When the tide of immigration sets in in the Spring Columbia County should have some one stationed in Portland to turn people into this county. We have splendid lands where now perpetual Sabbath reigns. All around Bunker Hill and back through the County are fine maple lands and fine bench land so J. W. Campbell informs us, and he is well posted. Then there is Clatskanie which is a perfect paradise in its wealth of lands and natural resources. There will be a large delegation of Illinoisans to settle in Clatskanie. We think no one will be disappointed that settles in Western Oregon. Witness this winter. It is a land of perpetual spring. Grass green all winter. The climate of France and Italy.

Mrs. Dunniway lectured Saturday and Sunday nights. We were present Saturday night but our cough tormented us so we did not enjoy her remarks so much as usual. The next night we heard she had an appreciative audience, and Dr. Stewart and B. F. Giltner publicly endorsed her remarks as true. Mrs. Dunniway reminds us of the Sphinx of the desert who has the face of a woman and the form of a lion. Through good and evil report she serenely moves on her way to her great ambition, the complete enfranchisement of her sex. Her paper the New Northwest is typographically very beautiful. Her boys are printers, and back up their mother in her enterprises with great energy and ardor.

We met Mrs. Perry lately. She recounted her meeting with her brother which was very interesting. Mr. and Mrs. P. were approaching Muscatine in the cars. A gentleman on the seat asked them some questions, and Mrs. Perry discovered he was brought up close to her father's, and was one of their old neighbors. His name was Hoops. When they arrived at the depot, he ran up to the store where Mrs. Perry's brother Ol Crandol had been book keeper for 26 years, and informed him some one at the depot wanted to see him. Mr. Crandol thought two nieces were there, not once dreaming of meeting a sister from far-away Oregon. He came, and looked and looked, but did not recognize his sister, but she knew him, and walked along, and threw her arms around his neck. O who can paint that scene where a brother and sister met each other after 38 long years. The news spread like wildfire and old friends and neighbors were all agog with delight. Aunt Jane, the old colored nurse was wild with joy, and everyone rejoiced to meet their old friend.

A sister of Mrs. Perry talks of coming to Oregon as soon as they can dispose of their property there.

Mrs. Perry says Muscatine looks singular, every building is so loaded down with lightning rods.

Old Aunt Jane, the colored woman, left soon for Chicago to live with a daughter. Though black, she is quite wealthy so she can pass.

Mr. Ol Crandol's little daughter, seven years old, rushed around to a friend when Mrs. Perry's arrival was made known to her, and says, "Mr. Tustin, my dear aunt has arrived from Oregon whom I have not seen for thirty-eight years?"

The picture of G. W. Harris' little girl, L. A. is 18 by 22. She is remarkably pleasant-looking, has a great wealth of beautiful hair, and is dressed in fine taste. Her turban is resting on a pillar by her side. The background has a beautiful fountain in full play, and a charming landscape. It is so alive, the whole picture even to the feathers on her turban, it is worth going a long distance to see. The Company whose representative Mr. Thomas is must have done their best to perfect so charming a picture. It can be seen at the house of Enoch Shintaffer, corner of Columbia and St. Helen Streets.

It is said a new machine could be started that would pay, a praying machine to do the praying for the inhabitants of Columbia County. They have them in Hindostan. Prayers are written on the flanges of a machine that can be carried by wind or water. We would suggest such a machine should be built by the Muckles, and so much a prayer charged, and Meserve should furnish the wind to make it revolve. We think there is money in it.

When the mist states it is official organ for the county it states a falsehood, as notices are as much official published in our paper as in the mist. It is official by order of Jim Muckle, only that and nothing more.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Benfont has received the sad intelligence that her only sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Caples is dead. She died aged 78 years, Dec. 21st at Amazonia, Andrew county, Missouri, of pneumonia. Her illness was superinduced by fatigue and care of her husband, Charles Caples, who was 90 years old, being both blind and helpless. Her husband, after her death refused all medicine, and nourishment, and in about two weeks followed her to the spirit world. Thus have passed away these venerable persons. Charles Caples was an uncle of C. G. Caples of Columbia City. He was married twice. By his first wife he left two children, Dr. James Caples who resides in California, and a daughter living in Amazonia long time sick with consumption. By his second wife whose death we chronicle, he left two children, Marion and Jane, who both live in Amazonia, and have quite large families. Mrs. Elizabeth Caples whose maiden name was Ward has two brothers, one living in Portland and one at Eugene City.

As magnet points to Northern Star,
Our hearts still turn to friends afar,
No matter where our loved ones roam,
Our bosom holds for them a home.

State Temperance Alliance.

The Oregon State Temperance Alliance will meet in the 13th Annual session in the city of Portland on Wednesday, Feb, 20th, 1884, continuing three days. The sessions will be held at the First Baptist Church beginning as half past 10 A. M.

The Alliance shall be composed of Delegates elected annually and duly accredited from temperance Societies and other organizations devoted to the interests of the Temperance cause.

The basis of representation being one for every twenty members, and one for each fraction over ten. Also any person of known temperance principles may become a member by paying into the Treasury the sum of one dollar.

It is important that all Blue Ribbon Clubs, Lodges, Societies, Unions, Churches, Sunday Schools, Bands of Hope, etc., elect delegates immediately on receipt of this circular and that such members be elected as will best represent you in the Alliance.

All delegates passing over the O. R. & N. Co's and O. & C. R. R. Co's lines and having paid full fare will be returned at 80 per cent off the usual fare, on presenting the Secretary's certificate at the Portland offices, which certificates will be issued during the session.

Now, fellow-workers, in the cause of humanity let us come up to this meeting with renewed zeal and a fixed purpose to press the battle to the very gates as above all previous years. When most important elections both State and National are in the near future, when the people are thinking and acting upon the question of questions, the total Prohibition of the cursed liquor traffic, when every man and woman should be actively engaged in this fight for our country and our Homes, through a more systematic organization, that we may be the better prepared for the IRREPRESSIBLE conflict, for the combat deepens and now is the time for action, ACTION, ACTION.

The ship Tillie E. Starbuck which arrived in the Columbia river on Thursday has among other railroad cargo, the great iron ferryboat to be used in transferring Northern Pacific trains across the Columbia at Kalama. It comes in 57,515 pieces and 579 boxes. The ways on which the boat is to be put together have been ready some time at the yard above Smith Bros. & Co.'s mill at Portland. Six months' time after the ship's arrival here is given to the contractors, Smith Bros. & Watson, in which to complete the ferry.—Pacific Journal.

A married man and woman of bad repute, according to a dispatch to the Boston Herald, eloped from New Haven the other day. After a time they both returned. The woman was arrested, fined $50, and sent to jail for 90 days, and 30 days more were added for her being a "bad woman!" The man was not arrested or fined or imprisoned. He was the same kind of a man that she was woman, but then, he was a man and a voter, and so went clear.—Dover, N. H. Enquirer.

Courtney Meek is in the city, having also just returned from the mines. He brings a number of specimens of coarse gold and has every confidence in the richness of the mines, to which he will return about the middle of February. He states that those persons who have taken up twenty-acre claims, of whom he is one, are determined to hold them against all coiners.—Willamette Farmer.

Mr. W. H. Whitney is a splendid barber, and gives as nice a cut as any of the Portland barbers.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SCAPPOOSE, Jan. 11th, 1884.

FRIEND MAJOR—I thought I would drop you a few lines from this point. We met John Corbin, and was glad to see him looking so well. He is going to the mines, and we wish him success. The report is that Charles Slavens is going to take for himself a wife. Success to Charley! Jess Gould has been admitted into the Good Templars, and rode the goat with ease. Miss Ellen Corbin is going East with her cousin John Lamb in the Spring. We wish them a pleasant trip. Mr. Lamb is late from Mexico.

Richland Mills are doing a rushing business in sawing lumber. They average about 12 thousand a day. Messrs. Slavens and Benduré are cutting 20 to 25 thousand feet of logs a day; they are rushers, "you bet."

There was a log put in the creek by Professor J. Gould that measured 80 inches in diameter and was 42 feet long. Jess is a way up bull-driver, "you bet."

There was quite a surprise party the other evening at Richland Mills, also one at C. Grant's.

We are sorry to hear that Wm. Sharringhausen and J. D. McKay are soon to leave for the mines, as they can't use snow-shoes and web-feet are of no use in the snow.

The Band of Hope is doing a rushing business with Charley Slavens at the head.

There is a young man that is practising law in this part of the County and is soon to be admitted to the bar.

Messrs. Hofsteater and Stafford are doing a rushing business at Gosa's Landing.

Fearing this should find the waste-basket I now close.

PROF. OAKEN OYSTER.

NEER CITY, Jan. 14th, 1884.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN—Dear Sir: As your paper has a large circulation around here, I thought a few items from Neer City would not come amiss. Times are not so flourishing here now as they were awhile back. Wood-cutting is about come to a stand still. Neer and Link have about 2000 cords of wood cut and I believe they are going to shut down until Spring. They are not selling any wood now, and they look very blue on a cold morning. In fact the people of Neer City look very blue; all they want is a box and some one to cover them up. If it was not for the COLUMBIAN they would not live at all. The proprietor of Neer City or mayor tried to sell his mittens, a Christmas present, for fear he would run ashore; so if he runs short what are the wood-cutters a-going to do. We hope that we can fast until the smelt will come, then we can live high until Spring. One man took his family down to Coal Creek to get a mess of coon, but made a failure and came home in disgust. He hopes the smelt will not MISS. The only business place in Neer City is Bolt Havird's, and the only business is freeze-out, and if the smelt don't come pretty soon, there will be a general freeze-out. If the smelt don't come and the winter is very hard, those that have not mittens to pawn or sell are in a bad fix. The MIST'S circulation is very small here. If it was very large, it would be a complete destruction to Neer City, for every man that reads it dies.

From your Correspondent,
SLASHINGSOLPHER.

A Sure Cure.

"Rebecca," said Mose Schaumberg, an Austin merchant prince, to his wife, "I vant you to gif me your photograph."

"Vat in de vorld do you vant mit mine photograph?" inquired the wife.

"I vants to paste it on mine pipe. Times vas so bad dat I vants to preak mineself of shmoking," answered Mose.—Texas Siftings.

Good Reading for Boys and Girls.

The Kaleidoscope, a monthly magazine of pure and entertaining reading for American youth, will make its first appearance about January 15th, 1884. Its publishers promise the best journal of its class ever published for the price,—50 cents a year. Sample copies gratis. An agent is wanted in every county in the United States. Address THE KALEIDOSCOPE, York, Pa.

J. Press Walker reports that T. A. Cloninger will give a ball on St. Valentine's Day and Washington's Birthday. He just knows how to bring a big crowd, and interest them after he gets them there. Tom is a splendid entertainer, and a rusher when he starts in. He has acquired deservedly a big reputation, and his wife can just take the cake in the matter of splendid cookery.

We have received the American Journalist, Vol. 1, No. 4. It contains an able article on Kansas Journalism. It is published at 305 Chestnut Street, St. Louis, Mo.

We have received an illustrated paper called the New York Graphic. It has pictures of Chatauqua and vicinity, the former home of Horace Greeley.

LOCAL NEWS

Received a call Sunday from Cho C. Yong. He presented us a pair of nice vases for our appreciative notice of last week. He has a big run of business. All places around him extend him their patronage, even La Center across the river. Cho is much thought of by all his acquaintances; belongs to the Presbyterian church; has a brother a merchant at the corner of Yamhill and Second Streets, Portland.

The sky is getting queer lately. Red sunsets like Italy. G. W. McBride drew our attention to a lot of green clouds the other night above St. Helen. We don't know what it means unless the Lord thinks the people in St. Helen awful green for supporting the mist, and so envelops them in green clouds.

Mr. Byron Caples reports a $200 lot was bargained for by a gentleman lately from the States; Mr. Marsh has charge of R. R. interests at that point. Prof. Brower is recovering, and can sit up, and Mr. Hodges is doing a good business in his store, and Mr. Pinckney a good business in his fine hotel.

There is to be a Teachers' Institute here in February so School Superintendent Quick informs us. Mr. Quick has been to the Washington County Institute where he was Secretary. He reports there were some teachers there from Portland of the genus, dude.

A. H. Blakesley gave a dance in the drawing room of his new hotel last Saturday eve. It was an informal dance, 17 tickets 50 cents apiece were sold. There was no supper, it was intended only as a friendly meeting of neighbors. All went away highly delighted.

The Muckles sigh, "The R. R. has gone back on us." Their subscribers are going back on the mist. Many of them will soon be mist. This issue the mist is a year old. Poor little gosling! It stands awful weak on its legs! even if the Muckles are its bankers.

It is reported Mr. William Young, our hotel keeper, will soon move on to his homestead on the Cowlitz. He and his wife will be much missed as they have kept a first-class hotel and made many warm friends by their universal urbanity and fair dealing.

Enoch Shintaffer will give a Ball on St. Valentine's night at the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Konkle will prepare the supper. Everything will undoubtedly be first-class, as Enoch is a rusher in such matters, and understands how to get up a boom

The Matthews family have moved into the upper part of the vacated St. Helen House, and Carl Tesch and family occupy the house next to Blakesley's saloon. The little meat shop close to the saloon J. H. Decker has fitted up into a cosey barber's shop.

Tuesday night our chimney caught on fire, and roared like an ocean steamer. Big flakes of soot, all afire, poured out, like falling stars, over the roof and adjacent ground, but at last the fire wore itself out without any damage to us only a big scare.

It is rumored there will soon be a new Editor for the mist. The grand vizier will decapitate the head of the present incumbent, and the cry will be "Set him up again boys," and all the Muckles shall say "Amen. So let it be."

At the New Year's dance at T. A. Cloninger's, 41 Nos. were sold. Everything passed off in fine style. Mrs John Nelson assisted by Miss Katie Snyder of Cedar Mountain furnished the supper which was of the finest quality.

There is near $500 due us on last years COLUMBIAN. Will not our friends come out promptly. We need money to settle our bills. It is not much for each one that owes us, but would in the aggregate be a big thing for us.

Mr. Dell Farnsworth has returned from California. We never saw him look so healthy. He said he had been carpentering while absent. He said he should soon visit his brother-in-law, G. H. Hancock, on the Cowlitz.

Dr. Moore visiting some sick in Rainier reports modern seats and all educational improvements have been inaugurated in the Rainier school, and a lady from Portland is teaching the young ideas how to shoot.

W. B. Dillard Esq. wrote to Mr. A. H. Blakesley that Haven who decamped with a breech-loading shot gun belonging to Blakesley, was in Astoria. Mr. Haven ere now has doubtless found a haven of rest in jail.

On Sauvie's Island, Jan. 2d Grandpa Stump gave a dance to celebrate his 75th birthday. Miss Dea Leonard superintended the preparation of the supper which was the finest ever known.

LITERARY NOTICES:

A Valuable Publication.

Each number of The West Shore is an improvement upon its predecessors and a pleasant surprise to the subscribers. „Pro-gress" is the publisher's watchword and perfection his aim. With its January number the Journal enters its tenth year, and will then appear in an intirely new dress of type, be generally remodeled and have eight pages added to its present size. More attention will be devoted to general literature than formerly, and its artistic features will also be improved The improvements will make it almost indespensable to every family in the Northwest. The Daily Oregonian of November 27th speaks of it as follows: "The sketches are admirable and the workmanship would do credit to any city in the Union. Well written descriptions of the scenery illustrated are given, and the number also contains concise and interesting articles on mining, agriculture, fishing, transportation, etc. It is exclusively an Oregon production, and has done a great deal towards making the resources of the Northwest known abroad, having been devoted especially to this work. Mr. Samuel has just purchased at a large expense a complete new dress for his journal, and from the advance sheets of the January number it is deemed safe to assert that it will be the handsomest work ever published in Oregon." The Northwest News of the 28th says: "The West Shore is recognized as the most powerful instrument in drawing desirable immigrants and in making known abroad the resources of the Pacific Northwest. With the Jan. number it begins its tenth year, and will then be entirely remodeled and enlarged, and will be made far more attractive artistically and in its literary features. While it will continue to devote as much attention as formerly to the resources of our country it will enter more fully the general field of literature. The improvements will make of it a journal that should find its way into every counting room and family circle on the coast." By all means secure this source of information and pleasure for 1884 by sending $2 to the publisher, L. Samuel, Portland, Or.

The Best and Most Practical Art Magazine.

The Art Amateur for January, consisting of sixty-four folio pages, is the largest and best number yet issued of this popular magazine. More than a hundred illustrations are given, not counting numerous full size supplementary working drawings for china-painting, wood-carving, hammered brass, monograms, and embroidery designs from the South Kensington Royal School of Art Needlework. The Pedestal Fund Art Loan Exhibition is fully and critically noticed, with a biography of M. Bartholdi and pictures of his best sculptures. There are two facinating pages of illustrations of the matchless collection of Cosway miniatures, shown by Edward Joseph of London, with other works of art, at the Loan Exhibition; and interesting examples are given of the new very artistic Haviland "grès" ceramic ware. Other especially attractive illustrations are of Detaille's painting, "Saluting the Wounded," and the picture gallery in the W. H. Vanderbilt mansion. Editorially, Ward's statue of Washington is criticised somewhat severly; "Montezuma" in "My Note-Book" exposes new frauds in the picture trade, and Clarence Cook discusses the Salmagundi Club and Brooklyn Academy picture exhibitions. Altogether The Art Amateur enters on its tenth volume fully sustaining its reputation as a very entertaining, instructive, and practical family art magazine; $4 a year, 35c. single copy. Montague Marks, publisher, New York.

An Old Friend.

Who of us does not enjoy greeting an old friend, especially when we can congratulate him on looking well? It is with some such feeling that we welcome to our table VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE, which comes to us dressed in the neatest and most elegant cover that enterprising house ever issued. To every lover of garden work we commend, in the heartiest possible manner, this beautiful and exceedingly practical publication. There is not a flower or a vegetable grown that is not illustrated in it, and some valuable advice given as to how to raise and care for them. Besides all this the book contains a charming colored plate of flowers, one containing a collection of vegetables, and a third shows a specimen of Vick's Extra Early Potato. Vick presents this Floral Guide (how appropriate the title!) to all his last year's customers as a Christmas present, and to all others at the low price of ten cents, and tells such that they can deduct the cost of it from their first order for seeds. To our farmer friends, to every market gardner, and those who merely garden for pleasure, we say—Get Vick's Floral Guide, of James Vick, Rochester, N. Y.

The Inland Printer published in Chicago comes to hand. All printers should have it. It is a monthly, only $1.00 a year.

Nasby's Paper.

THE TOLEDO WEEKLY BLADE

CIRCULATION 115,000.

This vast circulation is because the BLADE is a paper for the whole country. It is not thrown together, but every line of it is edited by competent hands. It is a complete epitome of the news of the week, and whoever reads the BLADE carefully, needs nothing else to be well informed as to what the world is doing. Editorially the BLADE has made a proud record. It has an opinion of everything that effects the people of the country, and it expresses it boldly, fearlessly and forcibly. As good as the BLADE has been in past years, we shall make it better than ever in the year to come.

Among the features for the coming year will be the regular "Nasby Letters," two serials by Nasby, entitled "Nasby in Exile," and "Nasby in the South," a serial story by Ernest Warren, entitled "Court and Camp;" a serial by John McElroy, author of „Andersonville. "Reminiscences of an Army Mule;" a serial written for the BLADE by an Austrian nobleman; besides our regular departments, "Household," "Answers to Correspondents," "Camp Fire," etc., etc. We publish all the news, and latest corrected markets.

Politically, the BLADE will continue an exponent of true Republicanism, believing that the best interests of the country demand the continuance of its control in the hands of the party that represents the highest and most advanced ideas.

THE WEEKLY BLADE, $1.00 a year, postpaid, to EVERYBODY. Those prefering may receive the BLADE THREE MONTHS, by remitting 30 cents, or clubs of three months trial subscribers, of not less than four, 25 cents each.
