innocent, the happy, the virtuous, and the pious, complaining of the slavery that is imposed on them by husbands Number 2, 3, and 4, would do well to realize that no slavery exists but one great effect that gossip has done. It has separated the innocent child from the bosom of the pure and virtuous mother and feeds the shyster lawyer, and fills our court dockets and smears our auditor's book of mortgages by its evil effects.

DANIEL COWLEY.

Shooting Affray.

There was a shooting affray at Cloninger's Dairy Ranch on the Lower Willamette River or Slough just as the Kellogg came along on its downward trip. A family by the name of Pierce had rented the ranch of David Cloninger, the lease to expire in March. It appears the old folks had packed up, and gone, and some young men of the family were on the eve of leaving on the boat. There were some words over the non fulfillment of the contract, and the young Pierce was shot, as Cloninger says in self-defence. He had a pistol which he threw over his shoulder as he fell over shot. His brother picked it up, and shot at Cloninger. Cloninger says Pierce' pistol got caught in its scabbard, or he (Cloninger) would have received the first shot instead of giving it. Mr. Cloninger freely surrendered himself and will be examined to-day before J. P. Whitney. The young man was shot through the breast close to the backbone, and his whole system was paralyzed. He was brought down on the Kellogg and sent up on the Manzanillo.

A new use for cedar bark has been undertaken at New Bedford, Mass., which could be developed in this section to an illimitable extent, provided there is profit in such enterprise. According to the "Northwestern Lumberman," the Acushnet paper-mill at that point is very nearly completed, and is built for the express purpose of manufacturing pulp and paper from cedar bark.—The Commercial Reporter.

A Bargain.

A small ranch, nicely located, good land, good timber, good water, half mile from Coffin Rock, half mile from Abe Neer's wharf; also a good cow, hay, potatoes, cabbage and other garden stuff, chickens, good house, 5 acres cleared, 3 acres grass, title perfect; all will be sold at a bargain for cash. Call soon or you may lose a bargain.

G. W. CROSS.

Mass Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the citizens of St. Helens at the Court House this (Friday) evening, to consider the advisability of holding a Christmas tree and entertainment Christmas Eve, Dec. 24. All are cordially invited to attend.

Dr. McCabe will be here the Second Monday in every month. He wishes to fling this in everybody's teeth, he does. He don't wear a plug, or ride a plug, but plugs teeth so they stay plugged, and yet is not a plug-ugly.

Mr. T. H. Taylor offers his splendid ranches for sale, one at the foot of Sauvie's Island, the other contiguous to the N. P. R. R.

LOCAL NEWS

The late Thanksgiving Ball at T. A. Cloninger's was a grand success. There were 55 numbers sold. James McKay and J. Press Walker were managers. Mrs. George Grant and Miss Mary Sharringhausen were organist, Dan Balch violinist. There were 45 ladies present. It is almost impossible to particularize among such bevies of beautiful women, but we must mention Miss Mary McKay, Miss Ida Lamberson and the French girls from Springville. They were the beheld of all beholders. Tom Cloninger is the prince of caterers. The supper was grand enough for Delminico's, New York, and shows Mrs. Mary Cloninger is a mistress of the culinary art. At the turkey shooting in the afternoon Mr. John McNulty, T. Cooper and J. Wilson got away with the turkeys. T. Cooper got one that weighed 25 lbs.

Hofsteater & Co. have a floating palace of art at the Pacific wharf They will open out to manufacture pictures next Monday. It is a treat to visit their boat, it is so finely and conveniently planned. There is a reception room, a toilet room for ladies, a work room, a bedroom, a living room and a photographic gallery, all furnished and finished in the highest style of art. Hofsteater & Co. are so fixed they can rival the best galleries of Portland.

J. Press Walker reports that T. A. Cloninger will give a ball at Christmas, New Years, St. Valentine's Day and Washington's Birthday. He just knows how to bring a big crowd, and interest them after he gets them there. Tom is a splendid entertainer, and a rusher when he starts in. He has acquired deservedly a big reputation, and his wife can just take the cake in the matter of splendid cookery.

Mr. Blakesley is having his splendid hotel papered with the latest style of paper. The house when finished will be very beautiful, the dining room has an elegant large chandelier, and the two parlors are fine as fine can be. A door is cut from his saloon into the office room. It is intended in the spring to raise the saloon to the same plane as the hotel.

The way our subscription list increases the threat of the Muckles that they would stop our paper because we spoke of the moon-eyed muckleshoots, the Indian tribe in St. Helen seems to be futile. Running the mist they find out their popularity, and it is our best auxiliary; it shows how brainless they and their pimps are.

Judge Stephens' daughter has lately been visiting at S. A. Miles. She is now at Amos Slavens'. S. A. Miles has repaired up the fence around the Stephens place with a team, but some rascals constantly tear down the fences and the orchard is broken to pieces which contains a very choice selection of fruit.

Judge Moore is getting books for the abstracts of title of all lands in Columbia County. The expense will be $3000. He has purchased an expensive safe of large capacity to contain them. The blank books will alone cost over $500. A Mr. Thorne of Salem, a professional at that business will do the work.

Charley Blakesley is improving River Street by laying down slabs, and piling thereon sawdust. It is a wonderful improvement, and much better than burning up the slabs. A little elbow grease would make St. Helen the finest town on the Coast.

Mr. S. A Miles has received a letter lately from his daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Butler. She fears for the winter feed, it is so dry East of the Mountains. She writes her babe is a most self reliant child, amusing itself sitting on the floor for hours.

We formed the acquaintance of Mr. J. W. Thomas, a solicitor of Photographs to Enlarge. He was in the 54th Penn. Regiment during the War, being at Lee's surrender at Appomattox C. H. He appears like a fine gentleman.

Ex-Sheriff Peacher has made a very nice mechanical contrivance to shut a gate or door. It is simple which makes it all the better. If you wish to know how it is made examine S. A. Miles' carriage-house.

W. D. Smith, the teacher of penmanship has given great satisfaction. We notice Francis Miles, Cora Miles and our own daughter have improved in penmanship, and doubtless all the other scholars.

The mist steals nearly all its pieces, and gives no credit. It thinks that way its ignorant supporters will think they are original. It seems to take kindly to the thieving disposition of its projectors.

We call attention to the Matthews local. They are excellent people.

NEWS DROPS.

Davenport has hot coffee and fresh oysters.

☞Board and lodging by the day or week at Matthews', St. Helen.

J. Harris has been making extensive improvements on his place at Columbia City.

Mr. Jefferson Boatman has moved up to the site of Moore's Mill on the Scappoose.

Mr. Whitney has bought a splendid assortment of accordeons and picture frames.

Mr. Godkin has made quite an improvement in his mansion on Milton Creek.

John Harris is soon to go to The Dalles. Success go with him. John is a brick.

Mr. Larsen Derion is a draughtsman, civil engineer, car-builder and skilled mechanic.

Francis Miles is driving ahead as a butcher, and intends to hold Cooper a tight race.

Mr. Godkin's place is very beautiful. The railroad has taken all the desolate look from the landscape.

Dr. Edward McCabe will be at St. Helen Monday, Dec. 10th., and remain one week.

If the Muckles are the moon, their followers must be lunatics. This is only a cursory remark.

Mr. and Mrs. Young, proprietors of the Dart House, for hospitality and kindness cannot be beat.

Mr. J. S. Davenport is increasing his stock of goods, and making his premises attractive by new lamps.

John Edmonds is the first to introduce a street lamp in St. Helen. May his path always grow brighter!

J. L. Allen has moved into the Durell house and Mr. C. S. Emerson and family have moved to Grey's River.

Davenport has a regular bazaar of Christmas goods. If you want to find out what he has give him a call. It is a beautiful sight.

The R. R. had to cut away the bridge on the North Fork of the Scappoose to let the logs pass down to Scappoose Bay.

Obed Blakesley forbids all gunning on Taylor's ranch on Sauvie's Island. Mr. Blakesley is the present lessee of the property.

Mr. S. A. Miles is still sorely troubled with his hands and arms swelling. The physicans consider it a case of blood poisoning.

There is to be a Christmas tree and all are invited to attend a meeting to make arrangements at the Court House this evening.

Mr. Frank Foster has lately been to Neer City. He reports that municipality as taking on city airs and customs at a rapid rate.

We had a fine dinner at Blakesley's on roast wild goose. When he gets into his new hotel the fare and its accompaniments will be regal.

Mr. G. W. Harris has received an elegant portrait from California of his daughter. We shall be pleased to examine it, and give further mention.

A son of William Copeland was thrown from a horse on Sunday, and broke his arm. His mother brought him to Dr. Moore who promptly set it.

Mr. J. L. Benham has lately killed a pig 17 months old that weighed the modest sum of 375 lbs., and never ate much either, lived mostly on atmosphere.

Mrs. McLaughlin with her beautiful daughter has returned from Tacoma. She likes the Sound, and will soon return. She says her little girl is a universal pet.

Mr. Burogardner has returned back from Klickitat to Columbia County. He says 17 feet of snow in one winter is too much snow for him. Give him the rains of Webfoot.

Mr. Lisher is likely to form a brass band. He has a number of pupils, Charley Blakesley, Frank Foster, Edward Potter and others whose names we have not learned.

Jepthah Walker 14 years old, son of a former Deputy Sheriff of this county is visiting his friends here. He is a bright, intelligent little fellow and a universal favorite.

Mr. Nelson Pinckney will give a ball the night of Dec. 24th on the opening of his magnificent hotel. It is supposed it will be a grand affair, so Mr. Frank Counsil informs us.

We trust next week to get a full list of the articles for sale at Davenport's. He says he has just begun to fill up his stock. If he continues his assortment will be hard to beat even in Portland.

ST. CHARLES AVE., Aug. 23, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & Co. GENTS:—I take pleasure in infoming you that I used nearly all of the bottles of Kendall's Spavin Cure that you sent me from St. Louis, according to directions, and to my satisfaction (and I must say to my surprise) in about two weeks my mare was entirely well of her lameness caused by a bog spavin of over one year's standing and in three weeks time the swelling was all gone and the mare is now entirely well and can trot as glib as ever. I consider the bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure worth to me $150.00 as the animal was worthless as she was on three legs and could scarcely get around on them and now she is the finest buggy animal in these parts and with the remnant of the bottle after curing the mare I have nearly cured a very severe corn on the ball of my big toe that has given me great pain for two or three years. I have only applied Kendall's Spavin Cure four times and the corn now is nearly out by the roots and without any pain. In short I think it is the best liniment that is in use. I have Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases and I would not take any money for it if I could not get another. Hoping you great success I remain

Yours respectfully,
R. C. MARTIN.

KENDALL'S SPAVINE CURE
ON HUMAN FLESH.

Vevay, Ind., Aug. 12, 1881.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—Sample of circulars received to-day. Please send me some with my imprint, printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Voris, one of the leading farmers in our county, sprained an ancle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he expected. Cured the pain in very short order.

Yours respectfully,
C. C. THIEBAND.

Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address, on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. Send for Illustrated circular.
