LOCAL NEWS

Hon. Edward Martin, former County Clerk, was lately down at Blakesley's hotel. He has sold gut of the liquor business altogether. He expects soon to leave for California. We never saw him appear in finer health and spirits. Being naturally smart, intelligent, and finelooking with slathers of money, he has nothing to do but enjoy life in a rational sensible way, which he is bound to do in the future. He has been a true friend to us, and we wish him a great of fishermen, receives biographical notice

Today in the year 1822 Captain Le mont was wrecked on a heretofore undiscovered reef 450 miles east of Otaheite. The name of the ship was the Sultana bound from Boston to the mouth of Columbia River. On the nautical chart the reef is now called the Sultana | Thomas B. Clarke pictures are vigorous reef. The ship's crew were rescued by a schooner commanded by an Englishman and belonging to the Queen of Otaheite.

Mr. W. H. Whitney has removed his store to the Taylor hotel building. He has a room commodious and fitted up in elegant style. Its size is 22x18, and there two back rooms, one for store room, another for a lunch room. It is one of the finest stands in St. Helen, and Mr. Whitney has just fairly bloomed out in business.

Mrs. Lydia Irvine's husband is one of the Firm of Anderson and Irvine at The Dalles, Tanners and dealers in Leather and Hides. LITERARY NOTICES.

The Art Amateur for February contains a strikingly fine ideal portrait for oil painting, said to greatly resemble the famous American beauty, Miss Chamberlain. Other designs are a child's head, snowballs and hepatica for china painting ; doilies and a portfolio cover for embroidery; marigolds for woodcarving, and some charming figures for Valentine cards and sketching on linen. Ulysse Butin, a capital French painter and some interesting samples of his work are given. Specially attractive features are the page of " rapid sketches" by the Kit-Kat Club, and the illustrated articles on Alma-Tadema's house and Cin cinnati pottery. Montezuma's " Note Book," the musical and dramatic feuille tons and Clarence Cook's criticism of the and entertaining. The practical departments are well filled, and the number fully maintains The Art Amateur's high standard of excellence. Price, 35 cents,

This man's very age speaks of refined wisdom. His knowledge of events dating back from forty years ago is not excelled by any one who is not read up in the history of those times; as a moral man and sound logical reasoner he can't be excelled by any but superior men.

In politics he was one of the original abolitionests, and so deserves a pension more than any who only went to the front and got shot.

He would make a splendid Governor. His courteousness in business afforra, and knowledge of the intricate details of official work, prove him a most suitable man for the office of Secretary of State. In case of a vacancy on the Supreme bench his Solomon like wisdom points awoke from Rip Van Winkle's sleep. him as the man of all men to don the judicial ermine.

But I fear that all these places are eyes and ears, I heard the startling news of the wedding of Miss Alice Adams bespoken, but I propose him with thes and John Brous which occurred at the support of all his followers who are as numerous among the Democrats as in house of C.
